COZY SUBURBAN HOMES!

LAKELAND, PRINCE GEORGE'S CO., MD.

If you want a cozy suburban home you can get it for from $1,400 to $3,800, depending on the location, number of rooms, &c. The amount of cash required is the sum of one monthly payment. No other subdivision possesses the natural advantages of Lakeland, among which, in the center of a park of pleasing proportions, is Lake Artemesia, a magnificent body of water, well stocked with fish and supplied with pleasure boats of different kinds.

Lakeland is a little over eight miles from this city via B. and O. R. R. or the Baltimore pike and in direct line of the proposed Maryland and Washington Electric R. R. The houses are well built on good brick foundations, with porches, closets, cellars, outbuildings, wells, pumps, baths, latrobes, &c., on lots that contain about 15,000 square feet of ground. Churches, schools, post office and stores are convenient. Twenty trains daily—commutation fare 6¼c.

For further particulars, plats, &c., apply to EDWIN A. NEWMAN, 1406 Columbia st. n.w., between 7 and 10 a.m. or after 7 p.m. At Lakeland ask for the superintendent, Mr. T. J. CADLE.
