WASHINGTON'S BALL CLUB.

The Report of Messrs. Young and Phelps Will Decide Its Composition.

Who will compose the nine that will represent Washington in the new consolidated base ball league next season can only be guessed until Messrs. Young and Phelps reveal the apportionment made of the players. And they are not telling. President Young, who returned yesterday from Indianapolis thoroughly tired out by his week's work, was asked last evening for an inkling of what his report would be, but he refused to make any premature statements. The unofficial apportionment printed in THE STAR on Saturday is said by Director Scanlon to be as nearly accurate as can be made under the circumstances. This gives Washington Danny Richardson, Ted Larkin, Dolan, Knell, Hoy, Duffee and McGuire. These will be a nucleus on which a first-class club can be built—who the rest will be is only conjecture. Everything must be at a standstill for a while. Mr. Wagner of Philadelphia will come over to Washington probably after the holidays and take control. Until Messrs. Young and Phelps report it cannot be decided what will be done with the men signed by the old management.

The New York Sun today prints an interview with Walter Spalding, in which he says that New York's prospects are good for getting Ruste and Richardson. This contradicts the same gentleman's statement that "present contracts will stand as they are," for Mr. Wagner has a contract with Richardson. Richardson will play here.

It is not well known, but it is stated as a fact, nevertheless, that Washington was in very great danger of being left out in the cold in the recent deal. It was the intention of some to choose Pittsburg as an eastern city instead of this city. Luckily Messrs. Scanlon and Kalbfus were on hand and they made a strong fight, in which they were aided by Mr. Soden of Boston.

There is no doubt that the admission fee to next year's games here will be 25 cents, as it will be in those cities where such rate has been the rule.

As far as can be ascertained the local base ball enthusiasts are highly pleased over the outlook. Some were inclined at first to doubt the wisdom of a surrender to the league on the part of the association, but that feeling has been succeeded by one of satisfaction that Washington is again in the 27 league ball organization, and we will all again have an opportunity to see the best known players. Capt. Prince, the well-known scorer, when asked today how he liked the deal said, "Oh, I'm delighted. I will feel at home again." This just about expresses the general feeling.

ALEXANDRIA.

WHO SHALL PAVE HENRY STREET?

The questions which have grown out of the occupancy of Henry street by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are still asked, but as yet unanswered. The city council, having intermitted its Christmas week meeting, will not assemble again until the 2d Tuesday of January, so that ample time will be afforded to complete the negotiation now in progress for an act of the city council validating the railroad occupancy of Henry street, on condition that the railway authorities shall pave the street. The extent of the paving seems to be now the only subject in controversy, and while the paving of three blocks is offered by the railroad authorities, the paving of a much larger area is asked by the city council committee. While the negotiations are in progress all litigation on the subject is suspended.

THE CHURCHES.

Chaplain Walter G. Isaac, U. S. N., now of the Washington navy yard, preached here yesterday at the M. E. Church South. The pulpit of the Second Presbyterian Church was filled by Rev. A. P. Saunders, but at all the other churches yesterday the pastors officiated. It was announced at the Catholic Church yesterday that the Christmas services would begin at 5 o'clock Christmas morning.

NOTES.

The corporation court has closed its December term. Its last business was to make decrees in the cases of Warder agt. Fairfax, Dearborn agt. Dearborn and Wheatley agt. Turner. Its next session will begin on the 2d Monday of January, when the Phillips-Smith murder case will be called.

An old frame house on St. Asaph and Oronoko streets, occupied by colored people and owned by Mr. H. Green, was wrecked by fire last Saturday afternoon.

The funeral of Geo. Mero of Mt. Vernon district, well known in Washington, took place this morning from his late home.

The two-story brick house with back lot on Royal street next to the southwest corner of King street has been sold for $2,400. This property sold for $1,100 at auction some fifteen years ago.

The College Boys Win.

The Georgetown consolidated foot ball team and the Duponts played an interesting game of foot ball on the university grounds Saturday afternoon that resulted in a very creditable victory for the college boys by a score of 24 to 0. For Georgetown, Fleming's beautiful runs, aided by the excellent interfering of Baker, and Hennon's strong rushes through the line, and for the Dupontes the rushing of Pyne and Nale and the kicking of Speare were noticeable. The teams lined up as follows:

Georgetown.	Positions.	Duponts.
Martin	Left end	Lenoir
O'Neill	Left tackle	Burritt
Smith	Left guard	Mason
Archer	Center	Lewis
Dyer	Right guard	Church
Callahan	Right tackle	Vanderhorf
Walker	Right end	Brainard
Segar	Quarter	Moore
Hennon	Left half	Pyne
Baker	Right half	Nale
Fleming	Full back	Speare

Denied by Mr. Garrison.

To the Editor of The Evening Star:

In a resolution offered by Hon. Mr. Enloe to investigate the pension office and printed by THE STAR Saturday, December 19, are these words: "That Garrison, a file clerk in the bureau, took from the files and concealed the papers in the case of W. W. Dudley, late a commissioner of pensions, so that his name did not appear in the investigation, although he was rerated prior to said report; that it is alleged that Garrison has since been promoted by the commissioner from $1,200 to an $1,800 clerkship with a knowledge of his conduct in this matter." Now, as to the taking and concealing the papers in the case of Col. W. W. Dudley, I never saw nor handled them; and as to my being promoted from $1,200 to an $1,800 clerkship, I had been a $1,600 clerk from October 7, 1882, or nearly nine years prior to the date of my promotion to an $1,800 clerkship.

JOHN S. GARRISON.

The Canvasback Club's Dinner.

The Canvasback Club, which is made up of well-known gentlemen who know the difference between a canvasback and a red-head duck every time and whose dinners were such a success last winter, met again Saturday evening for one of their pleasant entertainments. The table was set at Harvey's and the menu was an elaborate one. This initial dinner will be followed by a number of others during the course of the winter. At the head of the table Saturday evening was seated Gen. Albert Ordway and along the sides were Judge Jere Wilson, Capt. George E. Lemon, Col. O. F. Long, U. S. A; Capt. James Allen, U. S. A.; Maj. G. C. Goodloe United States marine corps; Marshal Daniel M. Ransdell, Maj. W. C. McIntyre, Col. H. L. Cranford, Dr. Hagner, U. S. N.; Pay Director Washington, U. S. N., and Maj. W. F. Tucker, U. S. A.

High School Alumni.

There was a meeting of a number of graduates of the High School held Saturday night for the purpose of organizing a permanent Alumni Association of the Washington High School. Those present elected as temporary officers Mr. Ramey, chairman; Mr. Pollard, secretary, and Mr Chamberlin, treasurer. The secretary was instructed to correspond with the various class organizations and request them to bring the project before their classes at the coming annual reunions. An effort was made to secure a representation from every class which has graduated, but owing to the fact that many of these are scattered some had no members in attendance. The following were present: Messrs. Pollard and Brock, '85; Shoemaker and Saunders, '86; Ramey, Shields, Grove and Hinman, '89; Chamberlin and Ross, '90; Slemen, Slater, Moore and Hensey, '91.

Potomac Athletic Club Entertainment.

The Potomac Athletic Club gave a pleasant musical and athletic exhibition in their club house Saturday evening that brought out quite a large number of the members and friends of the club. Messrs. Rebstock and Miller sang several songs well and the Given brothers of the W. L. I. C. Athletic Association gave a rattling sparring bout. Master Tommy Buckley, Charles Jones and Fred Doyle also took part in the exhibition. The Potomacs will give a watch meeting entertainment on New Year's eve.
