SUPERIOR MACHINISTS BUY BONDS.

Members of the Superior lodge of machinists, No. 343, at their meeting last Friday night voted to subscribe for $500 of Liberty bonds. They were also notified that at the last meeting of the executive board of the grand lodge, the officers decided to take $25,000 of the bonds. Local members also have arranged to furnish all members who are in service or who are to go, with a service card from the union.

ASSEMBLY DROPS PLANS TO ENTER POLITICAL FIELD

Unable to Secure Complete Harmony; Lawson Tells of Labor Conditions in State.

The Federated Trades Assembly last Friday night at its meeting decided to drop the plans recently formulated for the indorsement of candidates for the legislature at the June primaries.

The special committee named to draft a platform for the labor candidates submitted a comprehensive report which met with the almost unanimous approval of the delegates. Several recommendations as to candidates were also made. After lengthy discussion it was decided to discharge the committee because of the fact that it was impossible to obtain the unanimous support of all the delegates in the proposed political movement, and maintain complete harmony.

Want Business Agent.

An amendment to the constitution was proposed in a resolution introduced by the delegates from the Painters' union, providing for the employment of a business agent by the assembly, whose duties it shall be to stimulate organization work throughout the city. It received first reading, final action being deferred until the next meeting.

The Liberty Loan parade came in for a great deal of consideration, and action was taken requesting all members of organized labor in the city to participate. The secretary was instructed to insert an advertisement in the press to that effect. The delegates voted to purchase two $50 bonds and donated $5 to the American Red Star Animal Relief society.

The publication committee was instructed to answer the Open Court article recently published in The Herald, impugning the loyalty of organized labor.

Secretary Lawson Speaks.

George W. Lawson, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, reviewed general labor conditions to the delegates, referring to the activities of labor men in the political field in St. Paul. He stated that three commissioners put up by the labor political committee for commissioner in the Apostle City had been nominated at the recent primaries. The secretary told of the great inroads being made by unionism in the packing industry at South St. Paul, where the workers are fast realizing their only salvation lies in organization. They have already secured several concessions, and proudly wear the insignia of their union.

WILL AFFILIATE WITH A. F. OF L.

Referendum Held By Building Trades Council Favors Proposal.

The local Building Trades council will affiliate with the Building Trades Department of the A. F. of L.

This decision is the result of the referendum which the council held of all affiliated unions, the returns of which were received at its meeting last Monday night.

The vote on the proposition was 192 for and 35 against. The unions favoring affiliation were: Bricklayers, Electricians, Sheet Metal Workers, Lathers, Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, Tile Layers and Team Owners; while the Painters' union was the only one opposed.

The officers were instructed to proceed and make application for the charter, and it is expected that negotiations will be completed within a week.

LABOR DELEGATE MEETS MILLER AT WASHINGTON

To the Editor of The Labor World: I wish you would publish the following in your paper.

I have just returned from Washington, where I served as a delegate representing the local Boilermakers' union No. 165, through the Metal Trades Council of Duluth and Superior. The entire labor delegation received a good hearing from the Shipbuilding Labor Adjustment board during the three-day conference. The board is now considering the wage demands submitted by the various classes of labor in the Great Lakes shipyards, and will soon announce its findings.

While at the national capital I met our congressman, Clarence B. Miller, whom I found very considerate and solicitous. He was eager to assist us in any way possible, and escorted the Head of the Lakes delegation around to see the national buildings, also introducing us to many of the lawmakers. I am grateful to Mr. Miller for the treatment he accorded us.

Respectfully yours,
J. G. VICHE.

LABOR DELEGATION RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

The delegation representing the Metal Trades Council of Duluth and Superior which attended the hearings before the Shipbuilding Labor Adjustment Board at Washington April 8, 9 and 10 has returned to the Head of the Lakes.

Representatives of both the employers and workers engaged in the shipbuilding industry on the Great Lakes were present. The labor delegation, which consisted of about seventy, submitted a schedule of uniform wages affecting the various crafts in all the plants from Buffalo to Duluth.

While several speakers appeared for the employers, the claim that the shipbuilders were entitled to an increase in wages because of the war-time cost of living was not disputed, according to a local delegate, and no real dissension developed at the conference.

The Labor Adjustment board now has the demands under consideration, and a decision is anticipated within a week or two. Both the men and the companies have agreed to accept the findings, which, it is believed, will usher in a new era of industrial peace and harmony in the Great Lakes shipbuilding industry.

J. G. Viche and R. C. Sermon are from Duluth while the others represented Superior unions.

LAWSON WILL DISCUSS STREET CAR DISPUTE

Local Trades Assembly Arranging for Two Meetings April 29 and 30.

Duluthians will have an opportunity of getting some first hand information about the street car controversy in the Twin Cities, which was caused by the organization of the employees of the Twin City Rapid Transit company last fall and resulted in President Wilson sending his mediation commission to the Twin Cities.

George W. Lawson, secretary of the State Federation of Labor, at the meeting of the Federated Trades assembly last Friday night, requested that the assembly make arrangements for the holding of public meetings in this city so that the people, especially the workmen, may know the truth about the Twin City street car trouble. The following committee was named to have charge of the plans, W. J. Dutcher, E. Munkeby, Peter Schaeffer, Henry Dworschak, Jr., and William Hanson.

According to the incomplete arrangements, it is planned to hold two meetings, April 29 and 30, the first probably at the Shrine auditorium and the other either in the West end or West Duluth. Secretary Lawson, who was a member of the committee which handled the strike of the street car men and who made two trips to Washington to secure a settlement of the trouble, will be the speaker. He has delivered similar addresses in other cities in the state, and, it is said, gives a very vivid account of the strike affair.

Complete plans will be announced early next week, and it is expected that two large audiences will avail themselves of this opportunity of learning the truth about the Twin City dispute.

NOTED POULTRY EXPERT TO SPEAK HERE NEXT MONDAY

On the following night Dr. Brown will speak in Barnum at the high school.

$300 Worth of Thrift Stamp Sold at Ball of Theatrical Unions.

The local Stage Employees' union and Motion Picture Operators stage their annual ball last Thursday night at the Shrine auditorium, and as a result of the patriotic phase of the entertainment $300 worth of thrift stamps were disposed of. Kathleen Clifford presided at the stamp booth, assisted by Nate Cole and Frank Davis. Claire Rochester circulated among the dancers, selling the stamps. Helmer's orchestra provided the music, and the unusually large crowd thoroughly enjoyed the program. The committee in charge of the arrangements consisted of William Hammond, Jack Shanahan and Walter Johnson.
