PRICES SLIGHTLY HIGHER.

Failure of Bank of England to Advance Money Rate Gave Market Good Tone.

Principal Iron and Steel Stocks in Fair Demand—Specialties, Except Tobacco and Sugar, Were Better.

New York, Aug. 10—The failure of the Bank of England to advance the money rate gave a good tone to the opening market, in sympathy with foreign. Northern Pacific and Amalgamated saw a large fraction. The demand was pretty good for the principal iron and steel stocks which gained about a point and the general level of prices was slightly higher. Sugar's strength was also evident in Chicago speculation.

Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf was up 2 and the Banks 3½ points.

Immediately after the 12 Lambert company was observed to be awaiting with this stock getting a point. The Lambert company was active, but made a somewhat lower rate under speculation covering Sugar and Tobacco were both active. National Lead gained 2 points.

Aside from the Secretary of Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf was operating in the dead market were unimportant.

SUGAR.

Sugar was nearly full selling a fractional to not 14-16, common at par. Refinery was active, but made a somewhat lower rate, closing steadily.
