OBITUARY.

MARY ANN MELLOR.

FAYETTE, Sanpete Co., Utah, Jan. 19, 1896.—Mary Ann Mellor died Sept. 10, 1895, at Fayette, Sanpete county, after an illness of nine months. She was born in Warwick, Warwickshire, England, in 1816, and moved with her parents when a young child to Leicester, Leicestershire. She was the mother of twelve children. She first heard the Gospel in Bradford, Yorkshire, where she, with her husband and children, had moved to receive work. In 1841 her husband had heard of the Latter-day Saints and going to hear who they pretended to be came home and told their belief and read the Bible to her as the angel flying through the heavens, and of the speaking in tongues, of healing and miracles, so she determined to go and hear them for herself. In 1842
