POLICE REGULATIONS.

Why the Commissioners Think the House Bill on the Subject Should Pass.

The Commissioners today made the following report upon H. R. bill 3972, "to amend an act to authorize the Commissioners to make police regulations for the District of Columbia:"

Congress in 1878 authorized the Commissioners to make police regulations in regard to buildings and the sale of coal (20 Stat., 131), and in 1887 regulations in regard to fire escapes (24 Stat., 365), regulations in regard to insurance (24 Stat., 366), regulations in regard to steam engineers (24 Stat., 427), as to elevators (24 Stat., 580), as to pawnbrokers and second-hand dealers, the storage of inflammable materials, the location and conduct of licensed venders, the orderly disposition of vehicles in the public streets, the location of hacks and hack charges, the driving of animals in the public streets, the keeping of dogs and fowls, deposits on the streets or sidewalks, loud noises and fireworks and the passage of vehicles in the public streets (24 Stat., 363). Having delegated to the Commissioners the exercise of the particular powers above noted it seems Congress might very well be asked to pass the bill in question, which will be no more than conferring upon the Commissioners general power to make all such reasonable police regulations as they may deem advisable, and thus save the Commissioners the necessity of making and Congress the trouble of considering and passing upon special application from time to time for the delegation of police power. That the Commissioners need such a law is proposed is shown by the fact, among many others, that they have no power to regulate the speed of steam railway trains, the regulation authorized by the act of 1887 having been held to apply only to ordinary vehicles in the public streets. We have no adequate law in regard to cleaning snow and ice from the sidewalks. Then the coming into existence since 1887 of a new motive power as to four of the principal street railroads in this District multiplies the risk of life and limb, and hence we need police regulations designed to prevent accident on cable and electric railroads. Other instances might be given, but it seems that those indicated are sufficient to demonstrate the necessity of the bill becoming a law.

The bill, if it becomes a law, will confer upon the Commissioners no further powers than are exercised by all the successfully governed cities in this country. It comprehends only such regulation as relates to the comfort, safety, health, good order and general welfare of all the people of this District. It is equivalent to the general welfare clause in the charter of the principal cities of the United States.

"Our city governments," says Judge Dillon, (Dill. on Munic. Corp., 393,) "usually possesses the power, either by express grant or by virtue of their authority, to make by-laws relating to the public safety and good order of the inhabitants; to regulate the speed of travel in the public street; the route or street over which omnibuses or stage coaches may run; the time of day in which the street may be used for certain purposes; to interdict stoppages in the street to the delay of others; to exclude vehicles of all kinds from entering upon the sidewalks, &c." These briefly are the reasons why the bill should pass.

CAPITOL TOPICS.

A MEMORIAL WITHDRAWN.

Senator Peffer has, with the consent of the Senate, withdrawn the memorial of Capt. John Cowden of this city relative to Missouri river bridges. The memorial was sent to the Senator for his private inspection, but the Kansan supposed it was to be presented, so he laid it before the Senate some days ago.

POSTMASTER RATHBUN CONFIRMED.

Postmaster Rathbun of Elmira, N. Y., was confirmed yesterday by the Senate after a two hours' executive session debate. Senator Hill, who has opposed the confirmation at long range, was not present.

TO PAY CAPT. CRAWFORD'S ESTATE.

Mexican soldiers killed Capt. Emmet Crawford, third U. S. cavalry, while the captain and a detachment were chasing Apaches. Senator Manderson has introduced a bill to pay to the estate of the late Capt. Crawford the sum of $25,000.

A PORTRAIT OF VICE PRESIDENT TOMPKINS.

The oil portrait of Daniel D. Tompkins, painted by Jarvis in 1812, may be purchased for $2,000. Mr. Tompkins was Vice President of the United States. The picture is now in the possession of Mr. Ray Tompkins Gordon, but Mr. Gordon will give it up for $2,000. Senator Hiscock introduced a bill which, if it becomes law, will bring about the transfer.

TO CREATE A PRIVATE SECRETARY.

A bill to create the office of private secretary to the commissioner of patents has been introduced by Senator Dixon. This new official is to be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior upon the recommendation of the commissioner. The salary is to be $2,000.

RETIREMENT OF NAVAL OFFICERS.

Mr. O'Neill (Penn.) has introduced a bill in the House providing that when an officer of the navy shall have been retired after forty years' service or upon reaching the age of sixty-two years he shall receive the rank and pay of commodore, provided that he has served creditably a full term as chief of a bureau in the Navy Department.

THE CHOCTAW CLAIM.

When Henry E. McKee, who represented himself to be the agent of the Choctaw Nation, skipped out of this city in company with $3,078,495.33 he took with him $3,078,495 that belonged to the Choctaws. The late Albert Pike was of counsel for the Indians and Mr. McKee's unceremonious departure with the cash deprived the old general of the privilege of collecting his fee. Senator Jones of Arkansas has introduced a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay Gen. Pike's fee to Gen. Pike's heirs out of any money in the treasury to the credit of the Choctaws. All of which means that if the bill becomes law the Choctaws will be "out" not only the amount of $3,078,495.33, but also the sum total of the Pike remuneration.

TO COMPILE THE DIGEST.

A lively contest is being waged before the House committee on printing between Mr. Crutchfield, present journal clerk of the House, and Mr. Harry Smith, former journal clerk, for the honor—and the attending emolument—of compiling the annual digest and manual of the House. The matter will be settled by a resolution reported from the committee directing one of the two gentlemen to do the work.

COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS.

Speaker Crisp has made the following committee appointments:

Banking and currency—Mr. Busey of Illinois and Mr. Russell of Kentucky.

Interstate and foreign commerce—Mr. Caruth of Kentucky and Mr. Coombs of New York.

District of Columbia—Mr. Hallowell of Pennsylvania and Mr. Busey of Illinois.

War claims—Mr. Cadmus of New Jersey.

Eleventh census—Mr. Fithian of Illinois.

THE WORLD'S FAIR INVESTIGATION.

The House yesterday decided to send the world's fair resolution to the committee on appropriations. The proposition to intrust the matter to the committee on world's fair was lost by a vote of 103 to 147. The resolution provides that the committee on appropriations is ordered to inquire and report whether there obligated and undertaking, and now engaged to do so, have justly and properly complied with the requirements of the act of Congress approved April 25, 1890, and whether all expenditures of whatever character for the exposition have been judiciously made; whether the number of employes and appointees to carry out the laws is excessive and their compensation reasonable or otherwise, and to ascertain and report the salary paid to each officer and employe, from what state the several appointments have been made, and generally whether in the care and conduct of said exposition proper management has been had; that they obtain full report of those in charge of the expenditures of money of all such expenditures, and that the report of the committee based upon the inquiry may be made at any time to Congress.

Pensioning the Clerks.

To the Editor of The Evening Star.

In reference to the discussion now taking place as to the justice or otherwise of taxing departmental clerks for the pensioning of the aged government employe, please record me as heartily in favor of it. I think, however, that provision should be made for refunding to those unfortunate (or fortunate) enough to lose their position, before the age limit is reached, the amount of their payments. In view also of the further fact that the public service would be the gainer if the worn-out employe need no longer encumber the rolls from charity, I think the rate might well be cut down from 2 to 1 per cent, the government making up the deficiency.

AUGUST DONATH.

IF AFFLICTED WITH SCALP DISEASES, hair falling out and premature baldness, do not use grease or alcoholic preparations, but apply Hall's Hair Renewer.
