CHAMPION JACK MAY FIGHT JEANNETTE

Johnson Prefers Palzer, but Big Purse Looks Good to Him.

By International News Service.

CHICAGO, July 25.—John Arthur Johnson and Joseph Jeannette, two dusky gladiators of skill and renown, are close to a match at last. A mere trifle of $5000 kept them apart today, and tomorrow we will know that extra chunk of coin is to be produced and the bout assured.

Here is the way it happened. Billy Gibson, promoter of the Garden Athletic club in New York, called Johnson up on the long distance telephone at his South Side cafe. He asked him to fight Jeannette and Johnson allowed he preferred Palzer. The conversation became lively when terms were mentioned.

"How much do you want to fight Jeannette ten rounds?" asked Gibson.

"The same old price I always made you," replied Johnson. "It must be $30,000, win, lose or draw. I don't care who you name to fight me, the price will be the same for my services or I won't appear. Why don't you get Palzer for me instead of Jeannette?"

"They won't let you go on in New York with a white man," was Gibson's answer.

This made Johnson angry, but Gibson finally calmed him down and the conversation proceeded.

"I'll tell you what I'll do," said Gibson. "I'll give you a flat guarantee of $25,000 for ten rounds with Jeannette and that is positively the best I can make. That goes, no matter whether you win or lose."

"Nothing doing," quoth Artha. "That bid is just $5000 too small."

Gibson pleaded and argued, while the phone tolls mounted into dollars, but Johnson was obdurate. Finally it was agreed that Gibson should telephone him again tomorrow and in the meantime find out if the other members of the Garden club were willing to lift the bit to the required amount.

TEN BALLOONS TO GO UP SATURDAY

KANSAS CITY, July 25.—Ten balloons will ascend from the aviation grounds overlooking the Missouri river here Saturday afternoon at the start of the national elimination race for the honor of representing the United States in the international James Gordon Bennett trophy race in Germany this fall. In the number of bags flying the race will be the greatest ever held in America. Two of the balloons, the pilot balloon Kansas City III, and the balloon Simmons, will be non-contestants. The contesting entries are:

Representing the Kansas City Aero club—Kansas City II., John Watts pilot, aide not selected; Uncle Sam, Captain H. E. Honeywell pilot, Roy F. Donaldson aide.

Representing Million-Population club of St. Louis—Million-Population Club I., John Berry pilot, Albert Von Hoffman aide; Million-Population Club II., Paul McCullough pilot, John Hart aide.

Representing St. Louis Aero club—St. Louis IV., William F. Assman pilot, J. C. Hulburt aide.

Representing Indianapolis Aero club—Goodyear, G. L. Bumbaugh pilot, Andrew Farrell aide; Cole, Dr. L. Custer pilot, aide not selected.

Cincinnati Aero club—Drifter, Albert Holtz pilot, Charles Trautman aide.

Street Is Sold.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Charles Street, the veteran catcher acquired by the New York Americans from Washington last spring, has been sold to the Providence team of the International league.

DERBY WEIGHTS AND ELIGIBLES ARE OUT

Two flights by Weldon Cooke pleased the crowd yesterday. He went higher than in any of his other flights. While he had no barograph, it is estimated that he ascended about 2500 feet. He circled above the grandstand a half dozen times and performed a number of pretty evolutions.

The bulk of the race regulars will go to Butte Saturday night on the turf special. Some of the horsemen have already shipped their ponies, but most of them will send them tomorrow. The attendance these last few days of the meet is much larger than it was in the beginning. Derby day will doubtless bring out another crowd like that of Pioneer day.

Following are the eligibles for the Salt Lake Derby, one mile and an eighth:

GOOD TENNIS AT LAKE FOREST MEET

LAKE FOREST, Ill., July 25.—Stellar playing marked today's matches in the western tennis championships at Onwentsia, some of the best contests of the tourney being played in the third round of the men's doubles.

Rockwell and Washburn beat Munday and Stanley in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-3, thus earning the right to meet Asquair and Greene in the upper half of the semi-finals. Hayes and Winston had a rather easy time with Burdick and Bailey, winning 6-4, 6-3, 6-1.

By far the best contest of the day was that between Church and Mace and Ludke and Ryford, the Princetonians finally winning after a five-set tussle 6-4, 6-3, 10-8, 4-6, 6-1.

THREE STRAIGHT WON BY BLANK AND TEAM

unable to make an announcement and was chided after every decision.

The Game by Innings.

FIRST INNING—Warren grounded out, Orr to Abbott. Perrine drew a pass, but was thrown out trying to steal second, Fortier to Orr. Bassey flied to Davis. No runs.

Spencer's little popup went to Perrine, but Bauer walked and scored when Davis doubled to center. Davis was out at third trying to make the hit take him three bags. Devereaux grounded out, Oriet to Carman. One run.

SECOND INNING—Oriet got hit and stole second. Carman bunted Oriet to third and reached first himself when Fortier was unable to field the bunt. Carman started for second and Pendleton got his signals mixed, letting a perfect throw from Fortier go by the bag and allowing Oriet to count a run. Tobin brought Carman in with a two-base hit to right. Changnon went out, Dressan to Abbott. Roberts struck out without striking at a ball and Zamloch was an easy out, Pendleton to Abbott. Two runs.

Orr's hit was too warm for Oriet and Orr landed safe at the initial sack. Pendleton hit over second for one and Orr took third. Roberts's throw to third to catch Orr was wild and Orr scored, leaving Pendleton on third. Pendleton went in when Fortier hit to right for two bases. Abbott flied out to Warren and Dressan to Oriet. Spencer hit one square on the nose and it lit on top of the right field fence and bounced over, scoring himself and Fortier. Bauer singled, but got out trying to stretch the hit into a two-bagger. Four runs.

THIRD INNING—Missoula was unable to score in its half.

Davis singled to left and took third on Devereaux's one-base bingle to right. Orr's long fly to Bassey scored Davis. Pendleton hit to Oriet, who got Brick at second and then doubled Pendleton at first. One run.

FOURTH INNING—Carman singled over second, and then went to third on Tobin's hit. Changnon flied out to Devereaux. Roberts struck out. Zamloch walked, filling the circuit. Warren singled to left and when Spencer missed the ball the bases were emptied. Perrine hit to left for one and Warren came in. Bassey fouled out to Abbott. Salt Lake failed to score in the fourth.

FIFTH INNING—Missoula did nothing in the fifth.

Spencer got safe on Oriet's error and took third when Bauer doubled to right. Davis struck out and Devereaux flied out to Warren. Orr was given a pass, filling the bases. Pendleton also drew a pass, which forced Spencer in. One run.

SIXTH INNING—Changnon out, Dressan to Abbott. Roberts walked and went to third when Zamloch reached first on Devereaux's error. Warren struck out. Fortier threw to second to catch Zamloch and Roberts scored on the throw. Perrine knocked a liner to Abbott. One run.

Salt Lake was blanked in the sixth.

SEVENTH INNING—Missoula was blanked in the seventh, but Salt Lake got two. Bauer and Davis each singled. Devereaux sacrificed. Orr got hit and filled the bases. Pendleton hit to Changnon, who got Bauer at the plate. Bassey dropped Fortier's easy fly and Orr and Davis scored. Bassey was taken out of the game and replaced by Druhot. Cooley and Abbott were ordered from the grounds by Umpire Wright and Davis was placed on first and Morgan in center field for Salt Lake. On a fake throw to second Roberts hit Pendleton in the head on third base and he was taken out of the game until the end of the inning, letting Devereaux run for him. Morgan struck out. Two runs.

EIGHTH INNING—Tobin hit over second for one. Changnon walked. Roberts sacrificed. Tobin and Changnon came in on Zamloch's single. Warren got safe on Pendleton's error. Perrine hit to Orr and filled the bases when Pendleton dropped Orr's throw to catch Warren at second. (Blankenship replaces Warren). Blank was hit and filled up the circuit, forcing in Zamloch. Oriet walked and forced Warren in. Perrine scored on Carman's single. Tobin's long fly to Morgan scored Blank. Oriet scored on a passed ball. Changnon went out, Orr to Davis. Salt Lake was unable to get anywhere in the eighth.

NINTH INNING—Roberts walked and stole second. Zamloch doubled to left and scored Roberts. Zamloch started for second and scored when Pendleton again balled up the signals and let the throw from home go wild over second. Bush, who batted for Blankenship, was out, Dressan to Davis, but Warren scored. Oriet fouled to Fortier. Three runs.

Salt Lake was helpless in the last half of the ninth.
