THE ROCK CREEK PARK.

The Government Closes its Testimony on the Gold Question.

At the session of the Rock Creek Park appraising commission yesterday afternoon Prof. E. T. Fristoe, professor of chemistry at the Columbian University, testified to assays he had made of seven samples of rock brought him by Mr. Davenport. Some of them he had shown slight traces of gold. Mr. L. G. Eakin, a chemist of the geological survey, testified that results of an assay made by him had been correctly stated by Mr. Eldridge. Mr. O. G. Staples testified as to mines in Montgomery county, Maryland. Mr. Perry then announced that the government had concluded its testimony on the gold question with the exception of some documentary evidence. This practically closed the testimony for the government.

Mr. Harry Tiffany of the census office testified as to the increase of population in the District.

Mr. George S. Merrick was called by Mr. Wilson, but objection was made to his testifying on the mining question on the ground that the subject had been thoroughly gone over. The commission reserved their decision.

Mr. Davenport having been recalled to explain the matter of furnishing Prof. Fristoe with samples of rock, Mr. Perry gave notice that he intended going before the Court in General Term and asking that the commissioners be further instructed.

Commissioner Norris thereupon stated that the commissioners having once been duly instructed in open court as to their duties and having been furnished with printed copies of those instructions they did not share in Mr. Perry's belief that additional instructions were necessary.

Replying, Mr. Perry stated that in this step he assumed all responsibility therefor. It seemed to him that in this case, wherein was involved so many and so great interests, interests affecting every citizen, the utmost precaution should be taken to guard against the slightest error, and that precaution should be taken now, at a point in the progress of the case where the correction of mistakes could be made without endangering the whole cause.

The matter was argued at length by Messrs. Wilson, Coleman, Lambert and Cole, but the hour of adjournment was reached without a definite conclusion being had.

AMUSEMENTS NEXT WEEK.

THE ROYAL MIDGETS.—A company of little people and adults will appear at Albaugh's next week in a musical extravaganza, entitled "Gulliver's Travels," written by McKee Rankin and Archibald Gordon on Deane Swift's celebrated work. The members of the cast are all said to be remarkably clever and had experience in opera and comedy during the period they have been before the public. Among them are Adrian Dott, Major Doyle, Capt. Hurd, Capt. Liable, Louis Wiegand, Commodore Foote, Little Chip, Prince Lewis, Col. Heibler, Jennie Quigley, Annie Nelson, Queene Foote, Sadie Belton, the German Rose, Princess Edith, Queen Emma and Little Tott and the Adams Sisters. The sale of seats will begin tomorrow.

THE PULSE OF NEW YORK.—The stirring melodrama, "The Pulse of New York," will be at Harris' Bijou Theater next week. The crowds that have flocked to this theater during the present week to see "Peck's Bad Boy," as well as during the past week, will no doubt make the advance sale for "The Pulse of New York" remarkably large. It has all the merits and the popularity of the previous attractions that have met with so much favor. It is full of thrilling interest, has a strong company for its interpretation and is mounted in a highly elaborate manner with special scenery.

TONY PASTOR.—The great and only Tony Pastor will be the principal attraction at Kernan's Lyceum Theater next week. No man is more widely known in the vaudeville business than Tony and no one enjoys a greater degree of popularity. Incidentally, it may be said that Mr. Pastor will bring with him his entire large and effective company from his New York theater. The very best male and female performers in the variety profession are included in the membership of this company and there will be many new people from abroad, who will make their first appearance in Washington.

Congratulating Mrs. Cleveland.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union continued its session yesterday afternoon in New York.

This resolution was declared out of order, but by special vote was referred to the committee on resolutions:

"That we most cordially congratulate Mrs. Frances Cleveland on the birth of her daughter, and earnestly hope and trust that she may be spared to rear up to womanhood as stanch a friend and as firm and fearless an example of total abstinence as she herself proved when she was the first lady of the land."

Suicide of A. F. Bole of Corry, Pa.

Hon. A. F. Bole, a resident of Corry, committed suicide yesterday morning by shooting himself through the head. He was a brother of Hon. William Bole, who failed for a large amount a year ago, and is believed that weighed heavily upon the suicide's mind. Deceased had been mayor of Corry.
