

The Time to Act Is Here

The common people must have their own newspapers, their own halls, their own schools.

The road to Freedom lies through the freedom of public discussion. If we are to be intelligent and well informed, on great public questions, we need wide-awake, courageous and independent newspapers.

Without a free press there can be no Democracy. The tyranny to which the believers and advocates of political and economic Democracy are now being subjected, makes necessary the step that we are now taking. There is no time to be lost. The forces of reaction are here and, as usual, are moving with stealth and precision to kill what liberty of expression and opinion that still remains in our country. Now is the time to act. Tomorrow may be too late.

The future of the nation and its institutions lies in co-operation—not competition, constructive propaganda, daily education by an independent press that cannot be intimidated or coerced. We must have a press for the task of supplying literature and truthful news each day, not only to the people of the city, but to the common people of the entire State of Minnesota, we must release thought. We must promote discussion and make the truth known to the toilers of the city and country—then the problem of readjustment and reconstruction, the promotion of justice and square dealing will be easy to accomplish.

There is just one way to bring this about.

"AN AMERICAN ACE," VAUDEVILLE'S BIGGEST ACT, AT ORPHEUM NEXT WEEK

The most sensational and stupendous act in vaudeville will headline the show at the Orpheum next week, starting Sunday afternoon—"An American Ace," the big patriotic melodrama adapted for vaudeville. It is in 11 big, thrilling scenes, featuring the famous actor, Taylor Granville, and the celebrated actress, Laura Pierpont, who are supported by a company of 30. The scenes are the most remarkable ever offered on the vaudeville stage, and "An American Ace" is sure to create the big sensation in Duluth that it has in every city where shown on the Orpheum circuit. The other acts will be Deiro, the celebrated accordionist, and to hear Deiro is to have heard about the best player of that pleasing instrument; Herschel Henlere is a pianist that creates a very big amount of favorable comment. He presents "Pianoflage";

Harry Jolson, a brother of the famous Al, is a black face operatic comedian of utmost merit; his voice is of operatic caliber and he is entitled to fame other than being Al Jolson's brother; Nora Kelly, the Dublin girl, will give a program of her selected offerings in her original manner and pleasing voice, being assisted by Nat Goldstein at the piano; the Aerial Shaws are sensational aerialists. The Kinograms will show new and timely screen news of the world, and the Orpheum Travel Weekly will take the audience to strange places of the world to the tuneful tune of the Orpheum Concert Orchestra program.

A tip to all lovers of big amusements—don't miss the sensational act, "An American Ace," because after its initial appearance the house no doubt will be unable to hold all the people that want to be thrilled by this thriller.

Two shows daily—every afternoon and every night.

MURNIAN WARMLY GREETED BY TWIN CITY UNION LABOR MEN

State Federation of Labor Executive Council Holds Quarterly Session—T. J. McGrath Elected Labor Attorney—President Hall Chosen Delegate to Atlantic City.

Commissioner of Safety, W. F. Murnian, who is a vice president of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor, was given a fine ovation at the meeting of the executive council held in Minneapolis last Sunday. He was warmly congratulated by his fellow members and other Twin City union men.

In a neat speech Mr. Murnian said that he had no intention of entering politics, but had yielded to the persuasion of organized labor in Duluth and was highly gratified that he had won in the election. He said that he meant to do the best he could for the general welfare of the community which had honored him by electing him to a very responsible office, for which he thanked all who had supported him. He said finally that the success or failure of the labor-political move in Duluth would depend on the manner in which the people who elected him would stand by him; that if the adherents of organized labor proved to be reasonable and not expect too much all would be well.

Well Attended Meeting.
All members of the council were present excepting Vice President J. W. Greene of Hibbing, representing the iron range district. President Hall reported that organization had progressed during the quarter and that special organizers were engaged for the mining district, while he was occupied at legislative work.

Hall reviewed in detail the efforts made to secure the passage of laws for labor. More bills had been passed at this session in favor of labor, he declared, than at any previous session in years.

The vice presidents in all of the districts reported that the movement was in a healthy condition and many new unions were being formed. Secretary-treasurer George W. Lawson reported on the financial condition of the Federation, stating that the receipts for the quarter were $1,900.88 and the expenses were $1,957.05, leaving a balance in the treasury of $703.76. Since the last council meeting 23 unions with a membership of 2,417 had affillated, making a total of 76 new unions since the Virginia convention.

Lawson's Good Recommendation.

Secretary Lawson made two recommendations in his report. One was that the New Ulm convention be urged to provide that a bill providing for state administration of the workmen's compensation law shall be the only bill fathered by the State Federation of Labor at the next session of the legislature, and the other was that the convention be asked to conduct an active and aggressive campaign among the workers, the business communities and all the people generally in behalf of this bill as the basis of the record of the interest marking in organized labor and the working people at large by members of the two houses of the legislature, the purpose of the campaign being to remove misunderstanding as to the intent of the proposed law and show up the benefits its embodies for both employers and employees.

Thos. J. McGrath of St. Paul, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and a member of the legislature, was elected attorney for the Federation. Mr. McGrath will open a labor legal bureau. President E. G. Hall was elected delegate to the Atlantic City convention of the A. F. of L., to be held in June.

The next meeting of the council will be held in New Ulm on the Sunday preceding the state convention to be held there opening Monday, July 21, 1919.

SOME THINGS ONE SHOULD KNOW ABOUT VEGETABLES

Onions are rich in sulphur, one of the valuable minerals needed in the body. Two to three grains are needed each day for body activities. Onions dissolve uric acid and absorb poisons. They are a tonic for nervous troubles. They induce sleep. Nervous prostration is helped by a diet of onions. Insomnia is cured by a two-mile walk and a supper of baked onions and bread and butter.

Onion syrup may be made by cooking in the oven a plateful of sliced onions sprinkled generously with sugar. This will cure the worst cough also good for croup.

A chopped onion poultice is a most effective remedy for bronchial or lung trouble. Renew when dry.

Carrots are rich in iron, increase the red blood cells, are a good spring tonic, clear the complexion, are rich in phosphoric acid. The tender leaves are rich in this same mineral; they should be eaten as salad. Carrots are good for nervous people and those suffering from asthma.

Lettuce is good for nervousness; will induce sleep.

Celery also is good for nervousness, serviceable in counteracting conditions which lead to neuralgia and rheumatism.

Tomatoes are a fine liver stimulant. The acid when fresh is especially cooling to the blood.

Beans, spinach, raw cabbage and asparagus are all rich in iron and phosphorus, which are good for anemic people.

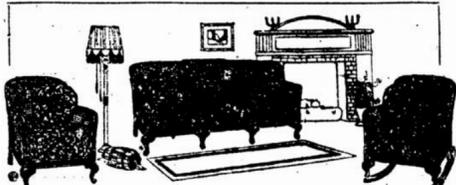

Spinach and dandelion are rich in iron and act directly upon the kidneys. Asparagus is another kidney stimulant.

Water cress, found in many brooks in quantities, is rich in tonic properties and should be used freely in the spring. Serve with a dash of salt or with simple French dressings.

Fruits of various kinds are also rich in mineral salts and acids; good for the system. Lemons are for liver trouble and rheumatism. An orange at night relieves constipation. A teaspoonful or two given often to the baby between milk feedings will keep its digestive apparatus in good working order.
