Tight Shoes Make Lot of Trouble.

Because he insisted upon removing a pair of bright new yellow shoes from his aching feet while calling upon the lady of his choice, Josephine Smith, of 1269 Second street southwest, Clifton Bixby was fined $40 by Judge Mullowny in the Police Court yesterday. It was not Bixby's breach of etiquette that got him in the toils—that is, directly, but it was his reply to the strenuous objections offered by his lady. The noise attracted Policeman Lester, of the Fourth precinct, and he locked up both man and woman. Josephine was fined $5 by the court.
