

Aspirants For Republican Nomination

CHARLES A. LINDBERGH.

At the primary election next Monday will be decided one of the most fiercely contested fights ever staged in Minnesota for the Republican nomination for governor and the right to go on the ballot at the November election as the standard bearer of that party. Governor Burnquist has been endorsed by the so-called Loyalty league, while ex-Congressman Lindbergh has the endorsement of the Nonpartisan league and the labor unions of the Twin Cities. These respective groups have also endorsed candidates for other state offices.

The following is the organized farmers' and organized labor's ticket: Governor, Charles A. Lindbergh; lieutenant-governor, Ralph E. Crane; attorney general, Thomas V. Sullivan; auditor, S. O. Tjosvold; treasurer, Albert H. Fasel; railroad and warehouse commissioner, Fred E. Tillquist; clerk of the supreme court, Herman Mueller.

The following ticket has been indorsed by the so-called Loyalty league: Governor J. A. A. Burnquist; lieutenant governor, Thomas Frankson; secretary of state, Julius A. Schmah; auditor, J. A. O. Preus; treasurer, Henry Rines; attorney general, Clifford L. Hilton; clerk of supreme court, I. A. Caswell; railroad and warehouse commissioner, F. W. Putnam.

WILL HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICE NEXT SUNDAY

The memorial service of the "Big Four" railroad brotherhoods and their lady auxiliaries of Duluth will be held at 2 o'clock next Sunday at the Grace M. E. church, Twenty-second avenue West and Third street.

Rev. J. G. Schaibly, pastor of the church, will officiate, and there will be music by the church quartet. Miss Maude Gilbert will render an instrumental solo. The services are open to the public.

In the past it has been the custom to confine the memorial service to the four brotherhoods, while this year the ladies' auxiliaries will take part.

J. O. Lockhart and Mrs. O. V. Kurker are chairmen of the joint committee on arrangements.

the principles which workers shall demand as the basis for relationships. "We are each day building labor's house of tomorrow. If that structure is to endure the test it must be founded upon the bedrock principles of equality and democracy in relations between men.

Co-operation Is Sought.

"The present war is an extraordinary opportunity to determine those principles. This life and death struggle between the nations of the world is a laboratory which is disclosing the strength or weakness of every social relationship and institution. War is forcing us back to the essentials of life. War is a fundamental co-operative action of organic society. The present war is on such a gigantic scale that every part of national life is involved. The whole nation is in the war. The spirit of war activity and organization is essentially social. The national organism is at stake. As a war necessarily we are seeking the principles which will assure the most efficient co-operation. This co-operation must come from the two primary forces of society—the possessors of creative labor power and controllers of capital."

In behalf of labor, offering this co-operation, the report renewed its declaration that labor cannot be classed as a commodity, and demanded "equal right to representation and equal voice on all agencies determining matters affecting their interests and welfare, whether in private or government employment."

"Progress made towards this end through the shipping board and ordnance department of the army," the report says, "indicates that must become an accepted custom in all production." In some governmental aspects of war production, the report asserted the representation has not been accorded. It suggests that all producing enterprises be equipped with a "labor manager," as well as a chief engineer and other executives and said that "there ought to be in charge of all labor problems of production a highpowered trained labor man."

Laws Against Idleness.

In addition to its presentation of abstract principles, much of the volume of the annual report was taken up with recent history of the Federation's activities as they had to do with the immense conversion of national industrial establishments to war service, particularly citing the insistence of its officials for the maintenance of the eight-hour day. Considerable time was devoted to the war-labor board creation and to railroad labor policies. It dealt likewise at length upon the adoption by various states, West Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island and North Dakota, of compulsory labor laws and expressed anxiety that the idleness banned by the laws should not include that "resulting because of differences between employers and their employees."

Anticipating the spread of the legislation, the report defines the Federation's position towards the policy as not hostile if "due guarantee for the protection of the rights of workers are incorporated in the war emergency measures."

"Labor turnover," the report attacked as even less desirable for the worker than for the employer, and advocated as a remedy its labor manager plan, involving, it is said, "intelligent and sympathetic understanding of the needs of workers and what constitutes fair dealing." It recommended to permanent industrial establishments regular conference between committees of employees and the management to meet all problems and asserted that "it is fundamental for efficiency in production that the essentials of team work be understood and followed by all."

Health Insurance Laws. Discussing the question of workmen's compensation, the report noted the "development of favorable sentiment for the enactment of health insurance laws," and declaring that the condition was similar to that caused by accidents in industry, asserted that "the organized labor movement of America ought to formulate a program upon this subject."

Dealing with the subject of education, the report classed the credit for vocational educational progress as due—in part to the activities of the Federation, and expressed opposition to tendencies to "overweight" the national vocational education board with new duties. It also advocated the extension of part-time school systems, which would finish the education of minors compelled to start early in gaining their livelihood.

Porto Rican labor troubles were given some attention, and the report, citing charges brought by Mr. Gompers against Governor Yager of the island because of the use of insular police in breaking a strike on sugar plantations asserted that the official action "had denied the right of free assembly and discussion," and said the governor had "followed an unwise trouble-provoking policy."

All Should be Citizens. The report announced also that the executive council, in accordance with the instructions of the last convention, had adopted a resolution recommending to affiliated unions that individuals be admitted to union membership unless they were citizens of the United States.

Reviewing the enactment of national legislation during the year, the report among other things said that President Gompers and members of the executive board had carried out the federation's policies by opposing proposals to import Chinese labor into the United States and its territories, and cited support gives to wage increase for government employees, and to woman's suffrage.

"The American labor movement faces the difficult problems of the future with an organization numerically stronger and more effectively united than ever before," the council's statement concluded. "During the past month the trades union movement has earned for itself a recognition and a value more adequate than ever previously achieved. It had stood the most difficult tests, and demonstrated that it is an indispensable part of organization for production, and therefore an integral part of the organization of society."

IMPORTANT MEETING.

The Federated Trades Assembly will hold a very important meeting tonight (Friday) at 8 o'clock. With the convention of the American Federation of Labor being held at St. Paul this week, and the consequent proximity of many prominent labor officials, an invitation has been extended by the local assembly to have some one appear in Duluth. Although it is not definitely known who it will be, local labor men are assured that the meeting Friday night will be addressed by a nationally-known laborite. All delegates are urged to attend and the meeting will be open to trades unionists.

Candidate for State Senator
For the 57th Legislative District.

Voters of the Fifty-seventh District: Four years ago you honored me by electing me to the State Senate, where I served you in the legislative sessions of 1915 and to the best of my ability. Whether you approve my record as senator is for you to say. That you may know what I did as your senator, I call attention to the fact that I voted for the County Option Law, Constitutional Prohibition Amendment, improvements in the Workmen's Compensation Law in the interests of the wage earner, Semi-monthly Pay Day Law, Anti-Roadhouse Law, and many other laws that make for the best interests of society. If elected for a second term I pledge my continued support of such measure, and will vote for the prompt ratification of the Federal Prohibition Amendment.

The supreme issue now before our people is how best to aid the national government in winning this war, and if elected to the senate I shall work and vote to pledge all the resources of Minnesota to the support of our government. Hardly less important is absolute loyalty in all state matters. In the legislature and out of it I have always worked and voted for the best interests of Duluth and Northern Minnesota and yield to no man in loyalty to my City and State. I am emphatically opposed to any and all discrimination against Duluth by railway, steel manufacturing or any other interests, and favor all reasonable means to prevent any such injustice.

I favor and shall support progressive, forward-looking laws in the interests of the masses of the people and ask you to examine my record in the last two sessions of the legislature to learn whether I have kept that pledge. I have NOT been endorsed by the so-called "SQUARE DEAL COMMITTEE." None of the four candidates for the senate from the Fifty-seventh District was given a chance to appear before that committee, except the one who is an active member thereof. Naturally he was induced by some of his fellow members. I prefer to go to the voters themselves for my endorsement and I shall be gratified to have it at the primaries on June 17th.

BERGER AGAIN HEADS MUSICIANS

L. F. Berger was chosen president of the local Musicians' union at the annual election held at its last meeting. Mr. Berger has been head of the musicians for several terms and is well known in trade union circles.

Other officers elected are: Vice president, F. E. Kretschmar; recording secretary, W. J. Dutcher; treasurer, C. A. Gregory; delegates to Federated Trades Assembly, A. N. Davis, Berger and Dutcher.

Mr. Dutcher and Mr. Kretschmar were chosen delegates to the convention of the State Federation of Labor at Virginia.

Reports were received from the delegates to the national convention of the American Federation of Musicians which was held last month at Chicago.

David J. Erickson
CANDIDATE FOR RENOMINATION AS REPRESENTATIVE
IN THE STATE LEGISLATURE
From The 59th DISTRICT

As such candidate, I submit to the voters of this district my record as representative in the last legislature. If you think I have given you a "Square Deal," I shall appreciate your support.

I deny the right of any non-resident committee to pick a ticket for the voters of this district. The Primary is by law established to do that. If elected it will be my aim as in the past to work and vote for the best interests of this district and city, and of the State as a whole, and further to loyally support the government in all war activities.
