China, Glass and Pottery Store

(Fifth Floor)

Offers These Time-saving Gift Suggestions.

These items are featured for their effectiveness as gift suggestions and for their excellent quality at the prices. Every item is practical, which fact is worthy of the strongest emphasis. The designs, shapes and decorations are too numerous to mention.

Sugar and Cream Sets, 35c to $5.

Dainty Imported China, in a wide variety of tastefully decorated shapes and colors. French, Austrian, German and Japanese china.

New Fancy China, Variously Priced.

French, German and Austrian china—fine quality, artistically decorated in floral patterns, gold stippled and gold-incrusted, festoon border effects, &c. We have chosen various pieces for table use in the same decoration, permitting matching of one pattern in any number of articles. This is a new idea, and affords excellent gift possibilities.

Moderately Priced.

Cathedral Dinner Chimes, $1.75 to $20.

Various types of Cathedral Dinner Chimes and Gongs; artistic and handsome creations; all brass, and also brass chimes with wood brackets, in mahogany and mission finishes.

Imported Fancy China, 50c upward.

Handsome Imported China, including Mayonnaise Sets, Celery Trays, Salad Bowls, Cake Plates, Syrup Jugs, Chop Plates, Marmalade Jars, Cracker Jars and Chocolate Pots. Every piece is new and desirable in quality and decoration; many richly tinted and gold trimmed.

Fern Dishes and Boxes, 25c upward.

Brass, China Glass and several different pottery waves go to make up this unusually large line of Fern Dishes and Fern Boxes. We have catered to every possible demand in selecting and so great is the assortment that your choice will be merely a matter of selecting the piece that appeals to your taste.

Boudoir China, 15c to $7.50 piece.

From Pin Trays at 15c to Complete Sets at $7.50 there is nothing new and desirable omitted from this showing. We anticipated that boudoir china would be in high favor for gifts, and our lines could not be better prepared.

Cut Glass Salts and Peppers, 25c to $1.

Cut Glass Salt and Pepper Shakers, with silver or nickel tops; new shapes and cuttings.

Serving Trays, $1.25 and up.

Some with the new wicker frames and beautiful cretonne centers; others with nickel frames in numerous effects.

Chocolate Sets, $2.95 to $20.

An unlimited number of handsome designs in Imported Decorated Chocolate Sets—French, German, Austrian, and Japanese effects.

Plastic Art Ware, 25c to $10.

An exceptionally large line of this artistic ware in suitable pieces for decorating the home, and also specially designed pieces for clubrooms, men's dens, libraries and private rooms. Genuine reproductions of the fine marble pieces.

Umbrella Jars, $1.95 to $5.

We have added several new lines this season, and the assortments we now present have never been equaled here. Mat Green Ware, Anco Pottery and other strikingly attractive effects; plain and relief decorated designs.

Toilet Sets, $3.75 and upward.

To give an article that would increase one toilet convenience is sure of appreciation. Our extensive showing of Toilet Sets is very suggestive.

German Steins, 25c to $3.25.

Steins are in great demand for dining room decorations. Ours are of genuine German stoneware, with pewter covers, and are attractively decorated in typical German designs, in raised and incised patterns, in rich colorings and German mottoes and other effects. There is practically no limit to variety.

Jardinieres, $1.95 and upward.

Jardinieres and Jardiniere Stands. An unusual assortment of fine gift selections. We offer this season for the first time several new wares never before on our floors, whose artistic excellence and practical value far surpass the low prices at which they are marked.

Nickel-frame Casseroles, $1.35 and up.

Brown and White Earthenware Casseroles, in pierced nickel frames of various attractive designs. Also Pie Plates and Baking Sets to match.

SPECIAL.—We are offering to-day an unusual value in Nickel-frame Casseroles, representing a lot bought under regular prices, and just received in time to be placed with the Christmas assortments.

7-inch size, $1.50.
8-inch size, $2.25.
Regularly 1-3 more.

American Cut Glass,

A Gift of Beauty and Excellence.

American Cut Glass expresses the true gift sentiment of Christmas. It is an ideal remembrance. If your selections are made here you obtain American-made only—the finest produced and the only sorts we carry. In its richness and brilliancy, beauty of patterns and perfectness of cuttings American cut glass has long been conceded ore-eminence.

Gift assortments were never in better condition than now, and the many exclusive cuttings of exceeding richness, combined with the high quality and artistic merit of each piece, adds much toward satisfaction in making selections here.

Pieces are included for every practical and actual part in the serving of the meal; pieces for table ornamentation; pieces for household decoration.

50c to $32.50 the piece.

CUT GLASS AT $1.00—This season we have made unusual efforts to obtain high-class pieces at this price, because of the many who select gifts with this figure as a guide. Our usual high standard has been maintained. Included are spoon trays, celery trays, bonbon dishes, olive dishes, Etc.

Fifth floor—G st.

CUT GLASS AT $2.75, $3.95 and $5.00—Special tables arranged at these prices furnish the strongest evidence of quality and values in Cut Glass that we can submit. Included are Vases, Pitchers, Salad Dishes, Fruit Bowls, Trays, Comports, Sugar and Cream Sets, Mayonnaise Dishes, Etc.

Later in the evening the entire party attended the dance given by Mrs. Richard Reid Rogers.

Mrs. Bryce, wife of the British Embassy, entertained at a delightful reception at the embassy in Connecticut Avenue yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Grant, wife of Capt. Heathcoate S Grant, military attache of the embassy, and Mrs. Gage, wife of Lieut. Col. Moreton F. Gage, naval attache of the embassy. A smart gathering of the diplomatic, official and residential circles were present.

Mrs. Frederick Huidekoper entertained at a dinner last night at her residence in Eighteenth Street.

Mr. Justice and Mrs. Mahlon Pitney entertained Mr. Charles Taft informally at dinner last night, afterwards taking him and their son to the Belasco Theater.

One of the handsomest debutante receptions of the season took place yesterday afternoon when Miss Dorothy Aleshire, daughter of Brig. Gen. James B. Aleshire, U. S. A., and Mrs. Aleshire was introduced to Washington society at the family residence in S Street. The drawing rooms and dining-room were one mass of flowers, many of them beautiful bouquets sent the poular young debutante. Mrs. Aleshire wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chine, draped with chiffon. Miss Dorothy Aleshire wore a lovely French gown of white brocade draped with silk net, and she carried a superb bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Marjorie Aleshire also wore an imported gown of pink musseline, draped with pale blue chiffon.

Mrs. Leonard Wood, Mrs. Albert Mills, and Mrs. Dana presided at the tea table in the dining-room, and Mrs. John A. Johnston served punch. Others assisting in receiving were Mrs. Sidney A. Associated Charities Annual Christmas Cheer Scheme Meets with Warm Reception.

Do you want your Christmas joy to last all the year? Then take a share in one of the fourteen opportunities the Associated Charities is offering the people of Washington to bring Christmas cheer to as many families every day of the 365.

Not only will the joy of Christmas remain with these families during the year, but if you give your name and address as the Associated Charities asks you to, you will get reports from time to time. Won't it be a good thing to receive a letter from the Associated Charities telling you the family you gave your money for is still being helped by your Christmas present? Think it over and when you have decided which one of the following families you want to help, send your contribution to this paper or to the Associated Charities, 922 H Street Northwest.
