EMBARGO HITS BLOW AT MARKET

Wall Street Sluggish, Following Britain's Announcement of Proposed Reprisals.

MOTOR ISSUES STRONG

Steel Common Closes at Top on Reports that Court Decision in Government's Suit Will Be Favorable.

New York, March 15.—Above the news of the day loomed the announcement of Great Britain's proposed measures of retaliation against Germany. With its drastic provisions, not only for holding up ships to and from German ports, but for confiscation of goods or property of German origin or destination shipped from neutral ports.

Trading on the stock exchange was dull, but prices were fractionally higher. Selling for German account has almost entirely ceased although some shipments are being made by way of Italy. The risk, however, is great. London showed no disposition to make further sales at the present level of prices and local dealings were largely confined to specialties. The market was sluggish.

Motor shares were strong, but advances were not altogether retained. General Motors crossed pan, selling as high as 101. Maxwell Motor issues were strong and then irregular. Goodrich, which can hardly be classed with the above issues, made further gains on Western buying. Minor issues were active. Alaska Gold touched a new high record, 33 1-4. National Enameling and Stamping rose two points and Beet Sugar was active, and strong, closing at 40 1-2.

Steel Common Strong.

Steel common closed at the top, 45 1-2. Reports had it that the lower courts have completed their opinion on the steel suit and that an announcement may be expected at any time. Street opinion looks for a verdict in favor of the company. Bethlehem Steel rose in sympathy a point or more.

International issues were dull, Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, and Northern Pacific, each gaining 1-4. Erie was steady. Reading was firm.

Copper shares were strong, particularly the minor issues. Inspiration was active, selling up to 12 7-8. Ray Consolidated and Miami with Utah and Amalgamated all scored gains. Smelters made the best showing with a gain of nearly a point.

Bonds were quiet with a slight improvement in sentiment. The arrival of two steamers increased selling orders for foreign account. There was some new liquidation from German investors by way of the Mediterranean.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, March 15.—Cotton bulls established a further advance today with next winter deliveries quoted at record prices. October contracts, which sold at 9.50 during the last days of January, were forced to higher prices. The buying looked aggressive, but was regarded as purely speculative.

Liverpool prices advanced the equivalent of $1 per bale for futures following the strength in New York. Submarine activity was given as partly the cause of this buying movement.

With today's clearances of 32,647 bales the total now aggregates 5,987,979 bales, compared with 7,678,480 last season.

The foreign demand for American cotton for the remainder of the season is expected to approximate 2,500,000 bales in addition to the above total. The new crop is selling at nearly 30 cents per pound in New York, with no apparent disposition on the part of Southern holders to press the remainder of the old crop for sale.

The Washington Census Bureau report on supply and distribution for February will be issued tomorrow at 10 o'clock. The figures will compare with consumption last February of 456,000 bales.

Liverpool futures closed firm with a net advance of from 8½ to 11 English points.

New York futures closed steady, 8 to 14 points up.

Late reports from New Orleans claim that English ships have been ordered not to sell vacant freight room.

Deliveries of 5,600 bales were made in the local contract market. This is the largest single day's delivery since the new law went into effect.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, March 15.—Many reports were received from the Southwest today claiming that Hessian fly and chinch bugs are present in large numbers in scattered sections of the winter wheat country. Early-sown wheat in sections of Missouri, Illinois and Kansas has a strong appearance, while the later crop is infested with the pests named above, and in addition considerable of the grain is winter-killed.

The area seeded to winter wheat last fall was by far the largest in the history of this country, and heavy losses may be suffered and still a bumper crop raised.

Most speculators, however, in place of taking these facts into consideration will heed only the claims of crop-killers, and will buy wheat in consequence. According to the reports received by the Modern Miller last week, the winter wheat plant on the whole was never in so good condition as now. A prominent grain man who has just returned from a trip East says there are a large number of foreign representatives there buying cash grain whose wants are not nearly supplied. He also believes that foreigners will want large quantities of provisions.

The feature of the wheat market today was the excellent buying by some of the larger houses of July wheat. Whether there will be any new wheat moving during July will depend wholly on the weather. It is believed that harvesting will commence in the far South earlier than usual. The cash wheat here was a small affair when the demand for wheat is considered, sales being only 325,000 bushels, nearly all for export. Minneapolis old 900,000 bushels for Eastern shipment, and both New York and Liverpool bought wheat at Winnipeg.

Corn and oats were both higher, but the failure of shorts to cover in the latter caused some reaction from the top prices. Cash sales of corn here were 70,000 bushels, and of oats 225,000 bushels.

Investment buying of provisions today was the result of strength shown by corn, which carried the entire provision list upward.
