LOCAL UNION WANTS WORKING AGREEMENT

The Boilermakers' and Shipbuilders' union is endeavoring to negotiate a working agreement and wage scale with Stacey & Co., the outside firm engaged in building the new gas-holders for the Zenith Furnace company.

The firm, it is alleged, is paying lower than the union scale, and helpers are employed at laborer's wages. The union insists that the union scale obtain throughout. The firm wants the contents at issue submitted to the state board of arbitration. The union would prefer to settle the matter by direct negotiation.

MAKE PLANS FOR ANNUAL PICNIC

Local Carpenters' Union No. 361 Tuesday night considered plans for the holding of the annual joint picnic of the two Duluth locals and the Superior carpenters. A committee of five was named to visit the other two locals, secure the appointment of similar committees, and make plans for holding the outing before July 1 if possible.

No. 361 again came to the front in upholding its reputation as a patriotic and progressive organization, when it voted to subscribe $25 to the local Red Cross fund.

The committee, which visited the meeting of Cabinet Makers and Millmen's union recommended that the latter be invited to send a fraternal delegation to the uptown local, and that the practice of fraternal co-operation be made permanent. The suggestions were adopted, and a communication sent to the West end union. Two new members were initiated, and officers reported trade conditions as good.

JOHNSON MAKING STRONG BID FOR SHERIFF'S JOB

Well-Known Unionist Has Active Campaign Committee; Feels Optimistic.

Walter Johnson, candidate for sheriff, spent the past week campaigning on the ranges. He states that he is well satisfied with the situation and is optimistic about the election.

"I will be one of the nominees at the primaries," he asserts, "and I confidently expect to be elected in November. My friends throughout the county are working enthusiastically in my behalf. I find myself stronger in every locality than I was two years ago."

Mr. Johnson's fellow workmen in Duluth have organized a militant committee, and they are working like Trojans in his behalf. This committee is headed by W. E. Hammond of the Theatrical Stage Employees' union, of which organization Mr. Johnson is a member. A complete and systematic canvass of the county is being made.

Workingmen are taking a keen interest in the election of a sheriff. They want a man in that office who will give them a square deal, one who will enforce the law without fear or favor, who will not serve any particular interest or interests at their expense, particularly during strikes. Labor does not ask for the best of it. The laws protect workingmen in their rights, and all they ask is that these laws be honestly and indiscriminately enforced.

Mr. Johnson understands fully the position of workingmen with reference to the duties of sheriff. He is a workman and depends upon his daily wage for a livelihood. He began life as a newsboy on the streets of Duluth. He next learned the wood-working business and was for many years prominently identified with the Woodworkers' union, serving as a delegate from that union in the Trades and Labor Assembly and the State Federation of Labor where he distinguished himself for his courageous, manly and straight-forward qualities.

During the administration of Henry Truelsen as mayor of Duluth, Mr. Johnson was appointed on the staff of the city engineer. He became very proficient in that office and served the city with distinction and honor for a number of years. The late Gov. Hammond appointed him deputy oil inspector for St. Louis county, holding the position until the expiration of his term.

Mr. Johnson has always taken an active interest in local labor and political matters, and his sympathies have always been on the side of the under dog. Wherever men of action were he was always found where he was most needed. His friends are many, and all are working earnestly for his election.

UNION LABOR MEN CAMPAIGNING FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Committees Being Organized for Various Candidates; Will Make Hard Fights.

Workingmen are putting their best efforts into the campaign of union labor men for the legislature. Committees in behalf of the candidates are meeting at frequent intervals and splendid organizations are being effected.

The Plumbers' union is behind John Bennett to a man. Mr. Bennett is candidate for representative in the Fifty-eighth district. He is honored and respected by every member of the union as he will be by the people of his district when they learn to know him. He spent most of his life in Duluth and knows as well as any man the needs of this city. He is American to the core.

Juls J. Anderson of the Typographical union has started out on an aggressive campaign. He has already been endorsed by the Cabinet-makers' union and Allied Printing Trades council. Mr. Anderson will open headquarters in the downtown district during the week. He expects to conduct a speaking campaign throughout the Fifty-eighth district.

Henry Dworschak, Jr., also of the Typographical union, and candidate for senator in the Fifty-seventh district, who is opposed by Senator Adams, former Senator Cheadle and George O'Sullivan, expects to give these worthy men a run for their money. He is receiving tenders of support from many quarters and from localities where he had supposed labor men stood a poor chance for a look in.

Mr. Dworschak, while a novice in politics, is showing the old-timers what a young fellow can do. He is a man of conviction, who can be depended upon to vote right at all times and on all propositions. His Americanism is above dispute.

Emil M. Erickson, candidate for the senate in the Fifty-ninth district, will have nothing to worry about until after the primaries. His only opponent is Senator George M. Peterson. Mr. Erickson is a member of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, and he will be supported in the campaign by the loyal members of organized labor.—W. E. McEwen.

TO HAVE HEARING AT ST. PAUL ON NEXT MONDAY

Demands of Cabinet Makers and Millmen Before State Arbitration Board.

The Cabinet Makers and Millmen's Union No. 1284 held a very important meeting last Monday night, at which the executive board reported that the state arbitration board had fixed May 27 as the date for hearing the dispute between the union and the mill employers.

No. 1284 presented wage demands about a month ago, requesting a conference with the mill managers. At that time the latter assumed an arbitrary attitude and refused to meet representatives of the union. In addition to this Thor Thorsen, president of the local, was discharged by Z. D. Scott, presumably because of his union activities.

Although the members of the union were on the verge of striking, they resorted to every means to reach a settlement, finally appealing to the state arbitration board.

Last week R. F. Schroeder, a member of the board, made an investigation of the controversy and finally set the date for a hearing. It is said that Mr. Thorsen and J. A. Johnson, secretary of the union, will be subpoenaed to appear before the board in St. Paul, while Z. D. Scott will represent the employers.

Secretary G. W. Lawson and Vice President Henry Pereaault of the State Federation of Labor attended the meeting of the union Monday night. A fraternal committee from Carpenters' Union No. 361 was also present. Organizer Melvin of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners is in the city to assist the local union.

Seven new members were initiated, and six applications received. Election of delegates to the Virginia convention was deferred until the next meeting.

LOCAL PRINTERS HOLD THEIR ANNUAL ELECTION

William E. Towne was re-elected president without opposition by Duluth Typographical Union No. 136 at its annual meeting Wednesday. During the past year the typos have enjoyed unusual prosperity, largely due to the untiring energy of Mr. Towne, in recognition of which he received a splendid vote. A. G. Catlin was elected vice president.

For delegates to the convention of the State Federation of Labor, J. A. Barron, A. G. Catlin and E. M. Grace were tied for first place. Two of these will be chosen, while the third and Henry Dworschak, Jr., will be alternates.

The other officers elected follow: Treasurer, E. M. Grace; sergeant-at-arms, P. C. Simons; Typographical Journal correspondent, N. W. Reeves; I. T. U. delegate, William E. Towne; alternate, Juls J. Anderson; delegates to Federated Trades Assembly, Juls J. Anderson, A. G. Catlin and Henry Dworschak, Jr.; for I. T. U. and local auditors, Ben Bredeson, Miss Agnes Collins and V. A. Burdack; members of joint standing committee, Ben Bredeson and Juls J. Anderson.

HENRY W. CHEADLE

Candidate for State Senator,
57th Legislative District.

This District takes in all of the City of Duluth, east of Third Avenue East, also Two Harbors and Knife River and some country districts.

Served in same position in 1911 and 1913. His stand on Labor questions. (Report of the Joint Labor Legislation Board of Minnesota—1911)

"The laboring men of the State are especially indebted to the following Senators for the zealous and active support which they lent to all of our bills, and it is due to the presence of these men in the Legislature that the Labor interests were accorded the recognition which they received. It is our sincere hope that they will meet with the favorable consideration due them at the hands of their constituents:

Jas. P. Boyle, Eveleth. M. J. McGrath, Winona.
H. W. Cheadle, Duluth. Chas. S. Marden, Barnesville.
B. L. Fosseen, Minneapolis. John Moonan, Waseca.

Wash Suit Time

The Wash and Play Suit Department in our big boys' section on the second floor is more important than ever in these times when it is imperative for many people to buy something less expensive than wool.

We feature the famous Kaynee wash togs for the little tots, from the creeper to fit a six-months-old child to handsome wash suits for ages 2½ up to 10.

When you go shopping and find that wool and heavy cotton suits are at a premium—wash suits will interest you more than ever, because they are so practical, economical and at the same time so becoming.

"Little man" effects resembling the styles their bigger brothers wear and the clever military and naval effects have the run.

Of course, the slippers and button coat effect are also very popular.

The able Kaynee Co. furnishes a never ending variety in fast color combinations. Pink, blue, plaid, tan, cream with pretty contrast colors. Also solid shades of white, cream, blue, tan and Nile green. Prices 59c, 65c, 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $2 and up to $5.

For the little helpers in the WAR GARDEN, both boys and girls, ages 2 to 12, we have blue chambrays with hairline stripes, or trimmed with red. Some in khaki, 65c to $1.25.

For larger boys and girls, ages 13 to 18, heavier materials in khaki or blue denim. Also Lee Union Playalls, roomy enough to slip over the suit—$2.25 to $3.25.

Overalls with bibs at $1 to $1.50.
