Defeated the Phillies.

The largest crowd ever assembled on the Philadelphia ball grounds, numbering nearly 15,000 persons, saw Washington win from the home team Saturday by better all-round play. Weyhing started in to pitch for Philadelphia, but retired at the end of the third inning, after ten runs had been made by the visitors. Hallman's muff of a thrown ball in the first was responsible for five of Washington's runs. Esper was touched up rather freely, but he kept the hits well apart. Sullivan's two fumbles gave Philadelphia two runs in the eighth. A very other man on the Washington team played first-class ball. Sullivan was hit by the pitcher three times, and given his base on balls twice, and Radford was sent to first on balls four times. Weather clear and warm. Score: 11 to 4.

Base Ball Notes.

The Senators are weak in pitchers and if they can secure about two good twirlers they will be hard to beat.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Negotiations are pending looking to the transfer of all the Philadelphia games scheduled for Washington to this city. As things stand now that would be an advantageous move all around.—Philadelphia Press.

It is patent that Boyle and Clements cannot hit left-handed pitchers by batting right-handed. Why then not abandon the absurd fallacy, and bat naturally.—Philadelphia Press.

The Press man should have seen Clements' right-hand batting here last Wednesday. One hit scored two runs.

Meakin has returned to Washington, having had an attack of cholera morbus complicating him to quit.

Stockdale has reported and is with the club at Boston.

Cincinnati has tried twenty-nine pitchers this season.

Tim Keefe pitches on an average two games a week, and generally wins them, too.

Pitcher John Stafford has been released by Cleveland. His brother Jim has been succeeded in New York's center field by Jack Doyle.

The New York club has requested Keeler to play with a Southern League club and and still draw his salary from the former. Billy, however, has stoutly refused.

Miller, the suspended catcher of the Pittsburg club, will play second base for Harrisburg. He will be signed for the balance of the season.

The Baltimores have temporarily signed Doc Kennedy to help out Clarke behind the bat. This is not the old league player, but a younger man, who has made his mark with local semi-professional teams.

Nearly 40,000 persons saw the league games on Saturday.

The Brooklyn club contains several expert billiard players.

"Reddy" Mack has been signed by the Macon club of the Southern League.

Breitenstein is rapidly rivaling Killen as the league's best left-handed pitcher.

Stenzel, the Pittsburgs' spare catcher, has been doing some heavy hitting lately.

Hamilton of the Philadelphias has made more runs than any other league player.

Wise is covering third base for Washington in Mulvey's absence, and is doing it well. New York Sun.

Mark Baldwin either pitches a whole game effectively or is knocked out in one inning.

So far three triple plays have been made this year—by Pittsburg, Brooklyn and Baltimore.

Zimmer will not play with Cleveland again for fully a month, owing to a broken collar bone.

Jimmy Peeples has signed with the Erie club of the Pennsylvania State League as a catcher.

While at Louisville recently the Brooklyns visited the grave of their dead comrade, Hub Collins.

Billy Higgins, the old league second baseman, has joined the Memphis club of the Southern League.

Von der Ahe has offered his St. Louis players $2,500 if they win half of the next forty games, beginning July 16.

This is Billy Nash's tenth consecutive year as Boston's third baseman. He is as fine a player as ever and immensely popular.

Jack Sharrott is himself again. He can pitch just as effective for Philadelphia now as he did for New York two years ago.

Just outside St. Louis there is a town named Foutz, while near Cincinnati there are two villages named Lovett and Comiskey.

Dixon to Fight Eddie Pierce.

The next entertainment to be held before the Coney Island Athletic Club is scheduled for August 7. There are two events on the program. The principal one will be a fight to a finish for a purse of $6,500, between George Dixon, the feather-weight champion of the world, and Eddie Pierce, a other-weight, who has but recently entered the professional pugilistic arena.

Morello's Great Performance.

The crowning performance of the Washington Park Club's World's Fair race meeting was reserved for the last day. Saturday afternoon, in the Wheeler handicap, the three-year-old Morello flashed through one mile and a quarter of hot July sunlight in two minutes and five seconds, thus equaling Salvator's greatest feat.

Morello's race is by far the greatest for the reason that it was as a three-year, carrying eight pounds above the scale, while Salvator made his record as a four-year-old, carrying the exact weight assigned him in the scale for age and sex.

Morello carried 117 pounds, whereas his scheduled weight would have been 109. Salvator carried 122. Morello's performance establishes him as the race horse of the age.

Hanlan and Gaudaur to Row Again.

The single scull race for the championship of America between J. G. Gaudaur and Ed. Hanlon on Saturday at Orilla, Ont., resulted in disappointment for the 10,000 spectators who were present. The men were called out at 7 o'clock, and at the word "Go," Hanlon secured a slight lead. They were rowing dangerously close together all the way up the course, and at the first mile their oars became locked, and the men ceased rowing for several minutes. After the scullers became separated, Hanlan continued on alone, and rowed over the course in twenty-one minutes and twelve seconds. Gaudaur turned back and claimed a foul. Referee Douglass, after hearing the men, and darkness coming on, decided that the race must be rowed over this afternoon. Much disappointment was felt at the result of the race.

Where Corbett Will Fight.

Regarding the statement from Chicago to the effect that both Corbett and Mitchell had signed articles for their fight to take place in December before the Columbian Athletic Club of that city, Corbett has sent the following telegram to Judge Newton of the Coney Island Athletic Club:

"Your remarks in the New York World in reference to my honesty are uncalled for. I avoided disgraceful Mitchell bound to Coney Island Club, and shall refuse to sign here."

Long-Distance Bicycling.

The twenty-four hour bicycle race between French and English record-breakers was completed at Herne Hill, England, Saturday. More that 15,000 persons saw the finish. Throughout the race there was much record-breaking. F. W. Shorland won by covering 428 miles 440 yards, thus beating the world's record of Jules Dubois, the French long-distance wheelman. Bidlake, who was second, covered 419 miles, 110 yards. Hammond covered 398 miles. Crooks 388, La Caille 387, Sames 334, and Chereau 318. Shorland finished in good form and showed few signs of exhaustion.

Fast Pigeon Flying.

The lead for distance in a day for the season, held thus far at 387 miles by Philadelphia birds, now goes to Milton, Mass., for 525 miles. The birds of H. G. Brooks and Wm. Martin of Milton, were released at St. Thomas, Ont., at 5:20 o'clock Friday morning, and at 6:40 Saturday evening one was in the home loft.

Bombay seems a very progressive sort of place. It has a Sorosis and a cooking class. Recently at a competitive examination over one hundred Parsee girls cooked a long list of Indian delicacies to show their proficiency.

The difficulty between the custom inspectors and the Russian exhibitors at the world's fair has been satisfactorily adjusted.

Goldsborough of 110 pounds, whereas his scheduled weight would have been 109. Salvator carried 122. Morello's performance establishes him as the race horse of the age.
