LOCAL NEWS.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

CANTERBURY.—This evening Miss Cherry Belle will again give the public the "Dumb Girl of Genoa;" in which she sustains the character of Julietta. Those who have not availed themselves of an opportunity to witness Miss Cherry Belle's performances should not fail to do so to-night. Let not the ladies and children forget the matinee this afternoon.

FORD'S THEATER.—To-night is the last appearance of Mr. J. B. Roberts and the great spectacle of "Faust and Marguerite." This is a truly beautiful and exciting play, and those who have not seen it should bear in mind that to-night will be their last chance. On Monday night Clifton W. Tayleur's great moral drama of "East Lynne, or, the Elopement," and the "Erring and Penitent Wife."

GROVER'S THEATER.—In consequence of the death of Mr. E. L. Grover, (brother of Mr. Leonard Grover,) this theater will remain closed until next Monday evening, when the elegant combination, Mr. J. W. Wallack, Mr. E. L. Davenport and Miss Susan Denin, will commence a brief engagement.

ODD FELLOWS' HALL.—Sanderson's Minstrels are still at Odd Fellows' Hall getting off their witty sayings, jokes, tricks, &c., and entertaining the audiences with their skilful dancing, fine singing and excellent music.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—Last evening, Mechanics' Lodge, No. 15, of Baltimore, paid a fraternal visit to Metropolis Lodge, No. 16, of this city. The visitors numbered over 60, among whom were several grand officers, and were received by a committee of Metropolis Lodge, at the Depot, at 5½ o'clock, and escorted to the lodge room, at the Hall on 7th street.

At 8 o'clock the visitors proceeded to the lodge room, where they were introduced by Grand Master S. E. Douglass, and received by acting Noble Grand L. A. Gobright. During the evening the visitors had an opportunity of witnessing the practical working of a lodge in this jurisdiction, two candidates being initiated into the mysteries of the order. Appropriate speeches were made by Grand Master Gary, Deputy Grand Master Baugher, Grand Warden Norris, Grand Secretary Escavaille, Grand Scribe Jones, and Grand Marshal Harrison, of Maryland; and Grand Secretary Sweet, of this jurisdiction, and Past Grand Richard Wallach, of Central Lodge.

The visitors were then escorted to the saloon of the hall, where a fine supper was set, and at which a company of two hundred sat down. Several songs were here sung by a quartette from Sanderson's popular troupe (now performing at the hall) and Dr. C. P. Hunt, of this city.

The company then returned to the lodge room after partaking of the supper, where capital speeches were made by P. G. Walker, of the visiting lodge, and P. G. Rep. Gobright, of this city, and others; and at a late hour the com pany separated.

WASHINGTON LINCOLN AND JOHNSON CLUB. This club met last evening, and was addressed by Mr. H. A. Pierce, of California, who urged every Union loving citizen of the United States there present to exercise the voting privilege, providing he was entitled to exercise it, and to do it in such a manner as would not give encouragement to traitors, and which could only be effected by voting for Abraham Lincoln and Andrew Johnson. He wished them to show that they were determined to uphold the National Union and national liberty, and felt confident they could not do otherwise and had no desire to do otherwise.

The President then stated that arrangements had been completed for having telegraphic reports on next Tuesday and Wednesday, after which—

Mr. McLeod, formerly of Virginia, and who had resided there nearly his whole life, addressed the audience in a very fervent manner, and urged those who were from the South, above all others, to prove themselves worthy of the name of American citizens, having no divided allegiance, by supporting the candidates of the National Union party.

FOURTH WARD STATION CASES.—Jackson Peck, suspicion of murder; dismissed. Mary Carpenter, assault and battery, two cases; dismissed. Mary Farron, grand larceny; bail for court. James Hamilton, drunk and disorderly; military. Thomas Connor, picking pockets; dismissed. John Bryan, drunk; workhouse. John Scott, disorderly; $2.58. Strother Winslow, do.; $2.58. George Washington, do.; $2.58. James Johnson, alias Snead, do.; $2.58. Mich'l Smith, drunk and disorderly; $1.58. Strother Winslow, carrying weapons; $20. John F. Gray, drunk and disorderly; $2.58. David C. Knight, assault and battery; bail for hearing. John Brown, accessory to murder; jail for hearing. Edward Pitcalk do.; Jeremiah Harwood, do; dismissed. John Sholtz, drunk; do. C. F. Hainer, drunk and disorderly; do. Jas. Murphy, drunk; military. Sarah Harrison and Terrence Miller, drunk and disorderly; dismissed. Wm. Brown, deserter; military.

CHARGE OF PICKING A POCKET.—Thomas Connor was arrested last night by officer Howard upon a charge of stealing a watch from the pocket of James Hamilton. The evidence showed that the defendant and Hamilton passed by the stable of Wm. Worden. Hamilton was very drunk. Near 3d and F streets Connor took the watch from the pocket of Hamilton. Worden and a man named Bacon saw him. He put the watch back in Harrison's pocket. Worden and Bacon watched them, and saw Connor again take the watch. It appears that Harrison was in Connor's care, and was so drunk that he wanted to throw the watch and pocket-book away, and Connor took it to prevent it being thrown away. Harrison declined prosecuting, and Connor was dismissed by Justice Giberson. Harrison was turned over to the military as a suspicious person.

THE POSTING LAW.—By an act of the corporation approved February 8th, 1861, it is made unlawful for any person "to post or set up any placard, bill or advertisement" in any of the streets, alleys, avenues or sidewalks of the city of Washington, without having obtained a license; the penalty in every case is not less than one, nor more than five dollars. The cost of a bill-poster's license is twenty dollars per annum. Any person using the boards of a licensed poster without his consent is liable to a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars. Recently two persons have been fined under this act, neither of them knowing of its existence. The posting-boards on the streets are not common property, but are for the exclusive use of the licensed posters, who placed them there. But the law goes further than the boards to protect the poster, and makes it unlawful to post bills any where in the streets or avenues without having obtained license.

COUNTY NOMINATIONS.—Thursday, a meeting of the Union Men of Montgomery county Md., was held at Rockville and nominated the following gentlemen as candidates at the ensuing election on Tuesday next for the Legislature:—For State Senator, J. G. White, of Rockville District. For members of the House of Delegates, B. R. Roberts, of Berry's District; and Philemon Smith, Jr., of Clarksburg District.

The candidates of the Democrats are:—For State Senator, Thomas B. Lansdale, of Crackin District. For House of Delegates, Greenbury Watkins, of Rockville District; and Benamin Fossett, of Berry's District.

POSTAL MONEY ORDERS.—The new system, we are pleased to learn, has thus far exceeded all expectation. In our Washington city office the duty of attention to it is assigned to Mr. Samuel V. Noyes, who is known as a most efficient officer.

At Alexandria, Va., Postmaster Massey has perfected all his arrangements for the issue of orders; and from various other points we learn the new business was so highly appreciated that parties competed with each other for the first transmissions.

CHARGE OF GRAND LARCENY.—Mary Farron, a little girl of 12 years age, was arrested by officer Lewis, last night, upon a charge of stealing $5 from Margaret Gallavin. The complainant was determined to prosecute, and Justice Giberson sent the case immediately to Judge Fisher, who took bail for the girl's appearance at court.

THE VERDICT.—The jury of inquest examining into the fact connected with the death of Daniel Lehive, returned a verdict Thursday: "That the said Lehive came to his death from a wound in his head, inflicted by a man who goes by the name of "Reddy," who is still at large." The name of Reddy was given the man on account of his complexion and hair, his right name is not known to the officers.

KROMER'S (UPHAM'S) HAIR DYE.
Fifty Cents a Box.
Boxes larger than Dyes that sell for $1. Natural, durable, beautiful. Warranted to please. This article has been thoroughly tested by Dr. CHILTON, of New York, and Profs. Booth and Garrett, of Philadelphia, who pronounce it free from all poisonous ingredients, and the material composing it will not injure the most delicate hair.
Sold by Druggists and Fancy Goods dealers everywhere.

DR. RAND'S SPECIFIC.
The oldest and most reliable medicine for the cure of Spermatorhœa, Seminal Weakness, Loss of Power, &c. This medicine has stood the test of over thirty years, and has always proved a success.
Dr. Rand's Specific is exhibited in the form of pills, made up entirely of substances that have a specific effect upon the generative organs. Most persons associate the idea of operations upon the bowels from taking any kind of pills. The Specific of Dr. Rand is not intended as an evacuating medicine. Its medical virtues are expended entirely upon the impaired generative organs. The pills are not unpleasant to the taste, and many persons masticate them with impunity before swallowing them; which plan we would always recommend, as affording the speediest way to get the effect of the remedy.
Price $1 per box, or six boxes for $5. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

OBITUARY NOTICE.—Died at Andersonville, Georgia, August 1, 1864, after a long and painful disease, JOHN H. McKENNA, private of the U. S. Marine Corps.
He was captured during the night attack on Fort Sumter, Charleston Harbor, S. C., 8th September, 1863, and dragged into captivity. He died in the prime of life, (aged 25 years, 10 months and 18 days) beloved and lamented by all who knew him. He is gone, adding another to the honored dead, who have fallen for their country in the hour of peril.
A large circle of friends, an affectionate father and mother sister and brother mourn his loss, yet he leaves in the hearts of his bereaved family a record of which they may well be proud. P. H.
