JUI-JITZU CHAMPION ISSUES SWEEPING DEFI

The local wrestling fans are to be given a real treat all next week at the Gayety Theater when K. Takeuchi, the jiu jitsu champion wrestler of Japan, will meet all comers at every performance. Takeuchi is anxious to get a crack at some of the wrestlers who have appeared here lately and although he prefers to wrestle the jiu jitsu style, he will take on any of his opponents at the American catch-as-catch-can game. Takeuchi will agree to throw any of the local grapplers in a limited number of minutes or forfeit $50. Takeuchi performed last summer at Madison Square Garden and is traveling with the Tourist Company. This defi is open to any wrestlers at either style of the game.

Turner to Meet Gardner.

Joe Turner, who has signed articles to wrestle John Kilonis next Tuesday, left last night for Charlotte, N. C., where he wrestles Pink Gardner, 165-pound wrestler, who has been defeating every wrestler of note in the South. Joe will wrestle at the Charlotte Auditorium tonight.

GIANTS DROP BACK IN CELLAR PLACE

Brooklyn, April 19.—The Giants were crowded back into their accustomed haunts of last year as the result of the only game of their inaugural series with the Dodgers at Ebbets Field this afternoon. Brooklyn by grace of a rally in the eighth inning that produced four runs, won out by a score of 7 to 3, and climbed from the cellar over the prostrate form of the 1915 tenant.

PITCHERS' WILDNESS LOSES FOR BOSTON

Philadelphia, April 19.—Wildness on the part of Boston's pitchers proved costly today, the home players hitting the ball hard after batsmen had been given passes. Philadelphia defeated Boston by a score of 8 to 5. Boston sent in three pitchers in the eighth inning, and all of them were ineffective.

Hughes, Knetzer, Tyler, Reulbach and Gowdy; Mayer, Rixey, Bender and Burns. Umpires—Klem and Emslie.

Official figures show that fogs are more frequent on the coasts of Maine and New Hampshire than on any other parts of the coasts of the United States.

COUNT HERR GETZ TO MEET LOCAL CRACKS

In order that all the local bowling fans could see Herr von Getz in action, the Washington tournament company arranged to have the "Count" and his partner Cohn, both of the Hudson bowling team of Hoboken, winners in the five-men team event, to roll at a special attraction to ___ night. Gengler and Cohn issued a defi to any two of the two local pin spillers to roll a set and the tournament company immediately got Harry Krauss and Jim Fields together as the challengers. In the duckpin sets "Pop" Halley and Harry Krauss will match with the "Count" and his copartner. Another event has been arranged, Gengler rolling a set of ten pins palming the ball while any of the ordinary but not crack bowlers of this city can grip the ball. Following the three matches Gengler will give an exhibition of all the fancy shots which he knows.
