BLUE LEE WINS AT CITY PARK.

Backed Down From 2 to 1 to 6 to 5. Poor Contest.

New Orleans, April 10.—T. Capps's Blue Lee won the juvenile stakes for two-year-olds at four furlongs in a canter at City Park to-day.

The race, to say the least, was a poor one, as barring Blue Lee and Black Mary, there was hardly any contest. Blue Lee was backed down from 2 to 1 to 6 to 5. Black Mary was an odds-on choice, but never had a possible chance. Blue Lee led from the start. Black Mary finished second.

It was strictly a day for odds-on favorites. Flavigny won the mile and one-quarter selling affair with 9 to 20 about her chances. The Watkins mare waited on St. Noel until the stretch, and closing with a great burst of speed, just managed to get to the front in the closing strides.

Cablegram, a 2-to-5 favorite, won in the race for nonwinners since last November

Corrigan and his followers lost a good wager over the victory of Gold Duke, which easily held Corrigan's McAllister safe at all stages. McAllister was a 9-to-10 favorite, but began slowly and could never catch the winner. Summaries:

DON DIEGO A WINNER

Belmont's Carter Candidate Shows Speed.

POOR LUCK FOR THE PUBLIC

First Half of the Card Goes to Outsiders Before a Favorite Succeeds in Finishing in Front—Only Two First Choices Get First Money. Weather Keeps Attendance Down.

Don Diego, one of August Belmont's candidates for the Carter Handicap, to be run at Aqueduct next Monday, had a public trial for the race at Benning yesterday, and he acquitted himself so creditably that John Whalen, Mr. Belmont's trainer, has decided to start the Henry of Navarre gelding along with his other candidate, Okenite, in the $10,000 event.

Don Diego had started for more than a year, and although he had been reported as having done fast work, and his looks indicated that he was fit, there was always a liberal price against him in the ring. He is one of the finest looking horses in training—a big, upstanding chestnut, with plenty of substance and a beautiful horse to look upon. He looks more like a show horse than a racer, however. The field that started against Don Diego yesterday was not one of much quality, Rose of Dawn and Cedarstrome being the best, but the Belmont horse won in impressive manner. He had plenty of speed and did not back up when caught, as he was wont to do in his two-year-old form. It looks as if Don Diego had returned to the races an improved colt with some courage, and if he improves over his showing yesterday, Mr. Belmont will have a worthy representative in the Carter on Monday.

Another cold and unpleasant day kept the attendance down, although the usual crowd was on hand. There was a cold wind blowing all the afternoon, and toward the close of the afternoon the air was raw and penetrating, which made the spectators shiver. To add to their discomfort, favorites were bowled over in disagreeable regularity for the first half of the card. Don Diego was the first one to come to the relief of the public, but as he was backed with caution, the bettors probably did not take much out of the ring on his victory. The Belmont horse and Holscher, winner of the last, were the only choices on which the public cashed, two of the other events going to long shots.

Track in Better Shape.

The track had dried out considerably, and the going was better than was to be expected. Two of the races furnished stirring finishes, Bilfil and Dog Rose just getting to the wire in front of their fields. The former was the winner of the two-year-old race, but to many in the stand it looked as if Servile had beaten him home, Miller scored but one victory, and his suspension seems to have placed a spell of ill-luck on him. Holscher, William Shields' long-distance racer, won his first race of the meeting in the last, when he beat a poor field in easy manner.

Legerdemain was a short-priced favorite in the big field of maidens that went to the post in the first, but after showing speed to the stretch he quit utterly, while Dog Rose, a brown gelding from T. Hitchcock's stable, at 20 to 1, who had been the pacemaker from the start, lasted long enough to win by a scant length. How About You, another long shot, secured the place in a hot finish, while Grafton, also a long-priced horse, just nosed out Nettie Carita and Black Chalk.

Wood Stockton's Trey of Spades was a 4-to-5 favorite in the two-year-old selling race, with Bilfil second choice. Lady Powell had her speed yesterday and was soon several lengths in front. Miller sent Trey of Spades after the leader, while Bilfil was far back. In the stretch Servile moved up, and a furlong from home he joined the leaders. The race looked to be among these three, but Bilfil came very strong in the last sixteenth, and although Servile appeared to have won, Bilfil was given the race. Trey of Spades stopped badly, and Lady Powell got third.

Because Golf Ball is supposed to have some class, Hitchcock's colt was always a favorite in the third, but Greeno, second choice, overhauled Golf Ball in the run home, and beat him to the finish. Golf Ball showed that he had little heart, and quit badly. Lally, who had been having a good view of the race from the rear, came along and got third money.

Don Diego Favorite.

Although he was making his first appearance in more than a year, August Belmont's Don Diego was made the choice in the fourth. Rose of Dawn with Mahon up, was at good odds, and Cedarstrome was backed from 10 to 7 to 2. Don Diego looked fit as a fiddle, and he ran like a good horse. He had all the speed and was in front the entire journey. Cedarstrome was second in the stretch, when he stopped, and Rose of Dawn took the place.

A bad bunch of platers answered the call in the fifth, with Wabash Queen the favored one. The winner turned up in Society Bud, a 15-to-1 shot, who took the lead at the head of the stretch and, hard driven to the wire, lasted long enough to beat Wabash Queen, while Ivanhoe, who had been trailing, dropped into third.

Two declined in the last, a handicap at a mile and one hundred yards over the old course, leaving William Shield's Holscher, hero of last fall's long distance races, to be made favorite. He opened at 7 to 5, but was quicky played to odds-en. Faust was best liked to beat him. Halscher had plenty of speed, and, contrary to his usual custom, went to the front on the back stretch. Turning for home Noone went to the whip because he got in a bad place in the track, but Holscher came away resolutely and won comfortably. Faust was just as easily second, while Sonoma Bell, as usual, dropped into third place.

Don Diego very fit; had all his speed and ran a good race; was never in trouble, and was galloping at the end. Rose of Dawn easily disposed of Cederstrome in a stretch drive. Latter had early speed, but stopped badly. Others outclassed.

89—FIFTH RACE—Seven furlongs. Columbia course. Purse, $500. Three-year-olds and upward. Selling. Start fair. Won driving; place same. Time, 1:31 2-5. Value to winner, $400. Winner, b. f., by Sempronius—Spaldiemore. Owner, L. J. Carey. Trainer, J. McLaughlin.

Scratched—Ormonde's Right, The Quail. Overweight—Congress, 1.

Holscher much the best; had speed, and was going away at the finish; Noone went to the whip at the head of the stretch, but Holscher responded resolutely. Faust hung on well, and had Noone worried for a time. Sonoma Belle ran her race. Congress ran fair race.

GOSSIP OF THE TRACK.

Bilfil, the winner, ran a good, game race, and deserved the victory. He looked to be completely out of the race at a sixteenth from the finish, and only got up in time to win by inches.

Nobody cared much for Rose of Dawn, with Mahon up. With a good rider the Colt filly would have had many supporters, but the presence of Mahon in the saddle kept many from playing her.

Trey of Spades gave a good exhibition of how fast a horse can stop on occasions. He was winging along merrily in front a furlong from home, but he quit so suddenly that Miller almost went over his head.

Gold Ball showed himself to be possessed of a weak heart when he stopped in the stretch. Greeno appeared to be soundly beaten at the head of the stretch, but once he got to Gold Ball's head the Hitchcock colt curled up like a dog.

Legerdemain caused many a backer disappointment in the first, when he failed to win. The horse was backed for a good thing because of his good showing a few days ago, but yesterday he must have left his speed in the stable. He certainly didn't have any in the race.

About once every meeting Society Bud manages to scrape in a victory. The track yesterday, a drying-out one, was just to her liking, and she won under good handling by Simmons. This boy promises to develop into a rider. Society Bud was as good as 15 to 1 in the betting.

Good judges asserted, after Don Diego's victory, that his performance was not good enough to make him a formidable Carter candidate. He was stopping some at the end of his race yesterday, but those behind him also were all out, and Don Diego appeared to win in a gallop.

Many thought that Dog Rose should have been disqualified in the first. The black horse was swerving all through the stretch, and he plainly interfered with the second horse, How About You, on whom Miller had the mount. Miller has been set back for worse offenses than he had to suffer yesterday.

Nettie Carita should have been third in the opening dash, but Henry, who rode her, could not help his mount a bit, and allowed her to drop far back in the early part of the race. She was beaten only a matter of inches at the end. Grafton, who finished third in this event, ran a corking race, and should graduate before long.

Trainer John Whelan was doubtful whether Don Diego could negotiate the heavy going and would not advise his friends to back the Belmont horse. This probably accounted for the liberal price against him. Whelan would have been satisfied if Don Diego had been beaten, and his easy victory was something of a surprise to him.

"Father Bill" Daly saw two of his former horses run in the first, but neither was placed. They were Salt and Pepper and Bedelia. It is not often that a horse amounts to much when Bill lets him go, but sometimes the old man is fooled. He let Jerry C. go, and the horse won some good races for Tom Mannix. Jerry C. was sold yesterday to a local man for $350.

There was a sale of horses in the paddock before the races yesterday, at which only fair prices were realized. The top price was brought by Black Mask, who was sold for $600. Sonoma Belle, who ran in the last, was offered, but there was no bid, and the old mare went back to Mannix's barn. Thomond was sold to G. J. Henderson for $350, Desideratum for $350, D'Arkle to John Moran for $200, Kankakee to George Brown for $300, and Superstition for $105. August Belmont sold Oreodon to E. Utterback for $530, and it looks as if Mr. Utterback secured the bargain of the sale.

San Francisco, April 10.—Four favorites rewarded the bettors at Oakland this afternoon. There were several close finishes, and many of the spectators thought that Vox Populi had won the handicap, but the judges awarded the race to Rapid Water, the favorite. FOURTH RACE—Black Rose Handicap, one and one-sixteenth miles. Rapid Water, 115 (Fischer), 13 to 10, won; Vox Populi, 95 (Kelly), 2 to 1, second; Massa, 104 (Keogh), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:47. Confessor, Ruby, and Reservation also ran.

Kensington to Have Team.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Boyds, Md., April 10.—The Kensington Athletic Association, of Kensington, was again launched last night for this season, and the Kensington baseball team will be in the field again this year with many good players. It is said Mr. George W. Chamberlaine will probably be the manager of the team this year, with Thomas Rainey as captain.

POOR STICK WORK SHOWN

Hatchetites Fail to Connect with Hits at Proper Time—Bill Carr, in Box for Visiting Team, Touched Up for Five Hits and Gives Two Bases—Relieved by Hester.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Chapel Hill, N. C., April 10.—George Washington University suffered its second defeat of their Southern trip at the hands of the University of North Carolina by the score of 6 to 2. A large number of rooters came out to see the game, notwithstanding the extreme cold weather.

The Hatchetites' inability to connect with the ball at opportune times tells the story of their defeat.

Bill Carr was on the firing line for George Washington University, and was touched up for five hits and two bases on balls, which netted Carol
