Johnson Will Start Against Richmond Club

"Smoke Ball" Hurler to Pitch in Game Today—Shaw Also Named.

PLEASED WITH PLEBES

By WILLIAM PEET.

Richmond, Va., March 28.—Griffs Pennant Hopes will take another slam at Jack Dunn's International Leaguers on dumpy Richmond diamond here tomorrow.

Walter Johnson and Jim Shaw have been advertised to pitch, and as the weather forecaster has announced a warm sunny day, a big turnout of fans is expected.

Living in the Jefferson Hotel (Richmond's best) is right expensive, and Manager Griffith is striving desperately to draw enough fans at the gate to meet current expenses. Cold weather Saturday kept the crowd down, but hopes are entertained that tomorrow all existing attendance records will be smashed.

In order to offset the pitching of Johnson and Shaw, Manager Jack Dunn, of the local team, will start his best performers, Russell and Mordecai. He openly predicts that the Nationals will find these youngsters more or less of a stumbling block.

Weather Conditions Great.

Weather conditions here today were perfect. The Griffmen refused to stay in their rooms or linger in the big hotel lobby. A party consisting of Ray Morgan, Chick Gandil, Charley Pick and others chartered a touring car and breezed over to Petersburg, while the remainder of the club enjoyed long walks and trolley rides.

The funeral of "Judge" Syrick occurred this afternoon and was attended by Manager Griffith and Mrs. Griffith, John Henry, George McBride, Howard Shanks and Mrs. Shanks.

A pathetic incident was brought to light after "Judge" Syrick's death here Friday. In his pocket was found a letter addressed to Secretary Fowler, of the Nationals, inclosing a check with a request that Fowler reserve a box for him and his friends at the opening American League game in Washington next month.

Plan to See Game.

Before leaving the National Capital Friday morning Mr. Syrick was told that Fowler on account of illness might not be able to come to Richmond, and as the "Judge" had planned to spend several days here after the Griffmen pulled stakes, he had prepared a letter and drawn a check in case Fowler did not show up.

The death of "Judge" Syrick removes one of the most loyal fans the Washington ball club ever possessed.

Manager Griffith smiled when he read the account of the Plebes' easy victory over the Alexandria Cardinals last Saturday. "With Engel and Gallia pitching that was a pretty fast ball club I sent to Alexandria in charge of Nick Altrock," vouchsafed the old Fox.

Griffmen to Start Early.

It is Griffs intention tomorrow to send his players out to the Richmond park two hours before the time set to start the game in order that they may get in a whole lot of batting practice.

Mike Mitchell, former National who has been turned over to Jack Dunn, is expected here tomorrow. If he arrives he will immediately be sent into the game, playing left field.

Griff denied that Jack Dunn was after any of his ball players, adding that the men he had under his wing at present he proposed to keep.

Present plans call for a late start towards home on Tuesday night. It was hoped that Dunn would permit the Tuesday game to begin at 3 o'clock in order that the Nationals might leave on the 5:20 train, but the local manager has refused and the best train the Nationals can catch now is the 8:20, arriving in Washington shortly before midnight.

DRILLERY TEAM ORGANIZES.

Business College Holds Meeting. Electing Officers for Season.

The Drillers Business College held its annual baseball meeting last night and organized for the coming season. The meeting was well attended, and the school expects one of the best seasons of its career. The following officers were elected: Earl Morrow, manager; Conrad Reinhard, captain, and W. H. Bitting, secretary.

Among those present who will try out for the team were McGee, Skidmore, Bird, Becker, Ferber, Stearns, Paul, Gates, Metzler, Reinhard, Riston, Fitzgerald, Bitting, Rose, Bell, Du Fief and others. The team will play an extensive out-of-town schedule, and would like to arrange games with all fast teams of this city. Address letters to W. H. Bitting, secretary, Room 29, Warder Building.

MAY ENTER LEAGUE.

Advent to Apply to Sunday School Circuit.

The baseball team representing the Church of the Advent Men's Club has organized for the coming season and expects to have a strong team in the field. The team had its first practice Monday afternoon and although the weather was much more suitable for football than for baseball, the men, who braved the snow and March wind had a good workout.

Among the men who will be on the club's roster are "Chucky" Dampier, crack third baseman of the Commissioners last year, who will captain the team; Blondon, Huntemann, "Tick" Lowe, and Dyer. A number of other men who have made a reputation in amateur baseball in the District will be in the line-up when the team faces Central High School in the first game of the season on March 30.

The team has made application for membership in the East Washington Sunday School League, but is open for games with any of the fast amateur teams in the District, or in Maryland and Virginia, and would like to hear from the Lincolns, Trojans, Alexandria Cardinals, Crescents, Keller Church, Hillbrook A. C., Tennallytown, and other fast teams regarding games.

H. W. Tallman, 116 U street northwest, is manager of the team and is preparing the schedule for the season.

Frank Baker May Go to Camp.

Trappe, Md., March 28.—The fact that Frank Baker is training diligently at his home here has caused the belief that he expects to join Connie Mack's team when the season opens, and that he is not serious in his intention to quit the game. Baker has been training both indoors and outdoors and seems in fine shape. His neighbors expect him to start for the Athletics' camp almost any day now.

New Racing Shells for Yale.

New Haven, Conn., March 28.—The new racing shells will be added to the equipment of the Yale varsity crew this spring, according to an announcement by Coach Guy Nickalls today. One shell, built in England, is due next week, and the other, given by Col. L. P. Robinson, of Hartford, will be ready for the Yale-Princeton-Cornell race in May.

Medicos Issue Defi.

The Naval Medicos, winners of last year's Independence League, have issued a sweeping defi to all the fast baseball teams in the District for games this year. Address W. E. Quenstedt, at the Naval Hospital.

Georgetown Will Open Exhibition Games Here

Local fans will get their first opportunity to see the Nationals in action Wednesday afternoon when they meet the Georgetown University nine at the ball park in the first exhibition game of the season. Manager Griffith, partly as a favor to the collegians, and moreover, to give the public their first taste of real baseball, has promised to pitch Walter Johnson for at least five innings, and perhaps for the whole game.

All the "rookies" that are being tried by Washington will also be seen in action during some part of the game, so the fans may get a line on the new material that may add the necessary strength to keep the local outfit in the pennant hunt.

The Hilltop aggregation returned from the South late yesterday afternoon, where they played four games, meeting the University of Georgia, and Georgia Tech in two games each. Coach O'Reilly, while disappointed that his charges annexed but one victory in four starts, is nevertheless greatly encouraged by the pitching displayed by Freddy Brannan, a youngster hailing from Boston Latin School, who received his first baptism in college baseball when he hurled the Blue and Gray to a 9-3 victory over Georgia Tech on Saturday. Indications now point to Brannan working against the Nationals Wednesday, with Tommy Thompson, the local sandlotter, who is making good with a vengeance with the Georgetown club, in reserve.

Georgetown was unfortunate in getting away to a very poor start in its Southern tour, as Capt. Torney was kept out of the first three games because of a slight attack of blood-poisoning in his arms, while Lion Weems, the first string catcher on last year's varsity was replaced by Irwin, a new backstop. Weems returned to his position in the last game, however, and came through with three clean bingles, including a double, while Torney likewise totaled three safe ones, between them driving in five runs.

Shugrue, who started the season in the outfield, has been shifted to second base, replacing Calnan, the quarter-back of the football team, and in all probability will remain a fixture there. "Mike" Heradini, a product of Georgetown's own Prep, is making a tremendous bid for the vacant outfield job, and at present, because of his consistent work on the Southern trip, seems to have the call on both Noark and Joyce, of the reserves.

REX OPENS WITH VICTORY.

Defeating the Empire A. C. in Fast Game.

With Bill Neitzey and Lawrence Nore pitching in relieving form the Rex A. C., of the North east, defeated the Empire A. C., 7 to 4.

The team showed lack of practice, but with a few games and a Manager Wright expects to make it interesting for teams with championship aspirations this season. Daughton, Rehrle and Fletcher featured with their hitting. The score:

FOOTBALL FANS GET BUSY.

Applications Are Being Made for the Army-Navy Game.

West Point, N. Y., March 28.—Although it is a far cry to next November and the Army-Navy football game, fans who are anxious to witness that classic are even now sending in their subscriptions to the Army Athletic Council in the hope that an early subscription will insure seats for the game. Now that it has been definitely decided to play the game on the Polo Grounds in New York, followers of army athletics are keenly interested, and those in charge of the matter at the Military Academy are kept busy answering inquiries. No subscriptions will be received by the athletic council before the date is declared by an officer of the army or cadet of the academy.

The secretary-treasurer of the athletic council, Lieut. C. B. Meyer, announces that seats for the Army-Navy basket-ball game, which is scheduled to take place here on May 20, will be reserved for those members of the athletic associations who desire them.

NAVY ROOTING BARRED.

Unnecessary Talk in Middies' Ball Games Prohibited.

Annapolis, Md., March 28.—The middies were quite unusual afternoon during their game of football against the nine of West Virginia Wesleyan as a consequence of the order of the superintendent of the academy that no cheering on the side lines nor on the bench were the part lads to utter an unnecessary word. For years the navy players have made use of a continuous and generally provoking chatter while in the field, their idea being that it infused life into the playing. Thoroughly disgusted with the practice, Superintendent Pullum issued orders to suppress it, and yesterday afternoon about the only thing a midship man could do on the field was to call out who should take a fly.

Apparently the change in the custom did not detract from the midshipmen's playing, for they won their opening game by 12 to 0.

Erdman Sells Ball Stars.

Allentown, March 28.—President Max S. Erdman, of the Allentown team, has sold a number of his players. Danny McGlynn, second baseman, will go to Manchester, N. H., managed by Tom Keany, the Lehigh University coach. Keady is also anxious to get "Rip" Cassell, the hard-hitting Allentown outfielder. Murray has been sold to Grand Rapids, and it is likely that Schutz of Philadelphia, catcher, will go with Jimmy Jackson, formerly with the Wilmington manager, to Topeka. Ivy Hoffman, formerly the Reading manager, has bought Boyle, the fast first baseman; Monroe, the catcher, and Kunkel, a first-class backstop. John Castle, who managed Allentown last season, had contracted with Springfield, Ill., to manage its team in the Three I League, but soon afterward Springfield was ousted from that organization.

Interested in Bout.

Detroit, March 28.—Much interest is being manifested in the ten-round bout tomorrow night at the Windsor A. C. between Champion Freddie Welsh and Patsy Drouillard, the young Canadian champion. The seat sale is the heaviest that has been made for any fight across the river. Canadians from all surrounding towns have made reservations and local fans will be there in great force.

Condemns Bleachers.

St. Louis, March 28.—Building Commissioner McKelvy today condemned the north and east bleachers at Robinson Field, the home of the Cardinals. They have a seating capacity of 10,000. The building commissioner declared that they cannot be made safe in less than two months' time. According to Schuyler P. Britton, president of the Cardinals, today, this means that the Cardinals will play at Sportsman's Park until the 1st of June. The first game of the spring series, scheduled for Robinson Field next Saturday, has been transferred to the American League Park.

Toronto Trains at Durham.

Toronto, Ont., March 28.—President McCaffery, of the Toronto International League club, has made known his training plans. The players under Manager Clymer will gather at Durham, N. C., to remain there until the season opens, it being understood Toronto will open at Richmond on April 27. Clymer gradually is gathering a team together and with such aid as he will receive from various major league clubs expects to have his squad complete soon.

Crescents Get Started.

The Crescent A. C. will play the Petworth A. C. March 28 at their home diamond, Seventeenth and D streets southeast, at 2:30 o'clock. The following will be the line-up: Clarkson, catcher; Bon Soignour, first base; Quigley, second base; Lehman, shortstop; Baldwin, third base; Allen, right field; Garratt, center field; Belt, left field, and Young, pitcher. Any other teams desiring games, address George Lang, manager, 1447 Pennsylvania avenue southeast.

Entire Stable Room Is Taken at Bowie

Over 800 Thoroughbreds Are Ready for the Opening at Prince Georges Park.

OFFICIALS TO ARRIVE

Bowie, Md., March 28.—Tonight there is not an empty stall on Prince George's Park, over 700 thoroughbreds now being here with 25 more at Benning, from which place a special horse train will run to this place every morning. This afternoon W. R. Midgely arrived from Aiken, S. C., with the stable of Gifford A. Cochran, who has secured a contract for the services of Walter Lilly, the track rider at New Orleans. With the exception of Tightny, Connemara, Royal Martyr, and The Marchioness, the Cochran establishment comprises 2-year-olds, twenty in number, which are being fitted for the coming season. The youngsters are all credited with first-class trials. They are The Brush, b. c., by Ben Brush-Lady Hortense; Brushwood Boy, br. c., by Ben Brush-Dame; Broom Corn, b. f., by Ben Brush-Tanawha; Short Ballot, ch. c., by Voter-Cadotta; Co Preliminary, ch. c., by Voter-Goody Good; Feminist, ch. f., by Voter-Belle of Ashland; Pleione, br. f., by Sain-Spindrift; Prince of Como, b. c., by Disguise-Claudia; Airman, br. c., by Waterboy-Colonial; Hands Off, b. c., by Plaudit-Meddling Mary; Devonshire Dolly, b. f., by Broomstick-Sankara; Pantomine, b. f., by Peter Pan-Benefactress.

Larry Carey, who was formerly agent for the Beverwyck stable, owned by Frank J. Nolan, the Albany brewer, was an arrival from Oriental Park, Havana, yesterday. Carey will have a half dozen to campaign at Prince George's Park. He sold his Colonel Holloway, the winner of the Preakness at Pimlico two years ago. Colonel Holloway was Carey's principal breadwinner at the Cuba track.

Paton, the winner of ten races last season and a chestnut rugged son of Chinatownda, has been turned over to John Pending by A. P. Doyle, and he will be raced during the Bowie meeting.

Algernon Dangerfield, E. E. Smith, the steward representing the Jockey Club, Judge Murphy and Starter Dade will arrive Wednesday. Racing Secretary Joseph McGrann is here, and his arrival was celebrated by unfurling to the breeze the Maryland flag on the big pole in the center field.

The track was the mecca for a large crowd of visitors today, including some from Philadelphia. There were a lot of horses given a hard workout. Elmadi brought 5-8 in 1:35, Stentor did a mile in 1:42½ very handily, Americus romped 5-8 in 1:00, Polly H. went along for one-half easy in :51, Northerner did the same distance in :50½, Vipeth mile in 1:50. Remarkable, three-quarters in 1:13; Snaps, half in :51.

Some of the star Eastern horses that have been prepared for the meeting are Roskin, winner of last season's Metropolitan Handicap; Flying Fairy, winner of the Bowie at Pimlico last fall; Garbage and Trial by Jury, two of the most promising 3-year-olds in the East; Flittergold and Stromboli, Headmast, G. M. Miller, Ella Bryson, Scimprolus and Surprising, Isidora, Protector, Dr. Larrick and Carbide, Star Gaze, Headmast and Mazzano, The Masquerader, Boxer, Harry Shaw, Slumber II and the 3-year-old Hauteck, a full brother of Gainer.

TO FIGHT DUTCH BRANDT.

Kid Williams to Meet Brooklyn Boy in Baltimore.

Baltimore, March 28.—Sammy Harris, manager of Kid Williams, announced this afternoon that the bantam weight will meet Dutch Brandt, of Brooklyn, in a fifteen-round bout in this city during the spring horse racing campaign, which begins April 1, and closes May 9. Williams and Brandt met in a fast ten-round go in Brooklyn some months ago. Williams, who is the champion A. A. U. of Philadelphia, Williams will meet Louisiana for six rounds at 118 pounds.

Negotiations will probably be closed soon with New Orleans promoters for a twenty-round bout for the championship between Williams and Johnny Kilbe, the sensational St. Louis bantam, the mill to be staged in May.

To Manage Kayseefeds.

Kansas City, Mo., March 28.—Persistent rumors which remain undecided, have it that John G. Kling, former world's champion Cub catcher, has signed a contract to catch for and manage the Kansas City Federal League club, in case the court keeps the club here. Kling announced a month ago that he wanted to play ball in this, his home town. He said he wanted to buy the American Association club, but failed to meet Owner Taleau's terms. According to his close friends, local Fed backers influced him to sign for one year at a reported salary for $10,000. The deal will be announced at a Federal League banquet here tonight.

Hoffman Loses Shooting Title.

Allentown, March 28.—President Max S. Erdman, the veteran ball player of Philadelphia, who recently won the white flyer championship of Pennsylvania, did not hold his title long. Joseph Geaver, of the Delaware Water Gap, taking it away from him yesterday in a match at Point Breeze. The men shot at twenty-five birds and Graves went down the line without a miss. Hoffman failed to bring down his first bird, but killed the remaining twenty-four straight.

Clarendons After Games.

Sporting Editor of The Washington Herald: The Clarendon Baseball Association still has several open dates on its schedule, and I should be pleased to get in communication with the managers of a number of teams in Washington to arrange games for Saturday and Sunday afternoons and holidays.

Want Odds of Willard.

Havana, March 28.—Jess Willard's training quarters at the Miramar Gardens are becoming the Meca of all Havana society, both men and women, as the date of his fight with Jack Johnson draws near.

It is estimated that about 1,000 men and women watched Willard go through his training stunts today.

Betting on the fight is already heavy, and there is a large amount of Willard money in sight, though the bettors favoring the white challenger are asking good odds.

Sportsmen Fight Duel.

Atlanta, Ga., March 28.—In a revolver duel this afternoon on the steps of the Carnegie Library, just off Beachtree street, Atlanta's principal thoroughfare, "Stogie" Waters, a well-known character in sporting circles, was shot and killed by Walter Daniels, also well known among the handbook makers.

Daniels was himself wounded, but not seriously. It is reported the shooting was the result of a quarrel over a gambling deal.
