LOCAL NEWS.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GROVER'S THEATER.—"The Soldier's Daughter" and "Post of Honor" will be performed this evening by Susan Denin (who reappears for one night only) and Mr. Grover's fine dramatic company. Miss Denin will sing her new song, "How are you Greenbacks."

WASHINGTON THEATER.—Mrs. John Wood continues to perform here, and with such success that a re-engagement with her has been effected. The bill to-night is the "Pride of the Market" and "Out on the Loose." She was delightful in the former piece last night.

CANTERBURY.—The triumvirate of beauty and grace, Julia Mortimer, Kate Pennoyer and Ernestine de Faiber, appear at Canterbury to-night again in the "Arab Lay," and the whole company appear in a variety of new songs, acts and dances.

VARIETIES.—Large audiences always attend the performances of the Varieties troupe. Being composed of first-class artists, a most excellent entertainment is always offered. Mlle Brignoli, Ada Laurent and the old favorites appear.

PRICE LIST, CENTER MARKET.—The market this morning presented a dull appearance, and the cold wind, freighted with dust, caused speedy movements of purchasers, who were anxious to get to more comfortable quarters.

A wide margin appears in the prices of various articles. In some cases it is regulated by quality; in others, the articles are selected for seeding.

CASES BEFORE JUSTICE THOMPSON.—Chas. A. Gardner, an Indian belonging to the navy, and who had a pass that has expired, was arrested for disorderly conduct. During his cruise around town, somebody had given him an awful thrashing, to which his eyes, swollen and black, testified. He was dismissed to go to his quarters.

Sunday, Wm. King and Kate Jessie Williams aroused Bates' Alley, by fighting. They were arrested, and being unable to pay the usual fine for disorderly conduct, were sent to the workhouse.

John Rumler (grown notorious since last Christmas) was arrested by Patrolman Steele as a suspicious character, associating with notorious thieves. Henry Grant and Alex. Harrison interfered with the officer making the arrest, and were also arrested. Justice Thompson sent all three to Capt. McKelvey, of the Detectives, to be identified, and if necessary, perform their ablutions at the guardhouse.

Mary Toogood, alias Fanny Smith, colored, was arrested by Roundsman Shield for stealing a ladies plaid woolen dress and a sheet, the property of J. S. Tomlinson. She confessed guilt before the Justice, and was sent to jail for court.

STRIPED PIG ARRANGEMENT.—On Thursday, Col. Baker's detectives arrested in this city Mrs. Elizabeth Hewes and a little girl, while on their way to Alexandria, and from beneath their crinoline were taken respectively seven and four canteens of whisky. Mrs. H., it appears, lives in Virginia, a short distance from the Convalescent Camp, near Alexandria. The soldiers in that camp had for a long time obtained liquor, and yet no clue could be obtained as to how or where, until Col. Baker took the matter in hand himself, and he, several days ago, while riding near Camp Convalescent, got near Mrs. Hewes' house, just at a moment that a soldier was moving off from it in a very suspicious manner. He watched, and soon saw another soldier approach and go to a little window cut in one of the cupboards, from which he took a bottle of whisky. Col. Baker rode up to the house, and upon the excuse of desiring a drink of water, made sufficient acquaintance with the proprietress to enable him to identify her again; and the above arrest is the result of the affair. Measures have been taken to break up the establishment.

A CONTEST FOR POSSESSION.—A week ago we noticed the case of Bridget Moran, who had possession of a house on K, near Sixth street north, belonging to N. Lindner. Lindner said she forced herself into the house, and wanted to get possession. He undertook to eject the woman himself, and by so doing created a disturbance of the peace. The case was dismissed by Justice Ferguson and the landlord promised to take the legal method. On Friday afternoon, Lindner, in the absence of the woman and her children, entered the house and put out the furniture, such as it was. He then went for a man named Henry Sonnaborn to aid him, and Sonnaborn consented. Upon the return of the tenant she found her things on the pavement, and trying to get in the house to replace them, a hair-pulling ensued between her and Mrs. Lindner, and the tenant lost a very abundant flaxen lock, which she exhibited on trial in the morning. Sonnaborn acted policeman, and was armed with a stick about the size of a patrolman's staff. He arrested the tenant and also a soldier, who interfered.

MASONIC FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late J. Vierbuchen took place from his late residence on Capitol Hill yesterday afternoon, and was attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives. The services at the house were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Finckel, after which the remains were removed to the Congressional Cemetery. The German Benevolent Society were out in large numbers, accompanied by a band of music, and Centenial Lodge, Columbia Royal Arch Chapter, and Washington Commanders, Knight Templars, attended the funeral in carriages. The ceremonies at the grave were conducted by Worshipful Master Reeside, of the Lodge; High Priest J. F. Acker, of the Chapter, and by Commander Gilman and Prelate Stevens, of the Templars.

AFFAIRS IN ST. MARY'S.—On yesterday the military force at this place was increased by the arrival of another company of Scott's 900. This company is commanded by Capt. Norris, and its arrival swells the force at this post to about 150 men. Major Remington is now here and will likely establish his headquarters in our village.

The market at this place is now being quite abundantly supplied with shad, but gillers inform us, they are far less plentiful now than they were at this time last year. They were selling on Tuesday last at from 75 to 87 cents a pair.—St Mary's Beacon, April 2.

YOUTHFUL SMUGGLERS.—Two children, Fanny Carroll and Mary Connors were arrested yesterday at the Sixth street wharf as they were preparing to get on the Alexandria boat, and a number of canteens filled with whisky were found concealed under their clothes. They stated that their parents sent them from Alexandria to this city to purchase the whisky, and also stated that they obtained the article from a dealer named Barrett Hall, on Seventh street, whereupon Hall was arrested and committed to the Central Guardhouse. The whisky was confiscated.

THE STREET RAILWAY.—The Chronicle, we are surprised to see, advocates a return to the elbow route, Seventh street to the Navy Yard, a schedule that worked so badly that there was a general expression of satisfaction when the routes were straightened on the present excellent plan. It would be a retrograde movement indeed to go back to the old muddle and tangle of the elbow schedule, and the company may be assured that the general public would be anything but gratified by the change.

EASTER BALLS.—A number of parties are announced for Monday evening, April 6th. The Phoenix Society have secured Temperance Hall, and will give one of their very agreeable parties there. The citizens of the Navy Yard and vicinity will have an opportunity of enjoying the dance at Odd Fellows' Hall, where the Columbia Engine Company give a fine ball; and the disciples of Terpsichore in the Island ward, may trip it on the light fantastic toe" at Island Hall, under the auspices of the popular Washington Quadrille Association.

AFFAIRS AT CONVALESCENT CAMP, NEAR ALEXANDRIA.—A soldier who had uttered some disloyal words, and for expressing the wish that the Government would fail in its efforts to get more soldiers, was placed in confinement by the commandant of the camp. There will be a grand Union demonstration in the camp in a few days.

THE PASSOVER.—The season of the passover began at six o'clock last evening, and, as usual, it will be very generally observed by the Hebrews of this and other cities. Business generally is suspended on the first and last days of the fast, and only necessary household work is done. During the season, the eating of leavened bread is prohibited by the Mosaic law.

SENT TO THE OLD CAPITOL.—The following were sent to the Old Capitol prison yesterday: David Jones, a wealthy farmer residing at Gum Springs, near Fairfax Court-House, arrested by order of Gen. Stahl, charged with being a disloyal citizen, and John Harrover, an Alexandria rebel.

FIFTH WARD ELECTION.—At the election in the Fifth Ward yesterday, for a member of the Board of Common Council to fill a vacancy, the result was as follows:—First Precinct—G. F. Gulick, 53; W. P. Ferguson, 25. Second Precinct—G. F. Gulick, 57; W. P. Ferguson, 23.

THE SABBATH SCHOOL anniversary of the Thirteenth-street Baptist Church will take place to-morrow afternoon at the church. Singing and recitations will be among the exercises.

IF SOMEBODY would cause the mud to be cleared away from the gutters in front of the Armory Hospital, it would be an accommodation for those getting out of the street cars there.

A MEAN THIEF.—On Thursday night some thief, who deserves the name of the meanest of the mean, took a crape from the door-knob of a dwelling on the Navy Yard in which a corpse was lying.

LECTURE OF FAITH.—To-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock, B. Crist, of Pa., will lecture on Faith at Odd Fellows Hall. A very proper Sabbath day subject.

EN ROUTE.—The pickpockets sent away from here yesterday were kept over last night at the Southern District Police Station in Baltimore to be sent northward to-day.

BEPPO ON BILLIOUSNESS.—In Lord Byron's "Beppo," one of the first remarks made by Mrs. Beppo to her lord on his return from a pestilential region, is—

"Bless me! did I ever? No, I never Saw a man grown so yellow! How's your liver?"

Multitudes of our pallid soldiers return from the South in Beppo's condition. Do they know—if not, they cannot learn too soon—that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are the best and surest remedy for all bilious complaints that has ever been compounded. Used as a safeguard against the climatic causes of liver diseases, the Bitters are invaluable. Their tonic properties invigorate and regulate the secretive organs, and render the system proof against effects of exposure, fatigue and change of diet and of water. They fortify the physique against the causes of indigestion, biliousness and disorders of the bowels, and cure those diseases—the parents of innumerable maladies yet merciadly—with wonderful rapidity.

PURE BOURBON WHISKY.

BOTTLED BY UDOLPHO WOLFE, NEW YORK.

To the Citizens of Washington:—For some time past I have been solicited by the Medical Faculty of this city to add to my "Scheidam Aromatic Schnapps" business the bottling of PURE BOURBON WHISKY, which could be relied on by the medical profession. I would have acceded to their request some time since, but found it difficult to procure a pure article. After considerable difficulty and delay I have arranged with two distillers in Bourbon county for a regular supply. I have also located an agent in Louisville, Ky., for the purchase of Bourbon Whisky direct from the distillers, when offered for sale in that market.

The Whisky will be put up in my Schnapps bottles, and packed in cases of one dozen each, with a fac simile of my signature on the label.

I remain yours, respectfully,

Wishing you success in your new enterprise,
We remain your obedient servants,

AFFAIRS IN GEORGETOWN.

[Correspondence Evening Star.]

GEORGETOWN, D. C., April 4, 1863.

At the meeting of our Board of Common Council last evening, the bill authorizing the Mayor to procure and submit to the two Boards of the Corporation plans and estimates for the erection of a new market house upon the site of the present market house, was passed.

The resolution relative to schools for colored children was also passed, after being discussed by Messrs. Tenney Marbury and Dr. Creighton.

Mr. Tenney felt bound to obey the act of Congress requiring the schooling of colored children, and was glad that this subject could now be discussed without being termed a firebrand, or creating hisses and sneers from all parts of the room. That we now lived in a free country and that he had become an emancipationist, because all slaveholders were rebels or in sympathy with them; also that a man could now stand up and be a man, every inch of him.

Mr. Marbury had termed this subject a firebrand, and still thought it a dangerous topic. He had no objection to schooling colored people, as any other people; he was in favor of the widest education possible to education and general enlightenment, but rather favored an appropriation for the purpose, than using the taxes paid in by these people, because it would establish a precedent in favor of Roman Catholic brethren, who were too conscientious to share in contribution on schools.

Dr. Craigin expressed his aprobation of the measure, was glad of the chance to discuss this important subject. He too, was in favor of emancipation, and thought that freeing the negroes benefited all parties.

The arrivals since our last are as follows: By river—Steamer Baltimore, Galt, New York, merchandize to Morgan & Reinhart; steamer Elizabeth, Fowler, Aquia Creek, sanitary stores; schooner John H.
