PHILIPPINE PRESS BUREAU, WASHINGton, D. C., January 11, 1921. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: From time to time calls and complaints are received in the offices of Philippine Resident Commissioners Jaime C. de Veyra and Isaura Gabaldon, in the House Office Building, and the Philippine Press Bureau, Munsey Building, regarding one Luis J. Palmeda, who poses himself as "secretary" to either of the Resident Commissioners, or as a "member" of the Philippine Mission and gives his address at the above mentioned places. We deem it advisable, for the information of the public, to state that Mr. Palmeda is not now and never has been connected in any manner whatsoever with the offices of the Philippine Resident Commissioners or with the Philippine Press Bureau. Yours very truly, PHILIPPINE PRESS BUREAU, by A. SAMSON. 1-363
