THE BATHING BEACH.

Maj. Overman's Opinion in Regard to Mr. Stevens' New Plan.

The new plan of Mr. W. X. Stevens for a bathing beach, a sketch of which has been printed in THE STAR, was referred by the Commissioners, with their approval, to Maj. L. C. Overman of the corps of engineers of the U. S. army, in charge of harbor improvements, with the request that he submit his views on the subject.

Maj. Overman in returning the plans today says that while not entering into elaborate details he would suggest that a flat, regularly graded beach would serve all purposes, the danger line to be indicated by a life line stretched at the outer or reservoir side of the bathing beach, to be moved in or out in accordance with the state of the tide. Such with a patrol boat just outside the line would prevent most of the accidents during bathing hours. He thinks that all other details are questions of expense depending upon the money allotted, and that the bathing beach should be properly cared for and maintained.

HEALTH OF THE DISTRICT.

Slight Decrease in the Number of Deaths Last Week—Vital Statistics.

"There was a decrease in the number of deaths during last week of five, of the death rate from 23 to 22 per thousand people, as compared with the previous week," says Health Officer Hammett in his report for last week. "There was also a falling off in the mortality among those of sixty years of age and over, while the deaths of children under five years old and of those under one year of age were about as usual in number.

"Acute lung diseases still prevail to an extent above the average, the deaths for the two previous weeks from these causes being fifteen each.

"Diphtheria still continues to prevail in the northwest and to some extent in the northeastern portion of the city, and in several cases deaths from a malignant type of this disease were reported.

"Another death from 'grip' contracted during the epidemic of last spring was reported, its termination being in the form of pulmonary phthisis.

"There is a continued minimum prevalence of contagious diseases and no fatal cases from measles or whooping cough have been reported for well nigh two weeks.

"The decline in the number of deaths from typhoid fever from seven in the former week to three in the last week is a noticeable feature of the sanitary condition of the District."

The report shows: Number of deaths, 106—white, 64; colored, 42. Death rate per 1,000 per annum—white, 19.6; colored, 27.3; total population, 22. Thirty-eight were under five years of age, 21 were under one year old and 15 over sixty years. Eighteen of the deaths occurred in hospitals and public institutions. The deaths by classes were as follows: Zymotic, 20; constitutional, 16; local, 51; developmental, 11; violence, 8. The principal causes of death were: Croup, 1; diphtheria, 7; consumption, 11; diarrhœal, 4; typhoid fever, 3; malarial fever, 2; pneumonia, 7; congestion of the lungs, 3; bronchitis, 3; kidney diseases, 4; meningitis, 2; cancers, 2; erysipelas 1. There were 95 births and 29 marriages reported.

AMUSEMENTS.

MR. RICHARD MANSFIELD.—Next week at Albaugh's Opera House Mr. Richard Mansfield will commence an engagement, during which he will present two plays new to this city—"Nero" and "Don Juan." He will also appear in his former successes here—"Beau Brummel, "A Parisian Romance," Prince Karl" and "Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde." Mr. Mansfield is very popular in this city and his former engagements have been uniformly successful. His company is the same that contributed such efficient support during his long appearance in New York and includes Miss Beatrice Cameron, Messrs. D. H. Harkins, W. J. Ferguson and others well known in the profession. The sale of seats will commence tomorrow morning at box office of the opera house.

HARRIS' BIJOU.—"777" is the novel title of the play which will be offered at Harris' Bijou Theater next week and for which seats are now on sale. It is a melodrama by J. D. Clifton, with the south as the scene of action. It is full of intensity and the displays of heroism that always appeal to the sympathies of the audience when well presented. A. W. Fremont is the star. He takes the part of George Maicomb, the son of a wealthy Louisiana planter, who is unjustly charged with a crime that places him in the stripes of the convict. It is an American play from an American author and is highly spoken of.

GEORGE DIXON'S SCHOOL OF ATHLETES.—Geo. Dixon, the colored bantam-weight fighter, champion of the world, will meet all comers at Kernan's Lyceum Theater next week. He will give any bantam-weight who stands before him four rounds $25. Dixon weighs 118 pounds, and is one of the youngest fighters in the world. He will be accompanied by his own school of athletes, including Derby Lyons. Many entries have been made for the amateur boxing tournament for the Dixon medal. Dixon appears in conjunction with the American Four Vaudeville Company, including well-known variety artists.

THE FIRST BISCHOFF CONCERT.—The first concert this season under the auspices of Dr. J. W. Bischoff will take place on Friday evening and will be participated in by Misses Harper and Roselle, Messrs. Dabney Harper and Harris, all of New York and all recognized as musicians of exceptional ability. The program will be an attractive one.

BILL NYE AND AL BURBANK.—These two humorists will give an entertainment at the Congregational Church, corner 13th and L streets, next Monday evening. Nye is widely known by his writings, and there is great curiosity on the part of those who have never seen him to look at the man who has furnished them so much amusement. Burbank is an excellent dialect reader. Reserved seats may now be obtained at Metzerott's.

THE CAPITAL MINSTRELS.—An organization of fifteen under the title of the Capital Minstrels will give an entertainment tomorrow evening at Lincoln Post Hall for the benefit of Lincoln Post national encampment fund. The program will embrace songs, jokes and funny sketches, and the people who will participate are said to be competent.

ALFRED GREENFELT, who is styled "Court Pianist to the Emperors of Germany and Austria," and Heinrich Greenfelt, "Court Violincellist to the Emperor of Germany," will give a concert at the Universalist Church on the 19th instant. These gentlemen have been very successful in New York, where they have attracted large audiences and received warm praise for their efforts from the critics. Both are said to be excellent musicians and performers.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.—The Boston Symphony Orchestra will give its first concert this season at the Congregational Church this evening. This superb organization is very popular in this city, and on every occasion it has performed here has been greeted by large and fashionable audiences. The soloists tomorrow night will be Mme. Lillian Nordica, soprano, and Mr. Alwin Schroeder, violincello. The program will be an interesting one.

LIFE IN ITALY.—Miss Anna Seaton Schmidt's next lecture will be tomorrow evening on "Venice."

GEORGETOWN.

FIRE IN A SHOW WINDOW.

About 7:30 o'clock last night as one of the clerks in the clothing store of H. Somers & Son, 3046 M street, was dressing the window a lighted match was dropped in the cotton setting and a small conflagration was the result. Before the flames could be extinguished about $200 worth of clothing had been ruined.

POTOMAC R. A. CHAPTER.

Last night the annual election of officers of Potomac R. A. Chapter was held and resulted as follows: Frank P. Davis, M. E. H. P.; Frank Thomas, E. K.; Isaac Birch, E. S.; F. W. Storch, sec.; Chas. Becker, treas.; M. B. Lichty, C. of H.; Jno. E. Wagner, P. S.; C. W. Cruwell, R. A. C.; J. T. Greaves, G. M. 3d V.; Joseph A. Oliver, G. M. 2d V.; U. S. Ronlette, G. M. 1st V.; C. N. Allison, sent.; Otto Frank, organist. The retiring high priest, Dr. J. F. R. Appleby, in recognition of his services, was presented by Mr. Frank Seninson, on behalf of the chapter, with a handsome P. H. P. jewel.

CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRIES.

Entries received at the Georgetown custom house for the week ending December 5 were as follows:

Mfs. metal, value, $105; cigars, $432; wearing apparel, $48; furniture, $116; mfs. leather, $95; plants, $129; china and glass ware, $307; wine, $742; lumber, $1,738. Total, $3,712.

NOTES.

Mrs. Maria F. Johnson, widow of the late Joseph L. Johnson, died at an early hour yesterday morning. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mrs. L. Allen, 2021 35th street Friday, December 11, at 3 p.m. The Calvary M. E. Church loses by her death one of its most devout worshipers.

On Monday, December 14, the Georgetown Catholic Hibernian Society give a grand ball at Linthicum Hall.
