WORK A SONG OF TRIUMPH A LABOR DAY POEM BY ANGELA MORGAN

WORK!
Thank God for the might of it,
The ardor, the urge, the delight of it—
Work that springs from the heart's desire,
Setting the brain and the soul on fire—
Oh, what is so good as the heart of it,
And what is so glad as the beat of it,
And what is so kind as the stern command,
Challenging brain and heart and hand?

WORK!
Thank God for the pride of it,
For the beautiful, conquering tide of it,
Sweeping the life in its furious flood,
Thrilling the arteries, cleansing the blood,
Mastering stupor and dull despair,
Moving the dreamer to do and dare.
Oh, what is so good as the urge of it,
And what is so glad as the surge of it,
And what is so strong as the summons deep,
Rousing the torpid soul from sleep?

WORK!
Thank God for the pace of it,
For the terrible, keen, swift race of it,
Fiery steeds in full control,
Nostrils aquiver to greet the goal,
Work, the Power that drives behind,
Guiding the purposes, taming the mind,
Holding the runaway wishes back,
Reining the will to one steady track,
Speeding the energies faster, faster,
Triumphing over disaster.
Oh, what is so good as the pain of it,
And what is so great as the gain of it?
And what is, so kind as the cruel goad,
Forcing us on through the rugged road?

WORK!
Thank God for the swing of it,
For the clamoring, hammering ring of it,
Passion of labor daily hurled
On the mighty anvils of the world.
Oh, what is so fierce as the flame of it,
And what is so huge as the aim of it?
Thundering on through dearth and doubt,
Casting the plan of the Maker out,
Work, the Titan; Work, the friend,
Shaking the earth to a glorious end,
Draining the swamps and blasting the hills,
Doing whatever the Spirit wills—
Rending a continent apart,
To answer the dream of the Master heart.
Thank God for a world where none may shirk—
Thank God for the splendor of work!

Pride in the Home

Abraham Lincoln said: "I like to see a man proud of the place in which he lives." Good furniture in a home symbolizes the love, integrity and aspirations which also abide there. This little advertisement may be accepted as our personal introduction to you.

It is a matter of mutual gratification that this establishment is devoted to the selling of furniture that survives the years, both in wearing quality and style. We aim to offer pieces that will give comfort and pleasure during the lifetimes of the children of the purchaser and their children also.

Within the boundaries of "reliable furniture only" we present, throughout our store, furnishings for every place and purpose. The prices are just, moderate and in many cases extremely modest, and don't forget our EASY PAYMENT PLAN.
