ALEXANDRIA.

THE NEW FISH-WHARF LAW.

The mayor has signed the amendment to the city fish bill and the act which has now gone into effect will control operations during the coming fishing season. The lessees of the fish wharf once claimed the right to the wharfage on fish or melons which came here by railroad. This claim has always been disputed and the new law formally disavows it. On the other hand, the right to take wharfage for fish or melons landed elsewhere than at the fish wharf is affirmed, but the wharfage rate on melons is reduced to the Washington standard, 25 cents per thousand. The city fish wharf will be rented in a few weeks and the lessee will have a clearer idea of his powers than ever before, and his jurisdiction will extend to sturgeon, but not to crabs or oysters.

CORPORATION COURT.

The corporation court, Judge Norton, has a jury today which has been summoned from Fairfax county because the case on trial is one in which all residents or taxpayers of Alexandria have an interest. It is the case of Mullen against the city council of Alexandria. Some time ago Mullen was injured by the fall of a smokestack at the city gas works and he claims damages.

NOTES.

Mr. R. C. Strangman of this city yesterday took out his naturalization papers at the corporation court.

The F. and A. Masons of Osiris Lodge of Washington were entertained here by Alexandria Washington Lodge on Wednesday night.

The Alexandria camp of the Sons of Confederate Veterans have elected S. G. Brent captain; S. R. Shinn, J. I. Green and N. S. Ballinger, lieutenants; G. R. Warfield, secretary, and W. D. Appich, treasurer.

ANACOSTIA.

WANT THE SCHOOL PRINCIPAL'S SALARY RAISED.

A large body of citizens called on Superintendent Powell yesterday to confer upon general school matters. It was urged that the salary of Principal H. S. Petty be increased from $1,000 to $1,500 per annum, the same as allowed principals of the city schools. Those present were Mrs. E. B. Russell, Mr. James C. Leonard, Mrs. Anna Peck, Mrs. Maggie Tew, Mrs. James E. Arnold, Mr. Bartley, Mr. Tew, Mr. J. E. Minnix and others.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Anacostia Lodge, Knights of Pythias, met in Masonic Temple last night and conferred the rank of knight on Mr. Charles Brooks of the Washington post office. A preliminary meeting was held with a view to the organization of a uniform rank.

TO ERECT A NEW CHURCH.

The Bethlehem Baptist Church, Rev. Wm. H. Phillips, pastor, is preparing to pull down the present frame and erect a brick structure. The congregation has been organized into working clubs for this purpose.

SOCIAL MATTERS.

Mr. Wallace M. Chase and Miss Alice G. Norris, both of Washington, were married Wednesday evening at St. Teresa's rectory by Father Thomas B. Hughes. Those present were: Mrs. George R. Repetti, Miss Rita Repetti, Mrs. Williams, Miss Eliza Howell, Mr. Charles Z. Norris, Mr. Thomas F. Norris and Mr. Norris, father of the bride.

A delightful dinner was given by Mrs. Anna Peck Tuesday in honor of Capt. James E. Eldredge of Vermont, Gen. and Mrs. Hendricks and Mrs. Emma Bickford. Covers were laid for fifteen guests. The favors were rich clusters of long-stemmed roses.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Judge Charles Pelham, who has been for the past month sojourning in Alabama, was visiting his Oxon Hill plantation yesterday. A theater party composed of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williamson and others attended Albaugh's last night. Mr. L. P. Weedon of St. Elizabeth has gone to North Carolina on government business. Mr. R. H. Arnold of the Anacostia railroad was severely injured Tuesday by being trampled on by a horse. Mr. James S. Reagan left Monday for his adopted state, North Carolina. Miss Maud Talbert of Oxon Hill is visiting her uncle, Mr. L. B. Anderson of Monroe street.

Had Somebody Else's Bicycle.

John H. Simms, a colored man who once served a term in prison for having one wife too many, got possession of a bicycle yesterday that belonged to J. H. Drown, and last night he attempted to dispose of it for $10.

John had been drinking and he told the story that his wife had made him a present of the wheel. He was particularly pleased with the bell on the bicycle because it looked like silver. This morning, however, he was not as all pleased, for he found himself behind the bars at Judge Miller's court. He was charged with grand larceny and Judge Miller committed him in default of $1,000 bail for the grand jury.

WESTINGHOUSE AFFAIRS.

A Crisis Reached in the Management of the Enterprises.

A Pittsburg special says: The affairs of the extensive Westinghouse interests in Pittsburg, which are capitalized at $23,000,000, have reached a crisis in consequence of the notice of the advisory board that the $500,000 raised by Pittsburg capitalists to meet pressing claims against the concerns is not sufficient.

* * * * * *

Mr. Westinghouse is expected to return to Pittsburg tomorrow. Much sympathy is expressed for him. From the beginning he has held the controlling interest in all the corporations which bear his name. He has had more than one opportunity to dispose of his stock at high prices, but did not sell a share. Now, with the exception of the Westinghouse Air Brake Company, the stocks are down to about one-fifth their par value. The embarrassment is said to be entirely due to the attempt to do an immense business with comparatively small cash capital. A large share of the whole capitalization is stock issued in payment for patents held by Mr. Westinghouse.

Paul D. Cravath, New York, attorney for George Westinghouse, jr., of Pittsburg, said yesterday that the efforts to place the preferred stock in the Westinghouse Electric Company in that city were progressing favorably. The precise amount for which a market has been found was not known, but it is understood that the amount offered represents at par a valuation of $3,000,000. Mr. Cravath is authority for the statement that there is no danger of Mr. Westinghouse being compelled to make an assignment, as it had been intimated he might do.

Apparent Frauds in Entering Sugar.

Special Agent Chance of the customs service in Philadelphia made an important discovery a few days ago which apparently gave evidence of the existence of a conspiracy to defraud the government out of legitimate revenue. By the merest accident he was made aware of the fact that there was a lowering of the sugar entries of W. Ford Thomas, representing the Claus Spreckles Sugar refinery. Investigation showed that fraudulent alterations had been made in the sugar entries, and the casual examinations led to the opinion that the amount of money of which the government had been cheated was almost $25,000. Collector Cooper made an immediate demand upon Mr. C. A. Spreckels for $20,000, believing that sum would cover the extent of the fraud, and Mr. Spreckels handed to the collector a certified check for that amount. Mr. Spreckels and his broker, W. Ford Thomas, deny all knowledge of the fraud. Mr. Spreckels asked for a government expert to examine his own books and tests.

A Chance to Win a Prize.

A Peruvian lady named Adelina Concha de Concha, according to information received by the bureau of American republics, has offered an annual prize of $1,000 to the girl between the years of eighteen and twenty who shall be judged by a committee to have most distinguished herself for amiability, intelligence, accomplishments and charity. The same lady has offered a triennial prize of $1,800 to the physician who shall have proved himself most capable during the first three years of the practice of his profession; also a triennial prize of $1,800 to the painter or sculptor of Peru who in competition shall produce the most meritorious work of art; also an annual prize of $200 to the two scholars of both sexes of the municipal schools who shall have the best standing in their studies and deportment.

The Revolt in Chili.

The Chilian ironclad Almirante Cochran has seized the cargo left by the steamer Santiago at Iquique. The Cochran's commander has given notice that he will blockade Iquique on the 20th instant. The Peruvian government has received a telegram from its consul at Iquique stating that the various consuls are going to protest against the threatened blockade. All the steamships in the service of Valparaiso have been cut. The rebels have declared the ports of Chili blockaded in order to interrupt the nitrate trade.

The Prussing Vinegar Works, Chicago, were damaged by fire yesterday afternoon to the extent of $30,000.
