THE COUNTRY STILL RICH.

Ex-Senator Henderson Says Distrust and Not Poverty Causes Trouble.

A letter received by Secretary Carlisle from ex-Senator John B. Henderson of Missouri has been given out for publication. He argues forcibly for a return to a single standard. Senator Henderson reiterates a former statement of his belief that the present stringency is produced, not by any lack or insufficiency of our currency, but by the loss of confidence produced among business men because of the bad quality or inferior character of a large part of that currency.

He argues that experience shows that the amount of circulating medium is not a measure of national prosperity. "I think," he says, "I am safe in asserting that from July 1, 1879, to July 1, 1883, we enjoyed very great prosperity, individually and nationally. There was no lack of money. It sufficed not only to fill the treasury, but it abundantly answered the demands of commerce and an extraordinary business activity followed by very high prices. It will be seen that the average per capita circulation during that period was $20.61. If we now take the period from July, 1890, to the present, a period of great monetary stringency, we find an average circulation per capita of $23.65. It is therefore apparent that, in the common parlance, 'times' may be 'hard' and money scarce with the most abundant circulation."

After reviewing the causes of the panic of 1873 and the money troubles between 1848 and 1857 he says: "The commercial conditions now existing are altogether different from the two periods named. It seems to me demonstrable, so far as a financial proposition can be logically demonstrated, that the present situation is not the result of speculation, of overtrading or bad business methods, but that it is largely, if not wholly, produced by the silver legislation of Congress."

Speaking of the resumption of specie payments the ex-Senator writes:

"Two years after adopting the single standard, to wit, in 1875, a measure was inaugurated and passed for the resumption of specie payments, to become operative on January 1, 1879. If these two measures had remained on the statute books, inviolate and unamended, there is no economical reason why the United States and its people should not today enjoy the most unbounded prosperity. We should have had the best and most abundant currency—a gold currency of universal value and of such volume as to force its circulation, as in England, France and Germany, into the hands of the people."

THE REMEDIES SUGGESTED.

He then reviews the subsequent silver legislation and its consequences and says:

Once more the bubble of a depreciated currency has burst and the splendid lie again stands in its miserable deformity. Another debit charge is to be made to the account of experience, on whose credit side so few entries are ever made by men or nations.

What now is the remedy?

1. The customs duties should hereafter be paid in gold alone.

2. The silver bullion in the government vaults should at once be sold for cash in gold and the proceeds covered into the treasury.

3. Three per cent gold bonds to the amount of $300,000,000 should be promptly sold and the proceeds transferred to the treasurer.

4. A day should be fixed, not later than January 1, 1898, for the redemption and payment in gold coin of all circulating notes of every description heretofore issued by the government.

5. At least half of the silver dollars issued under the acts of 1878 and 1890 should be sold as bullion and the remainder minted into subsidiary silver coins and made legal tender only in payment of $10 or less.

6. Provision should be made for the use of the $300,000,000 of gold bonds as a basis for banking, making the provisions as liberal as possible consistent with safety, but under government supervision.

7. The basis of national banking should be so enlarged as to permit the issue of circulating notes on the deposit of other than United States bonds, the solvency of such bonds to be passed on by responsible government officials.

8. All bank issues to be redeemed in gold coin on demand.

9. All foreign gold coins should be made a legal tender for debt and receivable for government dues at their value, as fixed by law.

10. Previous to the 1st of January, 1898, the surplus funds of the treasury, either from loans or collections, to be placed with the banks in such sections of the country and in such amounts as may be determined by the Secretary.

He declares his belief that the country is still rich.

"It is not poverty," he says, "but distrust that afflicts the country. Our fabric of finance must be torn down and built anew. It was conceived in error and every step increased the departure from truth. The act of 1878 was dishonorable to the government and ruinous to the people. The act of 1890 was a mere device to substitute silver for gold as a standard of value. Iron or copper is either more stable in value today than silver."

BROOKLAND.

The first Episcopal Church service in Brookland was held in the lecture room of the town hall yesterday morning, Rev. Joseph W. Murphy of Washington officiating, while Mr. Fred Booth of Mount Pleasant presided at the organ. About sixty members of P. E. families from Brookland and the vicinity were present and great interest was shown in the occasion. The improvised altar and reading desk were tastefully arranged by the ladies and the altar was surmounted by a handsome cross of ferns and flowers. A Sunday school was organized, with Mr. Edward Baldwin, of University Heights, superintendent; Mr. George F. Erdman, Mrs. Mary Burr, Miss Mary Burr, Mrs. E. C. C. Phillips and Mrs. Frank Galt, teachers. The permanent committee on organization has Mr. Harry Barton as chairman, Mr. U. S. J. Dunbar secretary and Mr. T. G. Carmick treasurer. A ladies' sewing guild has been successfully established and held its first meeting with Mrs. Harry Barton; the next meeting will be with Mrs. Edward Baldwin of University Heights.

The Brookland M. E. Sunday school held their first regular session yesterday afternoon with fifty teachers and pupils present. The teachers appointed are Mrs. P. H. Johnston, Dr. T. Y. Hull, Mrs. Dr. T. Y. Hull, Mrs. N. B. Malone, Mrs. E. E. Cissell. Mrs. Harry Hospital has charge of the infant class, with Miss Beatrice Rhine as assistant. A greeting was received from the Brookland Baptist Sunday school and a cordial invitation from Mr. J. L. Sherwood, superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school, to participate in the Baptist picnic in Mr. J. B. Lord's grove tomorrow afternoon was heartily accepted. Rev. Alex. E. Gibson of the Waugh M. E. Church preached an excellent sermon to a good-sized congregation. The meeting on Wednesday evening will be lead by Mr. Reading of Hamline Church.

The lawn festival by the ladies of St. Anthony's Chapel, which opens at 7:30 this evening, promises to be the most interesting event of the season. A very large number of tickets have been sold in Washington and this vicinity, but the ample grounds of the university surrounding the mansion of the Paulist fathers where the fete is to be held preclude all idea of too much crowding. Supper will be served this evening, as well as ice cream and cake, and tomorrow both dinner and supper can be procured at a nominal cost.

Rev. Robert R. West, last evening in the Baptist Church, preached an unusually impressive sermon previous to the communion service. Mrs. Wilford F. Robbins and Mrs. A. J. Ettinger were admitted to church membership.

Mrs. Rachel A. Means has as her guests in her cozy home, "Means' Manor," Mr. and Mrs. Kail Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Elkins and son, Mr. C. H. Warren and son, Mrs. C. C. Adams, Mr. Bristow Adams, the Misses Constance, Edith and Ada Adams, Miss Marcia Pascal, Capt. and Mrs. Horace Mullen, Miss Gladys Mullen, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hackett, Mr. C. De Wolfe Coffin, Miss Sallie Downs and Miss Ella Hough.

A lodge of the Knights of Honor will be instituted in the Brookland Hall this evening. This is a fraternal organization which has been in existence in the United States since 1873 and has a membership of 138,000 throughout the states and the dominion of Canada.

Mr. E. S Morgan and family have gone to Hagerstown, Md., to spend the Fourth of July.

Camp Meeting at Lacey's Grove.

Five hundred persons attended the camp meeting yesterday in Lacey's Grove, on the Benning road.

Wm. Pratt conducted the experience meeting at 10 a.m. The 11 o'clock sermon was delivered by Rev. A. C. Washington of the Zion M. E. Church. Rev. W. H. Whiting preached at 3 p.m. Rev. William Honn delivered the 8 o'clock sermon. Good order prevailed. There are eighty tents on the ground. Rev. A. Young is pastor.

These May Be Warm Days in Washington, But they are not at Bay Ridge. There is always a breeze there from the Chesapeake bay. Trains leave B. and O. station at 9:15 a. m., 1:30 and 4:28 p.m. week days, and 9:35 a.m. and 1:30 and 3:15 p.m. Sundays. Round trip, $1.—Advt.
