OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, AUGUST 1, 1894.

RE TRIED GAMBLING.

But the Professionals Knocked Him Over and Stole His Cash.

"I have been bounced," was the statement made at the police station yesterday by Charles Christensen, a sheep herder from Wyoming. The police asked particulars in the case which the herder said were about as follows: Christensen, who is a resident of Salt Lake City, in company with another man, whose name could not be learned, but who also has been herding sheep in Wyoming, were on their way to Salt Lake, and on arriving at this place were much in need of clothing in order to appear well dressed at the capital. They decided to remain over one train and get a supply. They were too late, however, to catch the next train for Salt Lake, and after making their purchase were compelled to wait over until 1 o'clock in the morning. By this time they had fallen into the company of a "tin-horn" and were induced to go to a gambling den where Christensen, who had his companion's money for safe keeping, as well as considerable of his own, played the wheel, at which at first he was a winner. He played a few turns when "tin-horns" number two and three arrived and induced him to quit the wheel and try a game of poker. All was well for a time until Christensen decided to bet and went into his jeans for the necessary stuff. He drew out a burlap sack containing about $300, and in order to get a "V" which had gone to the bottom emptied the shining coin on to the card table. It was no sooner there than he was thrown back, four hands were scrambling on the table and he was knocked and kicked about the place until the house experts had succeeded in making their escape. When Christensen set up a howl about his lost money he was ordered out of the den, and immediately went to the police station, where he gave a very good description of the three men. Police officers were started out and in a few hours returned with two of them, H. G. Sergeant and Frank E. Roe, but they had none of the money. Red Phillips, the main man of the gang, is supposed to have the cash, and has not been taken in tow. It is thought he is making rapid progress out of the territory.

Notes.

Ex-Councilman Shinn, who resigned his position in the city council last Monday night, left for Alaska today, where he will engage in the mining business.

License to wed has been issued to Wm. Puckett, aged 23 and Margaret Robinson, aged 19, both of this city.

Battery B of the National guard of Utah was out drilling last evening for the first time in the new uniforms. The boys look well in their suits of blue and are getting along splendidly.

A great number of citizens of Ogden are celebrating Statehood day at Echo with the Ogden band. A big railroad week out as it should this morning.

William King, charged with attempt at train wrecking, was brought to Ogden this morning to plead. King's father died last Monday, and he will be allowed to attend the funeral services this afternoon, but will be kept under guard.

There were on the first train from here for Saltair today about six hundred pleasure seekers; and the train for Echo carried about four hundred lovers of the mountain and canyon, to celebrate Statehood day.

RELICS OF THE BLACK PRINCE.

HIS SHIELD, HELMET AND SURCOAT REMINTED IN LONDON.

The most attractive relics at the exhibition of British heraldry which was recently held were the shield, helmet and surcoat of the Black Prince. It is probable that these have never been seen to such advantage, and it is believed that the dean and chapter of Canterbury only allowed them to come to London on condition that the experts of the society would minister them and advise the chapter as to the best means of preserving them.

It is perhaps more remarkable that the more perishable parts should exist at all, after their exposure over the tomb for 600 years, than that the surcoat, for example, should be in a rather dilapidated state. The shield with its lilies and lions is only bruised in its fair condition, so is also the tilting helm, with its cap of maintenance surmounted by the somewhat unhealthy crest. These are believed to be not mere funeral adjuncts to the tomb, but the actual accoutrements of the Black Prince himself, and so will possess an unequaled interest for English people. —Chicago Herald.

PROVO, UTAH, AUG. 1, 1894.

Birthday Party a la Hawaii.

The fortieth anniversary of the birth of James F. Gates was celebrated on Monday evening a la Hawaii, where the gentleman formerly labored as a missionary. Seventy-five guests were present, among them a number of retired Hawaiian missionaries and their wives. From Salt Lake City came the following guests: Joseph Dean, Dr. Babcock and Miss Babcock, Miss Donette Smith and two younger sisters, and Miss May Taylor. Mats were spread on the lawn, and poi, fish, taro, taamoa, and other Kanaka dishes were served in Hawaiian style. After the repast came music, instrumental and vocal, recitations, speeches, etc. Several vocal musical selections were in the Hawaiian language.

Temporarily Restrained.

A temporary restraining order was issued by Judge Smith in the case of LeGrand Young vs. A. A. Noon et al, restraining the defendants from laying up a portion of the Provo Railway track. The case comes up for final hearing on August 10th. The track to be torn up, if it does come up, will be used in building the Mercur railway which is to run between Fairfield and the Mercur mining district.

SUNOL!

ROBERT BONNER

Superintending the shoeing of Sunol with the Putnam Nail.

PUTNAM NAIL CO., Neponset, Mass.

GENTLEMEN:—Replying to your favor of the 11th inst., will state that I have used the Putnam Nail and others. Such has come to the point with me now where I will not allow any other nail to be used than the Putnam Hot-Forged Nail if I can prevent it. While there may be others as good, I know what there are and cannot afford to take experiments.

Very respectfully yours,

Chas. Marvin

The Putnam Nail is the only exclusively Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed nail.

Look in your smith's shoeing box, if the nails have smooth edges for the whole length they are the PUTNAM, for they are Hammer-Pointed and are not sheared.

The above picture, from a photo supplied by Mr. Bonner to the use of leading horseshoe Putnam Nail, which exemplifies the shoeing of Sunol, will be sent to the firm of a nail box, size 5x7, on thick, white paper, with wide margin, on receipt of a cent stamp for postage, etc.

WHY

WE ARE often asked, should we pay $125 for a Stearns Bicycle when there are so many other makes of wheels on the market that we can get cheaper? Well, ask the man who has tried the cheap wheel once. He try it twice. When you buy a Stearns that settles it. No monthly repair bill, bearings true, runs perfect, wheel always ready for use. Can afford to pay $125, you say? Why can't afford to do anything else. A Stearns Bicycle don't eat, costs you nothing for board and lodging, no repair bill, and never wears out. You in the street cars every day, spend $4 to $5 a month in street car fare, and have nothing at the end of the year to show for it.

DON'T

YOU

A good business man sees the force of this argument at once. Don't you? The Stearns is a four-time

WINNER?

On the road and track you always find the Stearns boys and the pink colors at the front.
