MISCELLANEOUS.

"THE CROWN"
INDESTRUCTIBLE
DOUBLE EXTENSION SKIRT

POSSESSES THE FOLLOWING DISTINCTIVE PEculiarities:

A Patent Bracket Fastening,

Connecting the Tapes with the Hoops, in a manner beautiful and indestructible. The only perfect fastening now before the public.

A Watch Spring Bustle,

Consisting of a series of Adjustable Springs, inside the Skirt, moving back of the person, by bending to which, the Skirt is thrown out behind, and a graceful, flowing form given to the dress.

A Newly Invented Slide,

By means of which the Skirt may be enlarged or reduced in size, and when adjusted can be lowered SECURELY AND ENDUVARLY.

No Skirt ever produced equals this in the elasticity of the springs—the perfect adaptation to the form—its lightness—and the ease and security imparted to the figure."

The above Skirt, in great variation, from 5 to 60 hoops, can be had of

NOW READY!—MOUNTAIN SCENERY.

A BOOK CONTAINING DESCRIPTIONS OF THE most noted Points in the Scenery of Western North-Carolina, and North-western South-Carolina.

Illustrated with Four Elegant Engravings, and accompanied by a Map, pointing out to the traveller all the Public Roads, Stage Routes, and Railroads in that section of country, also a Map showing the exact location and heights of all the peaks of the Black Mountains. By Henry E. Colton, late Editor of the Asheville (North-Carolina) Spectator.

Opinions of the Press.

"The Book will be worth the money, whether you ever travel in the regions it describes or not. Any description of such scenery can hardly fail to be interesting. We feel satisfied Mr. Colton's will be highly so."—Wil. Journal.

"We know Mr. Colton possesses the ability to make the Book valuable and interesting."—Charlotte Democrat.

"No one within our knowledge is better qualified for the task, judging by the long and interesting accounts which he gave us of his explorations, in conversation, on horseback, and on foot. It will be an interesting Book, and especially useful to those who may travel in Western North-Carolina."—Fayetteville Observer.

"Mr. Colton is well qualified to make a readable book."—Washington Dispatch.

"He is thoroughly acquainted with our Mountain Scenery, and few are better able to describe it."—Wilmington Journ.

"Mr. Colton's long residence in Buncombe, and his intimate acquaintance with the most noted haunts of the Mountain Region, together with a passionate fondness for adventure, qualifies him peculiarly for the preparation of such a book."—North-Carolina Presbyterian.

PESCUD'S BULLETIN, No. 2.

ANTICIPATING NUMEROUS ORDERS FROM MY friends in the Legislature, and visitors attending that body, I have greatly increased my stock of

Medicines and Fixtures; Chemicals and Instruments; Paints, Oils and Dye stuffs; Perfumery and Toilet Articles; Tobacco and Cigars; Combs, Brushes and Soaps; Pain Killers and Extractors, Garden & Grass Seed;

And all other classes of goods in my line; and I will be much gratified if all who have promised or intend making bills with me would have their memorandums this week, as I desire to have them executed carefully and neatly, by the day of their departure.

I expect this week a large supply of Long's, and other choice brands of Smoking Tobacco, (which gave such general satisfaction.) I have still left a large stock of those splendid Cigars, a few cases of Catawba Brandy, and many toilet articles, which I will sell at reduced prices. Such as have not called to examine my stock and prices are most cordially invited to do so, and be convinced of their purity and cheapness.

Terms: Six months, or 5 per cent. deducted for cash for all bills of $25 and upwards.

GAYETTY'S MEDICATED PAPER!

CONVINCED THAT PILES IS A DISEASE GENerally prevalent, and in all cases originated or aggravated by the use of ordinary white paper, or printed paper in the water closet, Mr. J. C. Gayetty, of New York, set to work and discovered a process of making a pure Manilla paper (from new hole hemp,) and medicating it in a style to cure Piles where the disease exists, and prevent it in the youngest and healthiest person without detriment to the general health. Besides its medicinal value, Gayetty's Medicated Paper for the water closet has value as a beautiful article of comfort, luxury and convenience. It is sold throughout the United States by druggists, fancy goods dealers, and others, and can be purchased in large or small quantities, at the grand depot, 41 Ann St., New York City. Sent free of expense. The genuine has Gayetty's name water marked in each sheet, and his autograph in upon each label.

Sold in Raleigh, N. C., by P. F. Pescud, Williams & Haywood, and others.

The vacancy in the Classical Department is nearly supplied, and we hope soon to be able to announce a Professor.

In the Department for Young Ladies every thing will be considered which is calculated to advance the health, the progress, and the happiness of the pupils.

The session are five months in length. The second session will open on the last THURSDAY in August, 1859, and it is very desirable that all the pupils be present at the opening examination.

Tuition—In the Male Department, the charge of tuition a session will be from $20 to $30, according to the age of the pupils and their advancement. Board can be had in respectable families for $10 a month.

In the Ladies' Department: Tuition in the English branches, $20; for any science or modern language, $5; Music on the Piano, Organ or Guitar, with the use of the Instrument, $25 50; on the Harp, $30, and $5 extra for the use of the instrument; Drawing, $10; Oil Painting, $20. The pupils are board in the Seminary, and will be charged only from the time of their entrance to the close of the session; and for board, fuel, washing, furnished rooms and attendance, will be charged $5 50 a week.

The Tuition is to be paid in advance, and all other bills to be promptly settled at the close of each session.

The pupils in both Departments have the use of Libraries equal to those of some other Institutions, and their Books and Stationery are furnished at New
