COUNTY COURT AFFAIRS.

Officers Report on the Number of Deputies Employed.

Statements as to Compensation in the Past and Recommendations as to the Future.

The county commissioners have received reports from the various county officials as to the number of deputies employed by each and the amount of salaries paid to them. These reports are the result of a demand made by the county court at a recent meeting. County Clerk Stanton has this to say concerning the force employed in his department:

In the county clerk's office A. C. Bloom, chief deputy and bookkeeper, salary $175 per month; Alida Hoefal, chief deputy, $60 per month; Lena Adams, stenographer, $60 per month; Georgia McMillanus, clerk, $45 per month.

In the office of the clerk of the district court six people are employed as follows:

George D. Lomax, chief deputy and bookkeeper, $175 per month; Jos. H. Sprague, deputy, $100 per month; M. V. Lisk, deputy, $60 per month; Natalie Liggett, stenographer, $50 per month; Mae E. Ambrosen and Mae Patterson, clerks, $40 per month each.

"The salaries as stated above were fixed by myself," says Mr. Stanton, "and have been paid to the deputies on the last day of each month and I regard them as eminently just and reasonable. Concerning the salaries of $175 a month to Mr. Bloom and Mr. Lomax, I desire to say that it embraces two men, one of whom for which I have fixed their salaries at $1,800 each, and that of bookkeepers for the county and district courts respectively, which I have fixed at $600 a year each, thus making the aggregate $175 per month. I desire further to say that this additional work of bookkeeping is done by these officers outside office hours and to absorb a extra time and labor."

MCCLANDON'S HELP.

Recorder Clemonson says: "The present number of clerks is owing to the office requires, besides myself, two men, one of whom is the chief deputy, two assistant deputies and three copyists and proof readers. As the amount of work varies, it is sometimes necessary to have extra assistance as a copyist, therefore it is impossible for me to give the exact amount of work to be done in the office, but at present it seems the time fully constitutes engaged all the time from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

"I submit herewith a statement of the compensation which I deem just and fair for the salaries in my department, and respectfully ask your honorable body to appropriate for them the following amounts:

H. H. McKinlay, chief deputy, January 4 to May 1, at $111.11 per month, $444.44; H. M. Mack, assistant deputy, $444.44; W. G. Newhart, assistant deputy, January 4 to April 11, 1896 inclusive, at $111.11 per month, $359.16; S. Seth Stone, clerk, January 4 to May 1, at $100 per month, $400; Alice Cummins, copyist, $75 per month, $300; Florence Romney, copyist, $60; Alice Eisel, copyist, April 23 to May 1, at $75 per month, $60; total, $2,279.60.

"I would also request that beginning May 1, the compensation of my force be fixed as follows:

H. H. McKinlay, chief deputy, $111.11; H. M. Mack, assistant deputy, $111.11; S. Seth Stone, assistant deputy, $100; Alice Cummins, copyist, $75; Florence Romney, copyist, $75; Alice Eisel, copyist, $75; total, $514.22.

"I would call your attention to the fact that W. G. Newhart quit my service on April 11, 1896, and that I have appointed Mr. Seth Stone to succeed his distant deputy, and it requires extra expense to properly conduct the business of this office.

SHERIFF HARDY'S FORCE.

Sheriff Hardy reported the following named persons engaged in the office at the following salaries per month:

E. S. Cline, chief deputy and bookkeeper	$175
John G. Montgomery, deputy	100
A. S. Stone, deputy	100
C. F. Tyrrell, deputy	100
George W. Glass, deputy	100
Ralph Gaddis, deputy	100
J. V. Wilson, court bailiff	75
J. H. Miller, court bailiff	75
W. F. Jones, court bailiff	75
W. H. Dwyer, court bailiff	75
W. T. Smith, fee jailer	100
J. H. Jensen, night jailer	75
Dora H. Parrish, stenographer	75
	$1,200

"The duties of the above named per sons are:

"Chief deputy, to take charge of the office of fees and keep the records, books of account, attend to the sale of real estate under sheriff's sale receive fees and moneys and disburse the same, have a general supervision over all work in the office, direct the deputies and in my absence to take full charge of the office.

"The duties of the other deputies are to serve all process, both criminal and civil, including the arrest of criminals and conveying prisoners to and from courts and jail. They are subject to call at all times both day and night.

"The duties of the court bailiffs are to attend the separate divisions of the courts, assist in guarding prisoners while in court, take charge of juries, etc., and at times when the deputies are out of work to assist in the process."

The duties of the jailer and stenographer are then given, and Sheriff Hardy closes by saying that the amount set opposite their respective names is proper compensation.

JOSEPH EL MORRIS.

Surveyor Joseph reported: "The work to be performed in this office will be all official surveys and plats, authorized by courts or ordered by private individuals; the making of all assessment rolls for the county; all engineering work that may be ordered by the county commissioners and to give advice of an engineering nature in such work.

"This office will require a draughtsman who will be competent to perform field duties, and be versed with the duties of deputy, at a salary of $90.83 per month; two chainmen and one axe man, when required, at $1.75 per day, and one team when required at $3.50 per day."

WHAT RECORDER SAYS.

County Collector Spencer states that beginning June 1, when the tax roll is received, fees are used and the first of September notices are sent out the following will be required:

"One clerk, salary from June 1, 1896, to June 1, 1897, at an annual salary of $1,000.00; two clerks from June 1, to January 1, 1897, at $100 per month; one clerk from June 1, 1896, to June 1, 1897, at an annual salary of $780.

"For the appointment of these assistants for the duties which increase after July 1, I respectfully recommend that it be entered upon the work makes it necessary, as notice to the creditors made by the new law, I cannot at this time specify at just what time the additional help will be needed.

"I now invite your attention to the responsibility attending the collection of more than one million dollars this year, and I hope you will sustain the idea of conforming to the recommendation thereto made, which to my mind is absolutely necessary to procure the competent and reliable service required in the premises."

ASSESSOR LYNCH SAYS.

"I have paid to each since Jan. 1, the following amounts: R. D. Comey, assessor, January 1 to April 1, at $125 per month, $375; J. E. Lynch, assessor deputy, at $110 per month, $330; each man for delivering assessments, $90; total, $945.

"There now remains unpaid awaiting the action of your honorable body solution for the month of April due R. D. Comey and J. E. Lynch. I have not employed since about the first Monday in March of the present year, our outside deputies or field men, who have not received a cent of pay up to date and who look to you for remuneration.

"In regard to the expenses of the office for the first three months, represented by cash paid to Comey and Lynch, will say that it is only fair what it would be ordinarily, owing to the fact that we have our last year's fees books for blotters, thereby saving the county about $200 for stationery. I therefore ask that you remunerate me to the extent of $300 for rent, and recommend that you fix the compensation my deputies at $100 per month each, and make an allowance for the use of a horse and buggy in county precincts.

"If we are called upon to perform all the duties it is possible to call upon us by acts passed by the last legislature we will have to hire, at times, at least a sixth deputies, and I ask your honorable body to do nothing that will hinder me in the discharge of my duty as county assessor. In conclusion will say that I have paid out all they are subject to your inspection any time you may wish to see them."

MISCELLANEOUS.

W. C. Lowe, county treasurer, stated that he was unable at this time to say what his duties were or what assistance he would need in the future. Mr. J. J. Daly has been employed as his assistant at a salary of $100 per month, not under the new law the limit is placed at $1,000 per year.

Fish and Game Commissioner Heath submitted a communication stating that $700 would be a reasonable and just compensation for his services during the present year. For the compensation of a deputy commissioner he recommends that $2 per day be allowed during the closed season. The Eastern district Fishers expense for both the commissioner and his deputy.

Recorder Clemson reports having turned over to the treasurer $5,479.40 in fees collected in his office from January 4 to April 30.

FISH AND GAME PROTECTION.

Constitution of the Association Formed With That Object.

Herewith we publish the full text of the Constitution of Salt Lake County Fish and Game Protective association, which was organized some weeks ago in this city. It was formed for a worthy purpose, invites a display of patriotism and public spirit which will not cost much money, and ought to be sustained not only by sportsmen but by the citizens of the county generally. Membership fees will be used at Browning Brothers' gunstore, where all who desire to become identified with the organization may call, sign their names to the Constitution and deposit the membership fee. The document reads as follows:

Article 1.

NAME.

Section 1. This organization shall be known as the Salt Lake County Fish and Game Protective association.

Article 2.

OBJECTS AND PURPOSES.

Sec. 1. The objects and purposes of this association shall be to act as a voluntary auxiliary force to the State and County fish and game wardens in the prosecution of offenses against the statutes on this subject, and in the protection, preservation and propagation of fish and wild game; the enactment of more efficient laws for that purpose; the creating and fostering of a healthy public sentiment that will demand such protective legislation and its better enforcement; and the cultivation of more friendly relations among sportsmen and citizens who believe in the protection of wild game and the increase of our game fishes.

Article 3.

MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 1. Any person interested in the objects and the purposes of the association and willing to carry them into practical effect, and who shall be recommended by any member of the association, may become a member by paying a membership fee of fifty cents to the treasurer. Any member violating any of the objects or purposes of the association, as defined in article 2, may be expelled by a two-thirds vote of members present at the annual or at any special meeting called for that purpose. All any and all charges against a member of this association must be submitted in writing, and a copy of such charges furnished to the member against whom they are made, and he shall be entitled to submit within thirty days a written or verbal defense before action is taken.

Sec. 2. The annual dues shall be the same as the membership fee, and shall be payable at or before the annual meeting.

Article 4.

OFFICERS AND MEETING.

Sec. 1. The officers of this association shall be a president, a vice-president, a secretary and treasurer, an attorney, and an executive committee to be composed of [illegible] members of the association, of which committee the president and secretary shall be ex-officio members, all of which said officers and executive committee shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the association, and shall serve without pay, except the secretary. A vacancy in any of these offices shall be filled by the executive committee for the unexpired term.

Sec. 2. The annual meeting shall convene on the last Tuesday in September in each year.

Sec. 3. Special meetings may be called at such time and place as the executive committee may designate, on giving at least three days notice to the city papers of Salt Lake City. All minutes of any meetings, not less than ten members shall constitute a quorum to the business. The executive committee may be called at any time whenever a majority thereof so elect.

Article 5.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. The duties of these officers shall be the same duties as be performed by officers in organizations of similar kind, as recognized and defined by common parliamentary law and practice. The executive committee may arrange for special outside work in the interests of the association and make compensation for such work, such work previously to be agreed upon. The executive committee, together with the attorney, shall also constitute a legislative bill and good of the association. Any deputies it shall be to keep and instruct as to the laws and fig station pertaining to the protection of fish and game, and the enforcement of the same, and to report offenders such laws and punish violators thereof. In their assertion and report, so far as it may be able to do so, to be the agents of the law for the protection of fish and game, who suggestions as to the proper action to be taken by the association, and shall aid, as best it can, the detection and punishment of offenders and violators of game laws.

Sec. 2. They shall, as early as December prior to the assembling of the legislature in the State, prepare the laws affecting the association and its purposes, and if they find any modifications or changes necessary or advantageous, make a written report to the association recommending the proposed changes, and urging the members to assist in securing the necessary legislation to obtain the same.

Sec. 3. The treasurer shall make reports of all moneys by him received and expended, and shall pay out no money except on bill approved by the president. The books shall be made at the annual meeting and such other times as the association may call for them.

Article 6.

AMOUNTS.

Sec. 1. In addition to the funds otherwise received, if money shall be needed for the necessary purposes of this work, the executive committee is authorized to raise such funds as assessment upon the members, or otherwise, but no member shall be assessed or assessed for more than one dollar in any one year.

Article 7.

DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

Sec. 1. It shall be the duty of all members of this association to act vigilantly and enforce the laws of the State for the protection of fish and game, and to diligently seek for and give any information that will lead to the conviction and punishment of any person violating said laws. They shall also interest themselves in securing desirable membership from residents of the county. They shall also assist in securing the passage of necessary laws for the carrying out of the purposes of this association.

Article 8.

STATE COMMISSIONERS.

Sec. 1. The State and County wardens shall be, ex-officio, members of this association.

Article 9.

AMENDMENTS.

Sec. 1. All proposed alterations, amendments, or additions to the constitution must be submitted in writing at the annual meeting, or at any special meeting legally called for the purpose, and may then be adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, - - MAY 2, 1896.

A Receiver Asked For.

Suit has been filed in the second district court in which Z. C. M. I. is the plaintiff and the Equitable Co-op, First National bank, Ogden Savings bank and C. S. Ellis, assignee, are defendants. The action is brought to obtain judgment and decree declaring the judgments of the defendants against the Co-op, which arose through the recent assignment, fraudulent and void on the ground that the same were obtained by conspiracy, collusion and combination by the officers of the association with certain other officers of said banks. It is alleged that Thomas D. Roe, James Pingree and Reuben White are officers in the Co-op association and also stockholders and officers in both banking institutions, besides using stolen or a note given by the Co-op to the banks for the sum of $5,000. When the assignment took place, it was alleged by the secretary, Orin Price, that books to the amount of about $17,000, and that it is alleged they did so improperly to themselves, creating liability for the notes and outstanding the other creditors. The plaintiff says that no previous proceedings be entitled and a receiver be appointed.

Charges Not Sustained.

The commissioners' decision in the case of Fire Chief Bodrett was that the charges have not been sustained, although the evidence shows that at times the chief was inclined to be overbearing and discourteous in his conduct towards the men, and to the best interest and welfare of the department the chief should be reprimanded, for which purpose the order is suspended to appear before the board on the 1st of May, at 8 p. m.

Shocking Testimony.

At the preliminary examination of Michael Cohen and his son Max, which was held behind closed doors, testimony of a most shocking character was given showing that the 10-year old girl Lindley had been outraged and another mutilated.

Funeral Services.

At the Second ward meeting house funeral services were held yesterday over the remains of Daniel Alexander A. Douglas.

Tough Tramps.

Two tramps, who gave their names as Frank Howard and Daniel Hopkins, were brought over from Pleasant Grove yesterday on commitments from the justice's court to be placed in the county jail to await the action of the Fourth district court on a charge of a crime against nature. The commitments, however were found to be defective and new complaints were made out and the men taken before Justice De Motley, while they waived examination and were committed to jail in default of $1,000 bonds. The complaining witnesses are R. A. Holden and Frank Hawkins, both mill hands, each 12 years of age. The men are a disgusting pair. Fred Warren, who is a year or two older, stated on a charge only in the West, and had reached so far as Pleasant Grove last Thursday without any accident; then they met Reynolds and thought of the depot, and the crime so severely charged was committed. The boys complained to the Illinois and the others followed. The boys were brought over from Pleasant Grove by two officers who arrested the tramps, Mr. Ward to see Holden returned with the officers and will be sent home from Pleasant Grove. The issue of posting Howard down low and look Frank cause he says tale a lie north time Frank for the away home home with been some two companions, and he is not able to account for it in any way, as the boy is kindly treated at home, and is a good, obedient boy with the exception of taking these periodical trips away from home.

Insane Asylum.

Governor Wells and Treasurer Chipman of the Insane Asylum board came down yesterday and held a short meeting, during which the newly appointed officers of the institution qualified, and Dr. M. H. Harry, Charles D. Mosby, and Joseph E. Foster were installed as medical superintendent, secretary and treasurer respectively. The new steward, Mr. H. S. Pyne, was not sensible on the 1st July 1st. O the outgoing officers Doctor Pike was held the office of medical superintendent and W. H. Dusenberry that of treasurer from the time the institution was opened over eleven years ago. The asylum is in excellent condition, and while each official who has been connected with the institution deserves commendation for faithful performance of duty, special praise is due to Dr. Pike, who as medical superintendent has had not only the care of the treatment of patients, but has had a supervisory control of all the departments of the large establishment.

Wants a Divorce.

Lois C. Long of Payson has commenced an action for divorce against Charles Long on the grounds of harsh, cruel, obscene and profane language, and towards plaintiff by defendant, and which is misery and specifically set forth in the complaint. Defendant is also charged with choking plaintiff and throwing a chicken at her head. She asks $800 cash and a farm consisting of 160 acres of land in Lake Shore, rents of rent and $100 attorney's fee. The parties were married in Provo on the first day of November, 1891.

Sales.

Robert Shaw of Springville went to Wyoming a short time ago to dispose of some mining property, near Evanston, owned by his brother who died there about a year ago. Mr. Shaw shared the sad fate of his brother, and his remains were brought to Springville last Thursday.

Henry Case was brought over from American Fork, yesterday, to serve forty days in the county jail. The sentence was imposed by Justice McNeil of American Fork for stealing a pair of shoes from the Chipman Mercantile Co. Case is a tramp.

The students of the Brigham Young Academy, Prepar Academy and of the district schools all spent yesterday in the canyons or on the mountains; the pleasant weather made it an ideal May-day.
