GEORGETOWN.

A SMALL ARMY OF TRAMPS.

Residents to the north and west of town complain that they have been greatly annoyed during the past few days by the persistent visits of a straggling company of tramps. If one is sent away from a door another calls a short time after, and the second is followed invariably by a third. Depredations have also been committed to a small extent, chickens, &c., disappearing with the last of the crowd. Some of the men ask for things in a pleading tone, others almost demand them, while others still apparently do not care whether they are answered favorably or not. A number of these gentlemen without positions passed yesterday on Hickory Nut Hill, from which place they sent out scouts and food collectors.

BAD CONDITION OF THE CONDUIT ROAD.

About this time of the year all the roads in the vicinity of Washington become very bad for traveling purposes. It is seldom the case with the Conduit road, but this year even this has become in places impassable. The highway is not cut up by wagon wheels, but at intervals mud wallows of more or less depth are encountered, making it almost as bad for riding purposes as any Virginia road. With a few cartloads of broken stone and a few men these wallows could be filled and the road put in the normal condition.

THE CATTLE MARKET.

At the Arlington stock yards Monday thirty-five cattle were up and sold. Best, 5 to 5½c.; good, 4½ to 5c.; medium, 4 to 4½c.; common, 2½ to 3½c. Fifty sheep and lambs: Lambs, 5 to 6½c.; sheep, 3 to 3½c. Calves, 5 to 7c. Ten cows and calves, $20 to $45.

But very few cattle are coming to Washington and consequently their price is high. From now until the first of May the same state of affairs is likely to exist. Then the market will be flooded with sheep and lambs.

NOTES.

Mr. Joseph Englehart, whose ankle was severely sprained while wrestling about three weeks ago, is out again.

The Fillmore School building, on 35th street near Road, is nearing completion, and will be ready for occupancy by the beginning of the next school term.

John C. Hurst yesterday sold to Ernest Betz for $2,815 lot 9 and the south one-half of lot 10, block 7, of Clark and others' sub of White Haven.

Yesterday there was an explosion of gas in the cellar of the residence of Mr. Thian, 3311 N street, and the joists above were charred. No other damage resulted.

An Enjoyable Japanese Tea.

The friends who are interested in the missionary school which Madame Tel Sono hopes to soon open in Japan gave an enjoyable entertainment and tea at Hotel Fredonia last evening. The parlors were well filled. Mrs. Webb of Berlin rendered some fine piano selections. Mrs. Julia H. Platt read a sketch of Mrs. Tel Sono's life. Mrs. La Fetra read a letter from her since her arrival in London, whence she sailed January 17, and Mr. Isaiah Koyabe, a native of Tokio, Japan, offered prayer. Rev. Dr. S. M. Newman gave an interesting talk on mission work and its special needs.

A report of the money raised gave the encouraging sum of nearly $3,000 toward opening the school for high-caste Japanese women and girls in Tokio, Japan, the foundations of which it is proposed to lay the coming summer.

An election of officers of the "Tel Sono Association" took place, resulting in the re-election of the old officers, except that Mrs. S.S. Ayer was made recording secretary and Mrs. Benj. Platt financial secretary.

Several were dressed in Japanese costume. Tea was served in the second parlors and about $25 was paid in for the benefit of the association. Mr. Koyabe sang some Japanese songs.

Under the Quadruple Pledge.

The regular session of Undine Juvenile Temple last Saturday afternoon was largely attended and eight new members initiated, Mrs. Bishop, superintendent, officiating. Past Chief Templar Ray of Friendship Lodge was present and made instructive remarks. In the musical and literary exercises responses to the chairman of good of the order were made by Edna Holland, Katie Potter, Elsie and Clark Raynsford, Nora Hayes, Alma Miller, Rosina Offenstein, Emma Bishop and Daisy Woodfield.

Independent Juvenile Temple, Miss Mary Riley, assistant superintendent in charge, had forty-seven members present on Saturday afternoon and initiated ten new members. There were present also as visitors and contributors to the good of the order Chief Templar Walmer and John Lawton and Ethel Borton, Katie Clements and Annie Dewar of Independent Lodge. At the close of the temple an informal reception was held at the residence of the superintendent, Mrs. R. Giles, on M street.
