COOP CASE SETTLED

Commission as Adjutant Is Signed by the President.

RIFLE RANGE IS CHANGED

Inspector Gen. Bell Announces Qualifications Made by Members of Various Staffs—Indoor Revolver Practice May Be Commenced—National Guard News and Notes.

The matter of the appointment of Capt. Harry Coop, to be regimental adjutant of the First Regiment of the National Guard, has been finaly settled.

Capt. Coop's commission, signed by President Roosevelt, is at the National Guard headquarters. It is expected that one day early in the week Capt. Coop will report there and take the oath of office.

With last Wednesday's shooting, the rifle range closed for the season. The work of the local soldiery at rifle practice has been most gratifying to those concerned. Never before in the history of the Guard has there been so many qualifications and men reporting for this soldierly part of their duty.

Inspector general of rifle practice, Maj. James E. Bell, yesterday announced the qualifications made by the members of the various staffs. The records made by the other members of the militia will be announced by their respective companies in the columns of next Sunday's Herald.

Shooting Records.

The records made by the various staffs are as follows:

General Staff—Gen. George H. Harries, marksman; Maj. W. S. Hodges, marksman; Maj. George Henderson, marksman; Capt. Andrew Parker, marksman; Capt. C. Fred Cook, marksman; Hosp. Steward M. Weller, marksman; Sergt. I. C. Lanham, marksman; Sergt. L. B. Sutherland, marksman; Sergt. W. E. Dunnington, marksman; Sergt. W. W. Chase, marksman; Sergt. J. A. Conish, marksman; Sergt. R. R. Burrows, marksman; Lieut. Col. Lloyd M. Pratt, sharpshooter; Capt. E. F. Riggs, sharpshooter; Maj. A. P. Robbins, expert; Maj. James E. Bell, expert.

Staff of the First Regiment—Col. Ourand, marksman; Capt. Robert Cook, marks man; Sergt. J. A. Dunbaugh, marksman; Sergt. C. L. Shanks, marksman; Lieut. Col. Reichelderfer, expert; Capt. W. W. Cockson, expert.

Staff First Battalion, First Regiment—Lieut. D. L. Bliss, marksman; Lieut. W. A. McCathran, marksman; Lieut. C. R. Luce, marksman; Hosp. Steward J. C. Guessford, marksman; Sergt. Maj. R. B. Beard, marksman; Maj. S. Perter House, expert; Lieut. Ralph Alderman, expert.

Staff Second Battalion, First Regiment—Maj. J. F. Hodgson, marksman; Lieut. D. L. Richmond, marksman; Lieut. H. H. Leitzer, expert.

Staff Third Battalion, First Regiment—Lieut. A. B. Bennett, marksman; Lieut. W. A. Duvall, marksman; Lieut. J. B. Coffman, marksman; Sergt. Maj. J. E. Brooks, marksman; Maj. George Young, expert; Lieut. E. A. Byrnes, expert; Lieut. H. B. Hollerfield, expert; Hosp. Steward H. C. Caldwell, expert.

Staff Fourth Battalion, First Regiment—Maj. Anton Stephan, marksman; Sergt. Maj. W. R. Jackson, marksman; Lieut. W. M. Farren, expert; Lieut. F. F. McNallay, expert; Quartermaster Sergt. W. M. Farrell, expert.

Staff, Fifth Battalion—Maj. R. D. Simms, marksman; Sergt. H. E. Benton, marksman; Lieut. D. S. Nelligan, expert; Lieut. George G. Dennison, expert.

First Separate Battalion—Lieut. W. S. Wormly, marksman; Lieut. W. K. Scott, marksman.

Naval Battalion—Commander S. W. Stratton, marksman; Ensign L. W. Grover, marksman; Pay Clerk William G. Neumeyer, marksman; Chief Pay. Yeo. J. J. Bettus, sharpshooter.

Notes of the Guard.

As soon as the company officers complete sending in their returns they will be compiled and forwarded to the Secretary of War.

The requisitions for insignia to be distributed to the men qualifying is now at the War Department, and as soon as it is honored an order will be issued giving the date for their distribution.

There has been additional contributions made for the winners of the Merchant's match, and valuable prizes have been received from Isman Bros., Frosburg & Murray, and E. J. Hines.

Now that the range has closed for the season, the matter of indoor rifle practice begins to call attention. The officers have shown so much interest in revolver practice that plans are being formed to organize a brigade revolver association.

A series of lectures are being prepared on the subject of rifle practice and the study of the rifle, and will be probably given in the rifle gallery on some of the unassigned nights during January, February, and March.

The members of the Naval Battalion will to-day hold their regular monthly muster. The men are requested by the officers to be present.

COUNTER SALES PROHIBITED.

Exhibitors at Jamestown Can Sell Only by Order.

A letter from the authorities of the Jamestown Exposition has been received by the Jobbers and Shippers' Association, giving specific rules relative to the sale of goods in the Manufacturers and Liberal Arts Building.

Several persons desirous of making an exhibition from Washington raised the question whether they would be permitted to do business directly from their booths.

It will not be permitted except in cases where the articles sold are made in the booth. The idea of the management is that the Manufacturers and Liberal Arts Building shall be free from the appearance of a general store.

Some figures contained in the letter received from Jamestown are significant. It appears that Philadelphia has taken 14,000 square feet of space for its exhibit; Baltimore, 20,000; Boston, 25,000; Richmond, 30,000, and Atlanta and Lynchburg each have options on 30,000 square feet for their displays.

In comparison Washington has not yet taken up the first allotment of 5,844 feet. The letter urged the propriety of Washington bestirring herself.

The special committee appointed to endeavor to locate a shoe jobbing house in Washington are in correspondence with manufacturers in Lynchburg, Va., with a view to having a branch of the Craddock-Terry Shoe Company established here. The committee will go to Lynchburg in the near future to talk over the proposition more in detail.

Hid Her Booty in the Coal.

An examination of two hours by Detective Horne and Precinct Detective Estes was required before Laura Ferguson, colored, would confess to the theft of two gold watches, several articles of jewelry, and $125 from the residence of Mrs. Elizabeth Allen, 101 Lamont street northwest. A sister of the Ferguson woman was instrumental in the discovery of the thief, who stoutly protested her innocense until she was confronted by her relative's testimony. The spoils were discovered hidden underneath a coal pile in the cellar of the residence.

Accept Pastor's Resignation.

The vestry of Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal parish of Anacostia has accepted the resignation of the pastor, Rev. G. W. Davenport, to take effect January 1, 1907. It is thought the Rev. Mr. Davenport will assume charge of a parish taking in Congress Heights and vicinity. He was requested to withdraw his resignation, but said he preferred a field less exacting at this late stage of his career in the ministry.

SAINTS OF CHRIST TO MARCH.

Over 350 Members of Church to Take Part in Exercises.

The annual grand march of the Saints of Christ will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Over 350 members of the Church of God and the Saints of Christ are in this city to participate. All the male members will wear their brown suits and full regalia, as at the Passover.

The daughters, elders, and others will also wear a costume similar to that worn at the Passover. The women will wear brown dresses and blue silk waists given them at the Passover by the Prophet of God, the leader of the sect.

True Reformers' Hall, Twelfth and U streets, has been rented to accommodate the large attendance expected to be present at the ceremonies in connection with this annual "holy march" and demonstration.

Y. M. C. A. MEETINGS TO-DAY.

President Wilbur P. Thirkield to Talk on "The New Man."

Before the club meeting for men in the Y. M. C. A. Gymnasium this afternoon President Wilbur P. Thirkield will give an address on "The New Man." In the lobby concert at 3 o'clock, orchestral numbers will be rendered, and the Lyric Male Quartet will sing.

The Anacostia meeting in the Methodist Episcopal Church will be held at 3 o'clock. George W. Arnold, of Dayton, Ohio, will be the speaker. The Potomac Male Quartet will sing.

At the Northeast Temple, at 3:30, W. H. H. Smith will give an illustrated address on "The Life of Christ."

In the evening at 7:30, at the Foundry Methodist Episcopal Church, an open meeting will be held under association auspices, to be addressed by E. C. Mercer, of the Hadley Mission, New York City.

PROF. H. N. D. PARKER, SPECIALIST, 1424 New York ave. nw., Room 6.—Writing of the Juned Method of Enforced Circulation, which won for its discoverer a Montyon prize and the Grand Prix in Medicine and Surgery, in France, Rostan said: "You have conferred a great boon on science, and I hope that in the interest of humanity your discovery may become increasingly known." Richer, another famous French physician, said: "Having watched its good results, I join my voice with that of my colleagues who desire to extend and popularize this powerful mode of cure." Velpeau, who stood at the head of his profession in France, said: "It is a benefit to the cause of humanity and on the practice of surgery." If you are a sufferer from any disease which has not yielded to ordinary treatment, write or call for my pamphlet on the Juned Method. It may mean restored health to you. no3-tf
