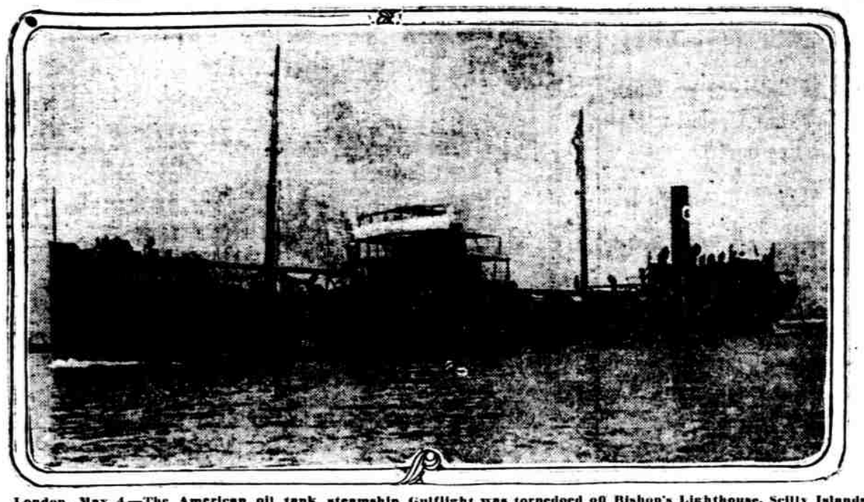
AMERICAN STEAMSHIP TORPEDOED BY GERMANS



London, May 4.—The American oil tank steamship Gulflight was torpedoed off Bishop's Lighthouse, Scilly Islands, at noon on Saturday by a German submarine. The vessel was badly damaged. Thirty-three of the crew of thirty-six men were landed at Scilly by a patrol boat. Two of the crew jumped overboard and were drowned. The captain later died of heart failure as a result of the shock. The vessel was later picked up by steam drifters, which towed her into Crew Sound, where she was beached. The Gulflight was laden with naphtha from Port Arthur, Tex., for Rouen, France.

TO TENDER BENEFIT TO MANAGER G. PECK

Big Wrestling Bouts to Be Held at Gayety Theater on Wednesday Night, May 12.

On next Wednesday night, May 12 a farewell testimonial benefit will be tendered to George Peck, of the Gayety Theater. A big wrestling carnival will be staged and the usual popular prices will prevail.

The star bout of the evening will be a finish match between Joe Turner, the middleweight champion, and Fritz Hanson, the Swedish champion. Fritz Hanson is heralded as being one of the best men in the middleweight class, and a New Hampshire publication announces his defeating Chris Jordan in two straight falls.

Hanson has defeated some of the best men the wrestling game affords, including John Kilonis, Wallace, Henry Issinger, Westergard and many other reputable men. Hanson has challenged the World at 155 pounds and will concede from 5 to 15 pounds.

Hanson has crippled many grapplers in different matches staged throughout the country, his grip being as powerful as a lion. Joe Turner is doing great work on the road and is confident he will beat the Swedish Grappler. Fritz Hanson, holder of a beautiful loving cup, having won same in a journey some few years ago, and will post it as a side bet against Turner's belt.

The preliminary bout of the evening will be staged at 8:45 p. m.

Bumps Turner, the light heavy-weight champion of Washington, meets Sailor Nokes, light heavyweight champion of the navy. This should be a fast bout as Bumps is in good condition. Sailor Nokes is well known in the navy and holds the championship title of the nine courts. Nick Peck has hung large purses for these matches, and he assures the wrestling fans two great bouts.
