GENE WESTERGARD READY FOR TURNER

Grappling fans that turn out tomorrow night to witness the mat sport at the New Folly Theater are sure of witnessing one of the best bouts that has been held in this vicinity in many moons, as Gene Westergard, the famous Western mat artist, who last season grappled under the title of the "Masted Marvel," is slated to meet Joe Turner, the middle-weight champion of the world, in a finish affair. Manager McGeorge booked these grapplers after much wrangling, and a whirlwind affair is anticipated.

BAN B. JOHNSON IS NOT IN NEW YORK

New York, Nov. 25.—The report that President Ban Johnson, of the American League, arrived here last night to take part in conferences regarding the reorganization of baseball is untrue. Mr. Johnson is not in the city.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS READY FOR CONTEST

Coach Morse had his Western eleven out yesterday working in preparation for the game with Central on Wednesday, which will be staged at the Mt. Pleasant Stadium instead of the American League Park as first stated. Western is developing a defensive formation that it is expected will break up the shift plays of the Blue and White team.

Capt. Cullen and his crew were working hard yesterday on some new plays which they will spring on the tribe from across the creek. Metzler has been coaching his men in the fine points of the game and looking out for the kickers, as he is anxious to have a punter in the fray that can out punt Alexander of the Western eleven.

Fred Futlon is at it again. He looks like either an ace or a deuce, to wit: Moran, ace; Cowler, deuce; Dempsey, deuce; Meehan, ace.

MINTO SECOND TAKES FEATURE

Fellows' Horse Captures Red Cross Autumn Consolation Handicap.

Bowie, Md., Nov. 25.—One of the largest crowds of the season journeyed to the Prince George Park today. It was Red Cross Day, General Manager Jim O'Hara donated the entire gate receipts to the worthy cause, and the happy, good-natured gathering made the day a big one. The chief feature of the afternoon was the Red Cross Autumn Consolation Handicap, which was captured by Fellows' Minto II.

Starter Edward Tribe gave the imported horse all the best of the break at the barrier in this mile hike as Minto came up on a run, and when the barrier was sprung was well underway. The Fellows entry was never headed, as he made every post a winning one. Loft's Deckmate made a great bid to overtake the flying Minto and answered gamely to the whip of Jockey Kelsay, but the lead gathered by Minto at the break proved enough to offstand all challenges. Matinee Idol had enough left to finish the route in show position.

A classy bunch of 2-year-olds started in the opening event, which Athlone won as she pleased. The coe fly followed the pace in this six furlongs to the turn into the stretch run, when McAtee made his bid and won going away. Seaway, from the Sterns barn, with Stalker in the pigskin, set the pace over the entire journey and managed to nod in ahead of Maj. Belmont's Fair and Square.

Samuel Ross' 2-year-old filly, Ormonda, was down in front of a good crowd in the dash event, which was the third number of the card. Apple Jack 2nd getting into place, with Lackawanna, the favorite, in show. C. A. Comiskey, a rank outsider, from the Williams-Mallory entry, was the first to catch the judges' eyes in the third, which was a seven-furlong event out of the chute. Skeer Face ran second, with Loftus, another entry horse, in show position. Skeer Face tried hard to get up in time to overtake the Williams colt, but refused under raps. C. A. Comiskey paid $42.20 for a $2 ticket.

The longest price horse of the afternoon caught the judges' eyes in the fifth when J. E. Griffith's Ballast finished five lengths in front of Graphic in this mile and twenty-yard race. Just Au Bout who was heavily played grabbed off the show position, while Ballymooney and Widow Bedotte the hot favorites failed to get into the money. The winner paid $45.70 for a $2 ticket.

The sixth was the real tough one for the regular followers to pick and most of the betting went to Doctor's Babette but Poor Butterfly who has recently landed honors was first to the tape with Queen of Sea second and the Doctor's horse third. Kebo proved the best of the largest field of the day in the last number while Sister Emblem finished second and Silver Sandals third. The summary:

DOBIE DENIES ORDERING PLAY

Navy Coach Had Nothing to Do with Saunders' "Brainstorm"; Opinions Differ.

The reports of the incident were confused, and one rumor had it that Saunders made the tackle under instructions from Coach Gilmour Dobie, the lean Westerner spiked it. In way of explanation, he said:

"The nervous excitement was too much for Saunders. He couldn't control himself. That's all there was to it. There was no question about the illegality of his act and, of course, the touchdown was allowed.

"I can't understand this rumor that he acted by direction. It would have been foolhardy had I attempted such a thing. It was plain that Eielson could not have been caught by a man eligible to make the tackle, and every one saw Saunders rush from the side lines. Furthermore, several minutes before, I told Saunders to warm up as I intended to put him in the game. He was running up and down the sidelines when the play occurred. I was not near him."

Saunders is ill over the incident, and states that he acted upon an impulse and without consideration.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 25.—That freak tackle of the Great Lakes-Annapolis game promised today to stand forth in football history as vividly as the error of Fred Merkle in baseball.

Mid-West football experts are inclined to the belief that Eielson, Great Lakes half, tackled by a Navy substitute, who ran out to the field from the bench, was not entitled to the score, as allowed by the officials.

It was held here that a 15-yard penalty on Navy for unsportsmanlike conduct should have been inflicted. Five yards for "palpably unfair play not covered by the rules" was their suggestion. All that is merely technical. Permitting Great Lakes to win, 7 to 6, was held to be just if not strictly according to rule.

SERVICE LEAGUE TO STAGE TWO GAMES

Owing to a misunderstanding the called meeting of the Service League last night did not materialize. The meeting will be called later in the week when it is hoped all managers will be present.

The next games in the Service League will be played on Thanksgiving day between the Medicos and Seamen Gunners, in the morning. The game which is likely to decide the championship of the league will take place in the afternoon between the Tenth Company of Marines, of Indianhead, and the Naval Gun Factory team, from the Washington Navy Yard.

Y. M. C. A. BOY'S QUINT READY FOR BATTLES

The fact that Coach E. B. Fuller, of the Boys' Y. M. C. A., is putting one over on the high school teams of the city came to light last night when it was discovered that he has had his basket-ball five practicing for the past six weeks. Among the squad, which numbers fourteen so far, are several high school stars from out of town.

Garland, a Wisconsin center, and Beeton, a Lexington, Va., forward, are showing up prominently. The regular five of two years ago, which has a record of eighteen wins out of nineteen starts, is back. These include Capt. Payne, Bratburd, Milhoff, Finney, and King. Coach Fuller is very enthusiastic and is ready to take on all comers.

DISTANCE RACES TO BE HOLIDAY FEATURE

TAFT MAY NOT TAKE BIG JOB

Ex-President Claims He Will Only Act in Legal Way for Moguls.

New York, Nov. 25.—That former President William Howard Taft would not accept the position of sole member of the National Commission on baseball seems assured by a statement issued by him yesterday.

Yesterday Chairman Herrmann, of the National Commission, issued a statement at Cincinnati, ridiculing the proposition. Also at Philadelphia Connie Mack, of the Philadelphia Americans, protested against the proposition. It is certain that there is a big fight on in organized baseball, for several team owners are against the dictatorship of Ban Johnson.

Former President Taft in reply to an inquiry regarding the proposition made to him to act as arbitrator in big league baseball disputes, answered as follows from Waterbury, Conn.:

"Mr. Hempstead and Mr. Frazee called on me Saturday to ask me if I would consider acting as arbitrator between the National and American Baseball leagues in matters involving the legal construction of contracts between the leagues and their application to transactions between them as they might arise. I said to them that I did not practice law as an advocate in courts, but that I had acted as arbitrator in several cases.

"I said that if they would write me a description of the kind of arbitration in which they wished me to act and the particular function they wished me to perform I would consider it and advise them. I could not act except as a judge of law and fact or any way take part in management of their associations. It must be work of a strictly legal professional character. I said further that I wished to consult my brother, Charles, to be assured by him that he had parted with all interest in baseball properties so that should I become arbitrator no question could arise as to my impartiality between parties contending before me."

PLAN BATTLES FOR GEORGES CARPENTIER

New York, Nov. 25.—Georges Carpentier, premier French boxer, has the American fistic public all steamed up with expectancy today.

His announced intention to visit the United States as soon as the French army is demobilized, which may be in January, has awakened a new wave of interest and speculation in the heavy-weight division.

His coming is expected to bring the heavy-weights, especially Jess Willard, to life with a sudden start. And popular opinion, it is whispered, will have much to do with the selection of his opponent for a big fistic battle of real international importance.

ALL SIGNS POINTING TO A STATE VICTORY

Baltimore, Nov. 25.—Can Maryland State, present holders of the State intercollegiate football championship make it three in a row? That is the question which followers of the intercollegiate gridiron game in this section are asking one another today, and if they will have just a bit of patience until Thursday afternoon the question will be decided at Homewood Field, when Curly Byrd's champions oppose the gridders of Johns Hopkins University.

The old dope sheet which has been dug up shows that the resent champions stand an excellent chance of winning their third consecutive title. State is displaying a clear slate so far as games with contenders for the title are concerned, while Johns Hopkins is still smarting under the 28-to-0 licking handed it last Saturday by Western Maryland.

EIELSON'S LONG RUN IS MODERN RECORD

Harry Eielson's 101-yard run, which resulted in a Great Lakes victory over Annapolis, 7-6, is a modern football record.

It surpasses all long distance dashes recorded in football books since 1899 when Richardson of Brown, ran 103 yards against Princeton. At that time the gridiron was 110 yards in length. Eielson started his run one yard behind his own goal posts. He is a first-class seaman and played with Paddy Driscoll at Northwestern.

THINKS TAFT OFFER A JOKE.

Cincinnati, Nov. 25.—Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati National League club and chairman of the National Commission, does not look with favor on outsiders trying to break into organized baseball. Jealous of his position as head of baseball's supreme court, Herrmann characterized the story from the East that former President William H. Taft had been offered the place at the head of O. B., as a joke.

When pressed for some statement tonight, Mr. Herrmann said he would await further developments and thought the matter was too important to be discussed "off hand," btu said that so far as he knew the presence of Mr. Johnson, of the American League, in New York had nothing to do with the proposals of Messrs. Hempstead and Frazee. He admitted, however, that he had received a communication on the subject from the East.
