ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.

Twentieth Anniversary of Dr. Crummell's Pastorate Celebrated.

Twenty years ago yesterday the Rev. Alexander Crummell became the pastor of St. Luke's Episcopal Church at the corner of 15th and Madison streets. Since that time he has accomplished good and holy work among the colored people in this city. It was mainly through his efforts that the congregation have the commodious edifice that they now occupy.

He took occasion yesterday in his sermon to review his service in this city during that period, choosing as his text 48th Psalm, 8th to 14th verses. "It is twenty years ago this Sunday," he said, "since I began my ministry in this city to this congregation. My coming hither was without doubt in the providence of the Almighty. I myself had little to do with it. I was ministering, soon after a twenty years' missionary life in Africa, to a mission in the upper part of the city of New York. On the first Sunday of my service here I found a small gathering of about twenty-five persons, then worshipping in St. Mary's Chapel, on 23d street between G and H streets. Its capacity was afterward increased, so that it now holds from seventy to eighty persons. In 1875 a committee was organized to make an appeal for funds for the building of a larger structure. The sum of $1,500 was given by the late W. W. Corcoran and a lot was obtained on 15th street a few doors below M. Subsequent payments were then made and the lot and money were lost. Later Bishop Pinkney sent for me and commissioned me to undertake the collection of funds for the purchase of a lot and the building of this church."

SUCCESS AT LAST.

This time success crowned his efforts. The sum total realized was $31,000. Real progress has been the history of the church, notwithstanding formidable difficulties, bitter opposition, and great poverty. During the twenty years of his ministry here he has baptized 299 persons, brought to confirmation 249, married 98 and attended 159 funerals. The communion alms have amounted to $914; the offerings, $13,736. For the whole enterprise he has been enabled to collect some $24,000. The present value of the property is about $50,000. In view of these facts he said the congregation had grounds for congratulation. When he came to St. Mary's Chapel it was a church in a state of absolute poverty. Today it is a corporation in the possession of an area of ground covering some 8,300 feet, with a market value of fully $50,000. There was a mortgage of $7,000 placed on the church, but of this more than $4,000 has been canceled during the past three years. Today it may be said that it has an indebtedness of but $2,500, with the purpose and hope of sweeping this away within the current year. The possession of the adjoining lot was afterward obtained and St. Luke's Hall was made a gift.

FUTURE HOPES.

"One signal thing, moreover," he continued, "calls for rejoicing this day before the Lord. Far beyond all thoughts of property, higher than all considerations of possession, is the moral and spiritual condition of a church. They make the greatest of mistakes who think that property and money and rich men and temporal success are the great things in God's church. My brethren, there is many a church in Christendom abounding in affluence, crowded with the great and luxurious, abounding with gifts and adorned with magnificent decorations which, after all, is but 'a synagogue of Satan.' This true glory of God's church is the presence of the spirit and the spiritual life of its members. The true criterion of success is the loving kindness of the Lord in His temple.

"Here, then, to day is the grand cause of our thanks and rejoicing. Great has been the poverty of this church; painful have been its constant struggles. But I thank God that scandals, grossness, abominations have been the rarest incidents of our history. The need of discipline has been of the most seldom occurrence. In the whole period of my ministry here I have not disciplined more than half a dozen times for grosser sins. In general the communicants of this church have lived clean and spotless lives."

He closed as follows: "With a clean and persistent church life this church will surely stand forever, a type of holy living."

BUILDING IN MINIATURE.

Elaborate Celebration of Children's Day at the Calvary Baptist Church.

Standing room was all taken yesterday morning at Calvary Baptist Church and a great many people failed to gain admission. The exercises were very interesting and despite the warm morning the great crowd remained to the close of the program. A platform large enough to accommodate 300 of the children had been built across the east end of the audience room and supplied with chairs. These were filled, and the girls in their white dresses, and all in bright colors, presented a beautiful sight. Two great flags were conspicuous on the platform. At 10 o'clock Mr. Howard, the church organist, played a fine voluntary. At 10:15 the signal was given that the primary intermediate departments, under direction of Miss Sadie White, and the junior departments were at the doors of the audience room, where the adult department holds its sessions, waiting for admittance. Instantly the organist began playing the processional hymn, "The Banner of the Cross," and the three departments began the march down the broad aisles. When half way down the entire congregation, including the four departments began singing this hymn and continued while the children were being seated. This was followed by the song "Follow Me." T. F. Chambers, son of Mr. A. A. Chambers of the committee of managing men of the church, offered prayer and Rev. Dr. Greene, the pastor, stated "The Objects of the Hour." During the program a chorus choir assisted Mr. Lillibridge and the church choir gave some fine selections. Mr. Kimball, assistant superintendent, in charge of the junior department, led the audience in reading the eighty-fourth psalm. Mary Grand sang very beautifully the solo "Dwell With Me." Then began the theme of the morning, laying the foundation and corner stone and building the front elevation of the new Sunday school house which Calvary is now building. Carrie Bitting, Elsie Johnson, Birdie Bowler and Edwin Eshleman took part in laying the foundation. In the absence of Sadie Guard, who was to have recited "Foundations," her place was filled by little Miss Feri Hoskins. Then came the corner stone laying by Walter Plumley and the appropriate recitation by Lucy Myers, followed by a recitation, "The Corner Stone," by Selina Hopper. Nearly 100 little people, the smallest in the school, then sang a motion song, "Rise, Temple, Rise," under direction of Miss Marshall, the teacher, and Miss Helen Woodward, the assistant. Miss Woodward had immediate charge of this portion of the exercises.

A recitation, "Temple Building," by Lydia Koch, was followed by a song, "Little Builders," by the intermediate department, under direction of Miss Kate White and Miss Katharine Stickney. At a given signal a curtain was drawn, exposing a representation of the front elevation of the new Sunday school house now being built. It was 6½ by 7½ feet in size. The stonework was represented by beautiful grey moss, the brick by red roses and red carnations, and the windows by colored electric lights, the lighting being the handiwork and generous effort of Mr. L. D. Bliss. When the piece was exposed and the lights turned on the entire congregation, nearly 1,200 people, arose and sang "The Completed Temple," to the air of "America," the words being written for the occasion. "The Living Temple" was given by Miss Haskins in the absence of Gertrude Johnson, and the junior department sang an antiphonal, "Rest in the Temple." The chorus choir sang "Send Forth Thy Light," by Gounod, a fitting close to the building of a temple dedicated to the Sunday school work. The doxology and benediction by the pastor closed the exercises of the hour.

Struck by a Wagon.

A little child of Mr. J. Hoyle of 2036 8th street northeast on Saturday evening was struck by the hind wheel of a Boston House wagon and slightly injured.

Harry Hendricks Drowned.

A sad case of drowning occurred on Saturday last in the Eastern branch, near the brick yard. Harry Hendricks, Allan Hanson, George Shilling and Albert Chase went out in a boat to fish. After fishing awhile, Harry and Albert disrobed for a swim. When they cleared themselves from the boat they were in a strong current, and found it necessary to catch hold of the stern to keep from sinking, not being expert swimmers. Albert maintained his hold, but Harry was unable to do so and went down. He came to the surface a third time and piteously beseught his frightened comrades to "help." They were powerless to render him any assistance and he sank for the last time. He was a good boy and a great comfort and help to his parents, who reside at 152 D street southeast. The body has not yet been recovered.

Jury Discharged.

On Saturday the jury in the case of H. O. Claughton agt. J. W. Burke for fees in a suit in Clarke county, Va., reported to Justice Cox in the Circuit Court, division 2, their inability to agree and were discharged.
