The officers, with the exception of Mr. Fuller, are now holding the offices to which they have been reappointed. The nominations were laid on the table to be acted upon at the next meeting of the council. The council consists of four Republicans and six Democrats.

Provo is now without electric lights on the streets, Mayor Holbrook's year of lighting the city lies having expired. It is expected that the new council will make some provisions for continuing the lights.

LOGAN.

LOGAN, UTAH - - JAN. 8, 1896.

Statehood Day.

Committees from the Chamber of Commerce and City Council undertook the appropriate celebration of Statehood Day, commencing their labors on Sunday evening, after it had been found that no steps had been taken for a fitting observance of the day. The Relief Society and the pastors of the various churches rendered willing assistance, and the celebration, although undertaken at the eleventh hour, was very successful. Cannons boomed incessantly on the College hill, steam whistles were blown and the fire and other bells combined to let people know that it was a red letter day in the history of Utah. At 12 o'clock the tabernacle was well filled. The stand was draped with the national colors and emblem and the decorations were profuse and beautiful. The tabernacle choir was present and sang the nation's patriotic hymns and songs of freedom. The meeting was called to order by President Kimball, of the chamber of commerce, who introduced Mayor Kinghall as chairman. Mr. James A. Leishman, the chaplain of the occasion, invoked in fitting terms the blessings of God on the new State. Hon. W. W. Maughan read the proclamation, which was greeted with prolonged applause, after which the Logan band played a stirring medley of national airs. Hon. Orson Smith, Rev. N. E. Clemensen, Apostle Moses Thatcher, Rev. N. Bascom and Professors J. H. Paul and W. J. Kerr spoke in the order named, the speeches being interspersed with appropriate selections by the choir and band. The speeches were of a patriotic order and treated fearly to the great nation of which we now form a part in very good deed. Fast efforts to obtain the been of statehood were detailed, and the gifts was appreciated was evident from the tone of the speakers and the applause their utterances evoked. The day was made a general holiday, the postoffice, banks, saloons and stores being closed. All public buildings, nearly all houses of business and many private residences were surmounted by "Old Glory" and decorated with a profusion of bunting. In the afternoon nearly every citizen who owned horses and sleighs had them out, the bridles and other parts of the harness being covered with small flags. In the evening the brilliant illumination of residences was in order, and a grand Inaugural ball was given in the Palace rink. Logan did her share in the celebration of the advent of Statehood.

The Farnes Failure.

Of the creditors of M. H. Farnes, the Logan Monumental and Hardware dealer, the following are on the preferred list for the amounts set opposite the respective names:

First National Bank of Logan	[illegible]
Great Western Cycle Co.	[illegible]
Salt Lake Hardware Co.	[illegible]
Moss, Provost & Cutler	[illegible]
Sangi Norman (Paladino)	[illegible]

The entire liabilities are estimated at $4,000. Mr. Farnes has assigned his business property on Main street, twenty feet in width, valued at $150 per foot, twenty-seven acres of hay land, two city lots, a number of shares of the Deseret Gold Mining Co., stock and of the Bonanza Mining Co., stock and a horse, buggy, cart, harness, $1,100 in book accounts, $365.70 in notes, and merchandise to the value of $942. The total assets, based on a conservative estimate, are rated as being worth $6,000. The assignee is a prudent business man, and expects to at least be able to pay all creditors in full.

Notes.

While in Salt Lake recently President Kimball, of the chamber of commerce, and President Mills, of the Agricultural society, interviewed the officers of the U. P. coal and freight departments, with a view to securing a reduction of 50 cents per ton on coal at this point. They fully expect the reduction to be announced shortly.

On Sunday Robert Kewley was speeding a horse on Second street, when another horse came suddenly herded his cutter directly in front of Mr. Kewley's. There was a collision, after which Kewley's vehicle resembled "the wonderful one hoss shay." No one hurt.

The granary of John E. Godfrey, of Clarkston, was broken into on Wednesday and 80 bushels of grain stolen. Mr. Godfrey offers a reward of $25, about double the value of the grain, for the arrest of the thief.

The ladies of Logan contemplate holding a meeting shortly to express their appreciation of the gift of suffrage.

A fine boy has been added to the family of Mr. Chas. England, of the Logan Journal.

Horses Kick

in self-defense. It is their most vigorous form of protest against the abuse of Split Nails that are so generally thrust into their shoes. Horseshoe often use smith nails in ignorance of the danger that is liable to follow.

This is what happens: One part comes up inside it should be clinching, the other goes into the tender foot. Split nails are the result of the Cold-Rolled and by which the fibres of metal are separated and can often be pried apart with the finger-nail. The end of a nail can be easily distinguished by the rough edge along the side near the point.

Shearing Process

Putnam Nails

are exclusively Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed, precisely like the old-fashioned hand-made nail. This process holds all portions of iron closely together like a compact, fine nail that cannot Split, Sliver or Break and is
