City Official Dismissed for Misconduct in Office.

FATAL FIGHT AMONG INDIANS.

Colored Editor Convicted of Libel—Killed by a Gasoline Engine—Cheap Sale of Horses.

By the explosion of a gasoline engine in a Cotrel Hollow coal mine, above Livermore, Col., Wednesday a man named Jean Rosie lost his life.

Friday morning, November 22nd, the first issue of Rabbi Jacob Voorsanger's weekly paper called Aim'ar Kol Ha'am, Emanu-El, made its appearance in San Francisco. The new paper is expected to make considerable stir in circles not exclusively Jewish.

The work of sredging the match bed around Snohomish, Wash., will soon be completed. Three leads were struck on early this year by a company of gentlemen from Minneapolis and Hillsdale. They put in three weeks and were exceedingly successful. Another company is expected down from the old country in the near future.

The Los Angeles, Cal., Times says: When a good mare, at a horse sale in San Bernardino last week, was sold for $5, it was thought the bottom price for stock had been reached. A new depth was established in Ventura county, however, a few days ago, at an administrator's sale, when a horse was knocked down to a Mexican boy for 50 cents. He had no high license to exceed the dollar which went with the animal.

Editor J. R. Wilson, of the San Francisco Elevator, an organ of the colored people of the coast, was found guilty of misdemeanor libel in the Oakland police court. The charge was brought against Wilson by Thomas Pettett, the well-known colored orator, about whom Wilson had written disparagingly in the Elevator. The alleged libel stated, in speaking of Pettett, that "Windy Tom took money from the funds of the House of Ages Colored People to go on a pleasure trip."

Wednesday night an elderly man named A. P. Outland was arrested at Stockton, Cal., on suspicion of petty larceny. He was seen by a policeman who was carrying a sack containing harness, and the officer lodged him in jail. Next morning his lifeless body was found hanging in his cell. He had suspended himself from the top of the iron window with a belt which he wore. The man had been arrested before, and about three years ago he served a term of 190 days in the county jail on a larceny charge.

At 1 o'clock Wednesday morning the Tacoma, Washington, city council, by a vote of 15 to 1, found M. M. Taylor, president of the board of public works, guilty of misconduct in office and passed a resolution dismissing him from office. The impeachment trial lasted fifteen hours, with short intermission for luncheon and dinner. The judges were polled at a week ago Saturday by Counsellman Norton, who alleged that the Columbia National bank paid $800 to Taylor and put his wife on the payroll five months at $65 per month in payment for Taylor's influence. Taylor's defense was that he was simply paid for services rendered in behalf of the county treasurer, and that the city was not interested. As the city had $104,000 in the bank when it failed, the council thought it otherwise. It was clearly proved that Taylor received $500 from the bank to use his influence to get commissioners to refrain from taking the county deposit of $90,000 out of the bank, which asked for thirty days' time.

One dead Indian and another dying with slashes all around his heart and knife thrusts in his neck and abdomen, is the result of a little drinking bout between Indians near Dolores, Cal., Saturday night. The Indians had been at work cutting brush for F. Nenzie, a mile and a half north of Dolores, and to celebrate the close of the week's labors secured a keg of wine and drank all they could hold. Then the squaws withdrew and the bucks began to fight. The Indian that was killed outright was hidden or buried in secrecy, and when an officer went to the camp to investigate the trouble he was unable to find any trace of the corpse. Not one of the Indians would admit that he knew anything about the fight. Jose Lucero, the wounded Indian, was found in one of the little shacks, but he said he did not know who cut him or what the fight was about. He could not give the name of any Indian engaged in the melee, and he himself was dying at last accounts. It is probable the participants will never be called upon to answer for their crime.

The burden of labor is constantly being lightened by new inventions, but nothing new has yet been discovered to relighten the hours of labor, and make life worth living like Simmons Liver Regulator does. It's the King of Liver Medicines. A sluggish liver depresses one's spirits and causes languor, besides upsetting the whole system. But Simmons Liver Regulator tones up and strengthens the body. 1

Must Use The Knife

Said the Surgeon, but Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was taken and the knife avoided.

The Union and Advertiser of Rochester, N. Y., recently published the following interesting account of how William W. Adams of 127 South Avenue that city was saved from a painful operation by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.

Mr. Adams said: "Three years ago I was taken with kidney disease very badly; at time I was completely prostrated; in fact, was so bad that the day was set for the doctors to perform an operation upon me. But I decided I would not submit. I had been put in hot water baths, and, in fact, nearly every means was tried to help me. Upon the day set for the operation I commenced the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and from that moment began to gain, and it was not long before I was entirely cured and have had no return of the trouble since. My weight has increased and I never was so well as I am now. I have recommended

FAVORITE REMEDY

To a pile of people, and it's worth its weight in gold, for it saved my life. Why, my wife thinks it is the best medicine made for women."

In speaking to Mrs. Adams, she said: "About a year ago I was in a very feeble state of health, being completely run down. I had doctored considerably, but without permanent relief. One day one of my neighbors advised me to take Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which I did. My trouble was dyspepsia, and for a long while I was unable to be about at all; but after taking a few doses I was completely cured, and now enjoy good health."

Hundreds of men and women with that "run down" condition written all over their faces, unable to work, have recovered health and strength through this remarkable remedy. It purifies the blood, stirs the liver and kidneys to a healthy action. In cases of constipation, kidney, liver and urinary troubles it is a well-known specific. It also cures troubles peculiar to females, and in diabetes, Bright's disease and scrofula it has cured where all else failed.

Troubled With Periodical Dyspepsia.

Henry P. Silvera, of Lucea, Jamaica, West India Islands, says: "Since my recovery from an attack of dysentery, some two years ago, it comes on suddenly at times and makes me very weak. A teaspoonful of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy taken in a little water gives me immediate relief. I could get a dozen testimonials from people here who have been cured by this remedy."

Horses Kick

in self-defense. It is their more vigorous form of protest against the abuse of Rattlesnake Putnam nails. Blacksmiths who use other nails do so at the risk of the danger that is liable to follow.

This is what happens: One part comes up, where it should be clinching, the other goes into the tender foot. Such nails are the result of the Cold-Rolled and by which the fibres of metal are separated and are often as brittle apart with the finger-nail. This kind of a nail can be easily distinguished by the rough edge along the stem near the point.

Putnam Nails

are exclusively Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed, produced on the old-fashioned hand-forge nail. This process develops all parts of the metal closely together into a compact, firm nail that clinches right, Silver or Brass and is Absolutely Safe.

Examine the nails in your stock; if they are not of this origin and accordingly the old reliable Putnam, if they have shoulder of the shank and the point, smooth blade, with no cracks and no dangerous.

Mailed free, sample plated, mailed on receipt of 10c. cents, in stamps or coin.
