A NOBLE WOMAN HONORED.

Miss Harriet P. Dame Holds a Reception and Meets Many Friends.

The seventy-eighth birthday of a woman whose name is revered and beloved by thousands of old soldiers throughout the land was made the occasion of a celebration last night by her friends and admirers.

HER ARMY SERVICE.

Miss Harriet Patience Dame was the person and it is her name that is a watchword among veterans for everything that is tender and good. Miss Dame joined the second New Hemshire regiment as hospital matron in June, 1861, and remained with it until she was mustered out with it in December, 1865. Miss Dame was inside the trenches at Fair Oaks, where she passed a dark night alone in the thick woods, the only woman in the brigade, caring for the wounded of other regiments as well as her own. She was on duty as a nurse near the old stone church at Centerville, while her regiment participated in the second battle of Bull Run. There she was taken prisoner, but was soon released. Miss Dame was appointed matron of the eighteenth army corps hospital in 1864 and had supervision of the nurses on duty. Of her service Gen. Marston said: "Wherever the regiment went she went, sometimes camping on the field without tent. She was truly an angel of mercy, the bravest woman I ever knew. I have seen her face a battery without flinching."

Miss Dame was appointed to a clerkship in the Treasury Department in 1867 and she still holds it. When she was seventy-five years of age she passed a civil service examination for promotion.

SHE RECEIVED HER FRIENDS.

Last night in the attractive rooms of Miss Ransom's studio, on F street, Miss Dame held a reception. She was assisted by Mrs. Brinton, Miss Clara Barton, Miss Burghardt and Mrs. Weisner. Mrs. Bissland, president of the Legion of Loyal Women, was present and as "officer of the day" helped to make the guests welcome. The studio was thronged during the evening, despite the inclemency of the weather, by people who came to pay their regards to the distinguished woman.

Speeches were made by Mr. Henry M. Baker, Congressman-elect from New Hampshire, Gen. Patterson, the second auditor, Capt. James M. Piper and Col. Barnett of Ohio, who eulogized the work of the army nurses. Miss Clara Barton read an original poem, "The Women Who Went to the Field," and the audience joined in the chorus of several army songs which were sung.

After this part of the program was completed an army supper of coffee and hardtack, with beans boiled in a genuine army pot, was served.

MGR. SATOLLI'S MISSION.

His Powers Broadened and Widened and He is Not to Be Recalled.

As published in last night's STAR in the form of a telegram from Rome, a newspaper in Naples, Italy, said recently that the mission of Mgr. Satolli to this country had been a complete failure and that he had been recalled by the Vatican. As an interesting answer to this it is stated at the Catholic University that the European mail received there yesterday brought to Mgr. Satolli, the papal ablegate, instructions broadening and widening his powers and imposing upon him new duties and responsibilities, which must necessarily occupy his attention to the exclusion of all but the most urgent business for some time to come.

A further interesting fact was learned, which was that the circulation among priests in New York, Brooklyn and New Jersey of a protest against the efforts being made by a Catholic newspaper to antagonize the legate's mission had been brought to Mgr. Satolli's attention and that he had said, while he recognized the sincerity and devotion that inspired this movement, he thought it better it should go no further. No one, he said, could doubt the loyal adhesion of the American clergy to the actions of the holy see through its authoritative representative, nor would any one take the utterances of the newspaper in question as the expression of the American clergy.

MARY BURNS' DECISION.

Mrs. Wittkendt's Daughter Declines to Leave St. Rose's.

Yesterday afternoon Justice Bradley heard the case of Mary M. Burns on writ of habeas corpus sent out by her mother, Mrs. Wittkendt of 628 Virginia avenue southwest, and directed to Sister Clara in charge of St. Rose's Industrial School. The girl, quite a good-looking miss, appeared in court seated between two of the sisters, and was quite neatly attired, while Mrs. W. and her husband and her two sons were present. Mr. Chapin Brown, who appeared with Mr. H. V. O'Conner for Mrs. W., read the petition and Messrs. Hamilton and Colbert appeared for the sisters and read the return, denying that the girl was restrained of her liberty. Mr. Brown for Mrs. W. filed a traverse to the answer denying that she agreed that it was best that she should not see the girl, asserting that she had at divers times contributed both clothes and money toward the support of her child, and that on the 31st of January she stated her desire to live with her mother and family. Mr. B. suggested that the mother be called and inquired of as to the circumstances of placing the child in the asylum.

Mr. Hamilton suggested that the child was eighteen years of age and that she be examined; that if the girl desired to go with her mother the sisters were satisfied.

Mr. Brown said that if the girl was examined in open court there might be surroundings which would induce her to make replies not in accord with the dictates of her heart. He suggested that the mother and child should have an interview first and the guards (sisters) should not be with them.

Mr. Hamilton agreed to this proposition and repelled the intimation that the sisters were guarding the girl.

Mr. O'Condor said that the girl may be eighteen and at the same time as inexperienced as one of ten years, and suggested that the circumstances surrounding her when she is examined should be considered.

The court directed that the mother and daughter have an interview, and they were shown into the retiring room, the two brothers of the girl joining them. In five minutes the mother came out to see her counsel, stating that Mary wanted to know what kind of business Mr. Wittkendt was in. In a short time the justice entered the room, and, on returning to the court room, the girl took a seat with the sisters. Mr. Hamilton then stated that the girl had expressed a wish to remain where she was. After some discussion on the rights of a mother the justice dismissed the writ and Mary returned with the sisters.

Not Cruel to Kill the Cat.

Cruelty to animals was the charge against Mr. William E. Harvey of No. 2010 14th street when he appeared in Judge Kimball's court this morning. The animal in the case was a cat belonging to Mr. Harvey's next door neighbor. He admitted that he shot the cat and the owner of the animal said that death ensued in about ten minutes.

Mr. Harvey's excuse was that cats in his neighborhood had paid frequent visits to his premises and had ruined articles of food a number of times. When his attention was called to the presence of the cat he fired the shot that ended the animal's life.

"I can sympathize with you," said Judge Kimball. "These cats running through persons' houses and destroying their property constitutes a nuisance. I am troubled in the same way."

The judge said he did not think there was any cruelty in the matter and dismissed the case.

Installation Ceremonies.

Past Grand Chief Carpenter, accompanied by the Grand Castle officers, Knights of the Golden Eagle, visited Monarch Castle, No. 2, at their last regular session for the purpose of installing the newly elected officers. After witnessing the conferring of the pilgrim degree upon Paris E. Brengle the posts were vacated by the Castle officers and assumed by the grand officers. The following officers were then installed: Past chief, James E. Rose; noble chief, Isaac Hartstall; high priest, Gilbert F. Randolph; venerable hermit, Nicholas Caffrey; master of records, Fred. C. Hartmann; clerk of exchequer, Charles H. Bauman; keeper of exchequer, Edward L. Tolson; chief herald, Alfred Worch; worthy chamberlain, William Freyer; envoy, William R. Sangston; second guard, Julien Sears.

Peru to Study Our Postal System.

Postmaster General Wanamaker is in receipt of a letter from the director general of posts of Peru stating that Dr. Jose Valle-Riestra would soon leave Lima for the purpose of studying the postal system of the United States, and asking that there be extended to him the usual courtesies in such cases.

The Postmaster General has accordingly requested all postmasters of the United States whose offices Mr. Valle-Riestra may desire to visit to extend to him all courtesies and facilities in their power.
