OPEN SUGAR REBATE TRIAL

Accused Companies Must Appear in New York Court To-day.

Eight Additional Indictments Returned Against Railroads—Heavy Penalties if Found Guilty.

New York, Oct. 9.—The Federal grand jury, before being discharged to-day, filed eight additional indictments against the New York Central Railroad and several other corporations and persons, for giving or receiving rebates on sugar shipments made West by the American Sugar Refining Company. The defendants have been summoned to appear and plead to the indictments before Judge Hough tomorrow morning, when the New York Central will be called to the bar to stand trial on the first of the rebate indictments found. These now total sixteen.

The trial of the railroad company will not begin in earnest, however. It was announced by one of the attorneys for the government that Judge Hough will merely set down the formal opening of the trial for Monday, for which day the numerous witnesses of the government will be summoned.

The eight indictments found to-day grow out of the investigation begun by United States District Attorney Henry L. Stimson and Assistant United States Attorney Wise, last winter. They all allege the giving or receiving of rebates on shipments by the sugar trust at various times in 1902 to 1905.

One of the eight accuses a corporation not hitherto named in the indictments. This is the Northern Steamship Company, the Great Lakes carrying line of the Great Northern Railroad, which is accused of giving rebates on sugar shipments from Buffalo to Lake Superior to the American Sugar Refining Company of New York, and the American Sugar Refining Company the local and the holding companies, respectively, of the sugar trust.

All the indictments allege the giving or receiving of rebates of from two to nineteen cents per hundred pounds on sugar shipments through to the West, in amounts ranging from $500 to $25,000. As a fine of $20,000 can be imposed for each separate count under which the men and corporations are found guilty, the government bids fair to reap a heavy bounty in fines from the indicted corporations.

The first three of the six indictments found last spring will be tried successively by the government, at the terms of the United States Criminal Court beginning to-morrow. The first of these is against the Central, and contains several counts. It alone will take several months to try.

NEW FIRM LOCATES HERE.

Tobacco Firm, with Plant in Baltimore, Starts Local Branch.

Washington is to have a new wholesale tobacco jobbing house in the firm of William Deiches & Sons, who will open their business at 414 Tenth street northwest on October 15. The business will be under the supervision of Milton Deiches and William Deiches, jr., of Baltimore, where the house of William Deiches has for many years been recognized as one of the leading factors in the tobacco business of the South. Consequently the new firm has an intimate knowledge of the Southern field that will be of inestimable benefit. It is entirely separate and distinct from the Baltimore concern, but will nevertheless benefit by its prestige.

The establishment of this firm in the heart of the business section of Washington is a direct result of the Greater Washington movement, and the Jobbers and Shippers' Association is justly proud of this and the many other results of its earnest endeavors to build a greater commercial Washington.

LOCAL FINANCIAL GOSSIP.

"Nothing doing" best characterizes yesterday's meeting of the Washington Stock Exchange. Prices remained at Monday's quotations, or rose a little on slow selling. Mergenthaler jumped a point, selling at 202, with two ten-share lots sold.

There was quite a lively aftersession of the board, several of the members trying to fix up deals on Washington Gas, Washington Railway, and Government 4s.

The Citizens' Savings Bank has elected Harry M. Packard and S. A. Reeves directors. Mr. Packard is cashier of the Lawyers' Title Insurance Company, and Mr. Reeves is the well-known F street confectioner. The resignation of John O. Johnson was accepted prior to the election. The directorate of the bank is now complete, numbering twenty-seven.

Robert D. Weaver has been elected secretary and treasurer of the Georgetown Gas Company, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank P. Leetch.
