THE SUPREME COURT.

A. Amy, deceased; Jennie Amy appellant, vs. Royal D. Amy et al, appellants, and Adelia Young et al, respondents. This case involved the distribution of certain valuable property in this city, when upon the death of Oscar A. Amy, Jennie Amy and Adelia Young et al prayed for its distribution in the Probate court. The former claimed the estate as the widow of deceased and the latter as maternal relatives, they claiming to be the sole heirs and averring that Jennie Amy was not the widow of the deceased, claiming that she had never had a lawful divorce from Elliott Butler Worth, a former husband. The Probate court distributed all of the estate to Adelia Young et al and an appeal was had therefrom to the district court, and the judgment of the probate court affirmed. Then the case was appealed to the Supreme court, which reversed the judgment of the lower courts, and remanded the cause with directions to enter a decree in favor of the appellant Jennie Amy, awarding her the entire estate of the decedent. Judge King delivered the opinion. Judge Bartch concurred.

LOWER COURT REVERSED.

Walker, Smith and company vs F. J. McLaughlin and O. C. Lockhart and Symons Utah Grocer Co. vs F. J. McLaughlin and O. C. Lockhart. In the cases each of the above named plaintiffs obtained judgment against the defendants on the 1st day of September, 1893, and instituted proceedings supplemental to execution against the defendants and H. V. Riddle, D. C. McLaughlin and E. C. Williamson, and the court ordered them to appear before a referee to answer concerning property, monies, rights and credits of said defendants F. J. McLaughlin and O. C. Lockhart. The referee made separate findings and declared that the transfers made by the co-partners and by the corporation were fraudulent and void, including the sale of the merchandise to the receiver of the bank, and also declared that said merchandise was subject to the claims of plaintiff, and ordered that it should be used to discharge their judgments, and orders issued commanding the treasurer of the corporation to pay into court $2,000, and requiring Williamson to endorse and assign stock at a sufficient assessment to the U. S. marshal, to be sold by him. These orders were adopted and approved by the court but judgment was afterwards set aside. In rendering the opinion Judge King ordered a reversal of the judgments, stating that he thought the court erred in entering the judgments appealed from. Bartch concurred.

WAS RIGHT IN THIS CASE.

D. P. Tarpey vs John Sharp et al, ejectment; Judge King affirmed the judgment of the lower court, Merritt and Bartch concurring.

REPORT WAS CORRECT.

United States of America vs Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints; Lorenzo M. Bailey, the examiner to whom was referred the report of Colonel John R. Winder, receiver, reported that he had examined the report and found it correct.

THE CASE REVERSED.

People vs William Glassmann and Standard Publishing Co.; judgment of reversal, but a dissension by King in two questions considered by the other judges.

VICTORY FOR HAMER.

In the case of Ogden City vs Daniel Hamer, the judgment of the lower court was reversed, which gives Hamer a complete victory and a vindication for which he has long looked.

GRANTS VS R. G. W. RY.

Joseph Krantz vs Rio Grande Western Railway Co.; new trial refused. Permission asked to take an appeal to the United States Supreme Court, and taken under advisement by the court.

ADMITTED TO THE BAR.

Allen T. Sanford and Bert H. Varian having passed successful examinations as to their qualifications to be admitted to practice, Judge Hawes moved their admission, which was accordingly ordered.

At 12:30 the court took a recess until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Funeral of Mrs. Mackintosh.

STOCKS AND MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 21.—The market opened very heavy and quickly. Serious losses from yesterday's opening prices were shown in the first sales. In the leading shares declines were made the first quarter of an hour as follows:

New Haven, 4½; Burlington, 1½; St. Paul, 2½; Northwestern, 2½; New York Central, 2½; Missouri Pacific, 1½; Chicago gas, 1½; distilling, 1½; sugar, 1½; Lake Shore, 1½; lead, preferred, 1; lead, common, 1; C., C., C., 1½; Kansas and Texas, preferred, 1½.

At 10:30 the market had rallied sharply and the advances from the lowest point made since the opening extended to 1 per cent, the latter in Sugars. The improvement was largely due to some impudent covering that the Rothschilds are credited to whatever Eng. and Jew from America commissioned, and that other London bankers were about to take a hand looking in the withdrawal of gold from the financial center.

Sugar Market.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Raw—Market was offered lower with sales of refined at 4½c, money was offered at 4½ per cent.

THE "BROADWAY" SALOON.

Opening Today From 12 m. Till 12 Midnight—Free Samples and a Free Lunch.

Today the Broadway saloon at 119-121 Main S., will have a grand opening at their elegant new resort, from 12 m. to 12 midnight, and it is said that it will be a pleasure to just to satisfy. General James Hilton, formerly of the Continental fame, is the general manager, and Geo. Rio-ro and Andrew Urquhart, gentlemen all thoroughly acquainted with the liquor business, will have charge of affairs. The Broadway is undoubtedly one of the very finest resorts in this Western country, and is fitted up entirely new in the latest approved style, and the fixtures, furniture, etc., are all home productions, having been entirely made by Utah workmen. The entrance is fine, if not prettily fitted up with liquor and cigar case, and everything kept in this department, as well as at the bar, will be the choicest that money can buy.

The bar is a handsome work of art and reflects great credit upon Utah artists. Back of the bar counter is solid with mirrors, with the exception of a huge carved barrel-head six feet in diameter in the center, from which all the beer is drawn. The carving was done by Earl Cummings, son of M. E. Cummings, and reflects great credit upon one of Utah's favorite sons. The design is a double hop vine surrounding a sheaf of barley and a grain-ripe seed of Hardtke, and every detail is carried out to a perfection rarely found in more pretentious salons.

The cost is enormous, being 26-147 ft., and all of the appointments are in the very highest class. Everybody cordially invited to call and sample good kept and partake of a complimentary free lunch.
