FOR SALE—FARMS.

496-Acre
STOCK FARM

496 ACRES.

The best stock farm in Fairfax County, in a good neighborhood, at only $21 per acre. 200 acres in valuable timber (mostly oak), balance in crops and grass; 11 never-failing springs; five miles from Clifton Station, on the Southern Railway; seven miles from electric line at Fairfax Court House; nine miles from Herndon, on the W. & O. Railroad; twenty miles to Washington, on Warrenton Pike; one-fourth mile from Centreville, where there are churches, schools, mills, stores, blacksmith shop, &c.; R. F. D. at door every day; four miles from Bull Run battlefield; only farm for sale between Chantilly and Centreville Pike; considered the best fruit farm in this section; a large apple and peach orchard, in first-class condition, loaded with fruit; 20 acres in wheat, 25 acres in oats, 35 acres in corn, 30 acres meadow that will average two tons of hay per acre. If sold within thirty days, the crops will go with place without extra cost. Good clay soil, just rolling enough to drain well.

Two houses and two barns; new house of eight rooms and cellar, and new barn, situated on main road; other house of five large rooms and cellar, with good barn, beautifully located near the center of the farm; all necessary outbuildings; a beautiful view of the Blue Ridge Mountains from this farm; the timber will alone half pay for the farm. Owner has good reasons for selling.

If desired, will subdivide and sell 400 acres, including the 200 acres in timber, with the five-room house and barn, for $5,500; or will sell 100 acres, with the new house and barn, including the fine orchard, for $4,500.

Being so close to Washington markets makes this place very valuable as a stock farm. Stock farms in Northern Virginia a specialty.
