Why is it the pedestrians who denounce the automobile as a nuisance assumes the disdainful pose of a duke when once comfortably seated in his neighbor's driver? An Oregon man wants to be elected president so that he can collect $265 which he says the government owes him. And that is a more logical reason than some.

In hot weather the dog is more to be pitied than blamed. He has hard work to endure the heat than has the average human being.

MONSTER LABOR CRUSHING BOARD IS ORGANIZED

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The capital-and-labor situation was accentuated Thursday by the formation of a vast organization of employers to be known as the National Industrial Conference board.

This new body, representing $8,000,000,000 capital and employers 7,000,000 persons, proposes that industrial legislation shall be watched more closely, that legislators shall be guided "by public information," and that "favoritism to labor shall be eliminated."

It will fight such measures as the eight-hour law, and it believes the election showed there is no labor vote and, hence, legislators hereafter need not carry favor with labor leaders.

Combination of Labor Haters. The combination is a combination of all the old labor-hating, union fighting organizations. It includes the National Founders association, against which one of the longest strikes in history was waged. There is the Metal Trades association, organized to enforce the non-union shop. John Kirby comes in with the National Council for Industrial Defense, a frankly anti-union organization that was involved in the notorious Mulhall exposures, along with the National Association of Manufacturers, which is also a member of the new combination.

The National Erectors' association, with Walter Drew is present. This is the association that has fought the Structural Steel Workers and hounded as many as possible of its members to the penitentiary.

Child Labor Defender There. The National Association of Cotton Manufacturers, the great defenders of child labor, are united with the Association of Wood Manufacturers, who backed the fight at Lawrence and the Silk Association of America that led the fight at Paterson.

The National Industrial Conference board proposes to enter the field of "education and training of apprentices," and to agitate for its peculiar system of industrial education.

SUPERIOR WOMEN TALK ON FEMALE WORKERS

"Women of experience all agree that a girl should be decently on less than nine dollars a week," said Mrs. Carl Wilson, leader at a meeting of the Superior W. C. T. U. held Tuesday afternoon at the home of H. G. Mooney, 1124 Harmon avenue. "Mrs. Wilson's discriminating, sympathetic handling of the many statistics necessarily included in her subject made them living convincing things," said one member afterward. She pointed out that the census of 1910 showed a total of 7,608,000 female wage earners as compared with 5,319,000 in 1900.

CITY ENTERS COAL BUSINESS

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Nov. 23.—The city of Terre Haute and more of Mayor Gosson, entered the retail coal business and greatly reduced the cost to the consumer. Residents of the city, through the municipal market, bought Indiana coal at $2.75 a ton. Dealers are asking $6 a ton for the same grade. Mayor Gosson leased a mine and hired 200 teams to haul the coal to the city.

PEN WORK DAY CUT.

OSISING, N. Y., Nov. 23.—There'll be 3 1/2 hours less work and more of rest in Sing Sing prison every year from now on. Warden Derrick's new work day ends at 3 p. m. instead of 4, as it did.

WOMEN WORKERS MUST ORGANIZE

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 24.—"To gain a life that is truly human, the collective bargain is a prime necessity for the woman worker. The girl, herself, is helpless if she attempts to gain shorter hours, better wages and safe factory surroundings by her own unaided efforts."

The above is the assertion of Alice Henry, author of "The Trade Union Woman," and former editor of Life and Labor, who is in Milwaukee lecturing in the interests of the National Woman's Trade Union League of America.

"The trade union woman ask also for vocational education at least as broad and as thorough as that given to boys," she continued.

Should Divide Load. "Any change in conditions or development of industries means a certain amount of industrial displacement. Too much of the resulting disadvantages of this displacement has fallen on the workers. It should be divided among the employers, the community and the workers.

"The evil of low pay is common in all unskilled industries employing women and the peril of long hours and overwork is always present."

LEATHER WORKERS GO ON STRIKE

RIDGEWAY, Pa., Nov. 24.—The 200 employes of the Eagle Valley tannery struck for a 20 per cent increase and a nine-hour day. The strike spread to several other industries, forcing them to close down.

The employes of the Grant tannery went on strike for nine hours work and an increase in wages amounting to approximately 20 per cent. They were followed by about 50 per cent of the employes of the Ridgeway Machine company and 75 per cent of the employes of the Ridgeway Brick company. The laborers at the plant of the Hyde-Murphy company went on strike.

The men at all the plants are demanding an increase in wages, claiming that they cannot live on their present wages on account of the high cost of living.

PRIVATE OWNERS TAX NATION FOR SOCIAL GROWTH

By SCOTT NEARING.

TOLEDO, Nov. 24.—The landlords of New York own New York city. The people of the United States own New York harbor. The city is theirs. The harbor is ours. This difference in ownership makes an astounding difference in the way we handle the two properties.

Privately owned resources yield profit; publicly owned resources yield service. The landlords get rent for their ownership of New York. The people of the United States get use for their ownership of the harbor. Rent is the return for the private ownership of a natural resource. Use is the return for the public ownership of a natural resource. The relation between a resource held for profit and a resource employed for service is splendidly illustrated by the situation in New York.

The land value of New York city on Jan. 1, 1915, as given by the commissioner of taxes and assessments, was $4,600,000,000. This value was separate from the buildings and other improvements on the land which amounted to a little less than $3,000,000,000. A few years ago, New York was bought for a song. Today that same land is worth more than $4,500,000,000.

Public Property Useful.

No valuation has ever been put upon New York harbor. If it were not for the harbor New York could not be the city that it is. The many cities that surround it; the railroads that run into it; the trade that passes through it would go elsewhere. The value of the harbor is immense—yet we take so little interest in the subject that no effort has ever been made to compute it. Who cares what New York harbor is worth so long as every one is free to use it?

A private syndicate, owning New York harbor could capitalize it at hundreds of millions or even billions and realize a handsome return on their investment. By taxing the trade that passed through the harbor they could pay dividends on an immense valuation. New York harbor, privately owned and capitalized at its full earning power would yield huge profits to its possessors.

The landlords who own New York tax every person and everything that seeks to make use of the land lying around New York harbor. The permanent dweller, the traveler, the cotton, silk, and wheat that pass through the city are all taxed to make up the rental return to the landlords of New York. If this return is only four per cent on the assessed value of the land, the people of the United States pay $180,000,000 a year to the owners of New York city because they own it.

Private Rent Extorts. Every increase in trade, industry and population increases the taxing power of the owners of New York city. More business means higher land values and higher land values mean more rent. What effect has business development on the harbor? It increases the use of this public property.

New York harbor has never been capitalized. Even the improvements upon it are paid for out of government receipts. The million dollars spent in blasting the channel is not covered by stocks and bonds that will draw dividends and interest forevermore. The improvements on New York harbor are made for use, not for profit.

New York city is owned by landlords who reap a profit of hundreds of millions in return for their bare ownership. New York harbor is owned by the people of the United States and is open to all for use on equal terms. They reap profit from their property. We, from our property, get service.

6,700 TRAIN WOMEN.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Advices reaching here report 32,000 women employed on the French railways and more than 35,000 on Prussian railways.

Why shouldn't women live three years longer than men? They don't have to practise the cooking and then eat accordingly.
