DESTINED TO BECOME A POPULAR RESIdence section for army and navy people. We have sold lots to a number of them in FORT MEYER HEIGHTS,
On the Washington and Arlington electric railway, adjoining Fort Meyer and the Arlington estate.
One-half mile from city limits.
A grand chance is offered for investment in this beautiful suburb of Washington, which has an elevation of 200 feet above the Potomac and affords magnificent views of the entire city, the Potomac river and surrounding country.
If you have never seen it do so at once; you don't know what you are missing. Been on the market only a few months, in which time a number of lots have been sold.
Pretty cottages are now being erected, streets graded, sidewalks, plenty of shade and the purest of water.
Only FIFTEEN MINUTES' ride from center of property to the Treasury Department.
We have opened on the property a QUARRY of beautiful blue building stone, which we are furnishing at cost to those who build.
Don't fail to thoroughly inspect and compare with the other suburbs before purchasing elsewhere.
WE WILL SAVE YOU MONEY.
WE WILL MAKE YOU MONEY.
Our teams always in readiness to take parties out. Takes hour and a half to drive out, inspect property and return.
Advantages of the Heights.
Convenient to theaters.
Half mile from city.
On electric railway.
Fare, 5 cents.
Building stone at cost.

WESLEY HEIGHTS!
ADJOINING THE GROUNDS OF THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.
Have you visited Wesley Heights? It is only a thirty minutes' drive from the center of Washington to this beautiful suburb. If you take the electric cars, get off at the power house of the electric road and take the short cut. After a walk of ten minutes you will find yourself in a charming spot, with magnificent views, fine shade and good water. Just the place for an ideal suburban home.
The Heights is one of the highest points within the District, and is very picturesque and romantic. The ground slopes gently from its crest toward the city and is all available for building purposes.
The extension of Massachusetts avenue will give this property a direct line of communication with the city and will ensure a magnificent driveway to the University grounds. Ultimately the avenue will be the most fashionable thoroughfare leading out into the northwest suburbs.
With past experience westward the prices of land have far exceeded the most sanguine expectations of all holders and today outside capital will buy real estate in the northwestern part of the District when it cannot be induced to touch property elsewhere.
From long experience capital is more willing to develop and look for a prospective profit than to deal in securities that only yay a small rate of interest.
Taking into consideration what has been done in and about Washington during the past ten years, it would seem that this subdivision, being so advantageously situated, at the prices offered is hardly an atom of its prospective. Today it offers an unusual opportunity to this community for safe and profitable investments when its success is already a foregone conclusion.
If you contemplate purchasing do so at once. The best lots are being sold.
PRICES, $425 to $750 per lot.
Terms: One-fifth cash, balance in two, three and four years.
Clients wishing to inspect the property, by calling at the office, can make arrangements to drive out at 4 o'clock on any pleasant evening.
