DEMOCRATIC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

A Brief Meeting at the Arlington Hotel This Morning.

JANUARY 21 SELECTED AS THE DATE OF THE MEETING OF THE FULL NATIONAL COMMITTEE—CHAIRMAN BRICE PRESIDES TODAY—NEW MEMBERS PRESENT—HOSPITALITIES EXTENDED.

The executive committee of the national democratic committee met this morning at the Arlington for the purpose of selecting a place and a date for the meeting of the national committee that is to decide upon the time and place of the national convention.

The meeting was a brief one, lasting but half an hour. There was little or no wirepulling, for the wires are not laid yet that will be pulled vigorously later. There may have been a good deal of wirelaying done this morning, however.

MEETING OF THE WHOLE COMMITTEE.

The committee issued a call to the national committee to assemble in Washington on Thursday, the 21st of January. This city will then witness a repetition of the scenes that were enacted a fortnight ago when the republican national committee was besieged by boomers of certain cities that were eager to be crowded.

MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The accredited members of this executive committee that met this morning are twenty-six in number, as follows: M. F. Tarpey of California; Carlos French of Connecticut; Sam'l Pasco, Florida; Jno. H. Estill, Georgia; Erskine M. Phelps, Illinois; S. P. Sheerin, Indiana; J. J. Richardson, Iowa; Chas. P. Blair, Kansas; Henry Watterson, Kentucky; Arthur Sewall, Maine; Arthur P. Gorman, Maryland; O. M. Barnes, Michigan; Michael Doran, Minnesota; Jno. G. Prather, Missouri; A. W. Lulloway, New Hampshire; Miles Ross, New Jersey; Wm. F. Sheehan, New York; M. W. Ransom, North Carolina; Calvin S. Brice, Ohio; James F. Kerr, Pennsylvania; Samuel R. Honey, Rhode Island; John C. Haskell, South Carolina; R. F. Looney, Tennessee; Hiram Atkins, Vermont; John S. Barbour, Virginia; J. N. Camden, West Virginia; John L. Mitchell, Wisconsin.

THE FOUR NEW MEMBERS.

There are four new men on the committee appointed to fill vacancies caused by death. The place of the late Gen. Barnum of Connecticut is taken by ex-Representative Carlos French, one of the wealthiest men in the state. He lives about twelve miles out of New Haven on a model farm. He is well remembered in Washington as one of the most generous entertainers ever in Congress. Hon. Henry Watterson is occupying the post formerly filled by H. D. McHenry.

The place of Hon. W. L. Scott of Pennsylvania is taken by Mr. Kerr, ex-Representative from Pennsylvania and today elected the clerk of the House. His selection by Chairman Brice was not announced until this morning.

South Carolina has a new representative on the committee in the person of John C. Haskell, who takes the place of the late Mr. Dawson.

CHAIRMAN BRICE.

Chairman Brice is the same Senator Brice of Ohio, about whose place of residence there has been some doubt. He did not seem a trifle worried this morning, however, over his uncertain geography, although Senator Hoar did add to the mystery yesterday in the Senate by accrediting him to Texas. He was cheerful and apparently well contented with the state of things, as he went around the room before the meeting, chatting with newcomers and discussing the results of last night's caucus in the House. He still wears his hair long at both ends of his head and it is of that well-known auburn hue that has given him a distinct characteristic. He hurried away from the hotel as soon as the meeting was over in order to attend a caucus of the democratic Senators that had kept his colleagues, Gorman, Barbour, Ransom and Pasco away.

PROMPT IN MEETING.

The committee was prompt in meeting and it was just 11 o'clock when the members were shut inside of the parlor assigned to them and the portals were closed by Doorkeeper W. H. Wiggins. The "judge" is a familiar figure here and it was with a thrill of recognition that most of the local politicians encountered him at the threshold. He was formerly employed in the office of the journal clerk of the House. Mr. John B. Trainer was chosen temporary sergeant-at-arms.

The committee first went into the question of the vacancies on the committee, and decided to ask the various central committees of the states now left without representatives to name their choice of members, to be confirmed by the national committee at its meeting in January. The date of this meeting was then considered. The 22d of February was first suggested, but it was generally thought that that was too late a day and after the 28th of January had been put forward by a member as being a good date the committee agreed upon a week earlier—Thursday, the 21st of January. The committee will meet at noon on that day at the Arlington.

THE HOSPITALITIES OF WASHINGTON.

Col. Wm. Dickson, the member of the national committee from the District of Columbia, then appeared before the executive committee by invitation and extended the hospitalities of Washington for the sessions of the national committee in January. It was voted to ask Col. Dickson to consider himself appointed a committee of one to take charge of the matter. He will probably ask some of his democratic colleagues here to aid him in preparing for the entertainment of the national committee.

The committee adjourned as soon as this matter was settled.

WHO WERE PRESENT.

The meeting was attended by the following: Hon. A. E. Stephenson of Illinois as proxy for E. M. Phelps, J. J. Richardson of Iowa, Senator Carlisle as proxy for Henry Watterson of Kentucky, Arthur Sewall of Maine, D. J. Campau of Michigan as proxy for O. M. Barnes, Gov. D. R. Francis of Missouri as proxy for John G. Prather, A. W. Sulloway of New Hampshire, Miles Ross of New Jersey, W. F. Sheehan of New York, C. S. Brice of Ohio, James Kerr of Pennsylvania as the chairman of the state committee, B. F. Looney of Tennessee, Hiram Atkins of Vermont and John L. Mitchell of Wisconsin.

The absentees unrepresented by proxies were Messrs. Estill, Tarpey, Pasco, Gorman, Ransom, Blair, Doran, Barbour and Clements. Mr. Estill sent a letter of excuse. Mr. Prather of Missouri is in the city, but is so ill that Gov. Francis had to represent him.

THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMITTEE.

The secretary of the committee, Mr. S. P. Sperin, is a townsman of the President, and he is of the opinion that Indianapolis would do very nicely as a place for holding the national convention. He is an ex-editor and a courteous man, and his journalistic and personal tendencies had a hard time of it this morning with the several thousand questions that were thrust at him from all sides. He bore up bravely and smilingly, however.

Hon. Don M. Dickinson, ex-Postmaster General, attended the meeting as a spectator, being the only person honored by this privilege.

Death of Capt. Hanna.

Capt. B. J. F. Hanna of Kansas died of diabetes in this city at 12 o'clock midnight on the 7th instant in the sixty-seventh year of his age. The deceased leaves four children—two sons, Messrs. E. P. and B. W. Hanna of this city, and two daughters living in Kansas. Services by Rev. Dr. Bartlett will be held at the residence of Mr. E. P. Hanna, No. 1924 H street northwest, at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, to which friends of the family are invited. The remains will be taken to Kansas for interment.

He Will Be Fed in Jail.

Frank Williams, a rough looking man whose appearance indicated that he was a tramp, was the first prisoner called before Judge Miller this morning. He was charged with being a thief and the testimony showed to the satisfaction of the court that he was guilty.

He said that he had worked about the oyster wharf in Baltimore and earned $10, which he spent for board. Yesterday he went into the Baltimore and Potomac depot and walked off with a satchel containing samples of sugar.

"What excuse did he make?" inquired the judge of Officer Lamb.

"He said he was hungry," the officer replied.

"Where are you from?" the court asked the prisoner.

"New York," he replied.

"What are you doing here?"

"Looking for work?"

"Is this the kind of work you are doing?"

"I didn't steal the satchel."

Judge Miller imposed a fine of $20 or sixty days in jail.
