OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, - - - DECEMBER 27, 1899.

VICTIM OF A BOLD ROBBERY

Robert Adams Robbed and Badly Beaten by a Holdup Last Night.

Weber County Affairs—In Legal Circles—Machinery for Canning Factory—Junction City Briefs.

Last evening about 6:45 just as it was getting dark Robert Adams was robbed by two men in the alley between the J. C. M. I. and Stratford's furniture store. According to Adams' story he had been around the streets all day with a man named James Pett, alias Peace, they had frequented the saloons during the day and at about the time above mentioned the two of them walked along Washington avenue to the alley, where Pett grabbed Adams by the arm and threw him into the alley on his back and another man jumped to behind them and kicked Adams in the ribs and head and Pett robbed him of about $23 and then ran. Adams, in a dazed condition, jumped up and started after the men, followed down Twenty-fourth street to the alley going back of Beever's wholesale store, where the men darted in and disappeared. Adams' face was badly bruised and covered with blood. He says that the man Pett, who robbed him, lives at Brigham City. The police are on his trail. A boy named Mortensen saw the men knock Adams down and rob him.

AFFAIRS OF WEBER COUNTY.

The county commissioners met in regular session and disposed of the following business:

It was ordered that a redemption certificate be issued to E. H. Finch on certain real estate on payment of taxes and costs of redemption.

A quit-claim deed was ordered issued to F. W. Gill on the payment of $22.

It was ordered that the pathmasters and school trustees of Warren district and all other residents of Warren district be and are hereby notified to drive at the Warren school district as well as any others who may be opposed to said division, meet with the board on January 2, 1900, at 2 p. m., at county court house, at which time the matter will be taken up.

The petition of C. W. Newton, praying for the clearance of his property from an erroneous sale to J. S. Carman, in 1892 was denied for the reason that Weber county received no taxes from Alonzo Allen, their tax collector, and is therefore unable to take any steps to remedy the matter. Mr. Allen being responsible for the error.

A number of minor claims were allowed and ordered paid, and the board adjourned for one week.

FORECLOSURE SUITS.

Yesterday in the Second district court Henry W. Brant, receiver of the American Loan and Investment society, filed suit against Walter S. Cooper, Jane Cooper and M. V. Hilbert, for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage. The amount said to be $1,106.31.

The same plaintiff filed similar suits against the following: Henry C. Johnson and W. Mead Hansen, for $1,775.80; Anna F. Loomis and Judd H. Loomis for the sum of $1,258.01. Enoch Farr, Jr., and Mary Farr, for the sum of $922.86. Joseph G. Young, Alice V. Young, Thomas Ballantyne and Jonathan W. Woodson, for the sum of $1,145.22.

WANTS DAMAGES.

A. J. McNish, filed suit against the Oregon Short Line Railroad company for damages in the amount $5,000. The complaint alleges that on July 11, 1899, the plaintiff bought a ticket and got on one of the defendant's trains to ride from his home in Southern Idaho to Salt Lake City, that at Montpelier, Ida., the conductor of the train forcibly ejected him from the train and he was injured, and injured him very much.

Thomas Edwards filed suit against Ida M. and Louis J. Bucher, alleging that defendants have withheld from plaintiff the possession of certain premises which belong to him. He therefore prays judgment in the sum of $100 against the defendant.

SENT TO ASYLUM.

This afternoon at 1:15 o'clock Sheriff C. E. Allen took William H. Ford, a young man, of Ogden, to the State Insane Asylum. He was adjudged insane yesterday by Drs. Condon and Dixon.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

Before Judge Helmisch in police court Harry Wilson, the man arrested a few days ago for stealing clothing and other articles from various stores around town, was sentenced to ninety days' imprisonment.

Frank Hoch, the man arrested with Wilson, was let off, providing he gets out of town within twenty-four hours.

Lilly White, a colored woman, was arrested and given a night's lodging. She also promised to get out of town and was released.

Jim Mack, a vag, was sent on his way rejoicing.

MACHINERY FOR NEW CANNERY.

Mr. L. B. Adams has returned from his eastern business trip. While in the east he bought the machinery for the new canning factory to be built in Ogden this spring. Mr. Adams says he has been with the Boston manufacturing machinery for the new factory. Ogden has already seven canning factories but the new one will be an exceptionally large one inasmuch as the factory will make fruit cans in a wholesale way and put up fruit also. The new plants will furnish employment for about 200 people, which will be another great benefit to Ogden and vicinity. With the sugar factory, canneries, creameries and other manufactories in Ogden, next year will surely be a prosperous one.

CAKE WALK TOURNAMENT.

In the grand cake walk tournament, the prize, a fine cake, was awarded to Mr. Bucher and Miss Van Dyke, both of Salt Lake City, after the cake walk Miss Mamie Garner, also of Salt Lake, rendered a very fine whistling solo, this was followed up with a delightful vocal selection given by the Ortanna Trio, of Salt Lake City. The hall was filled to overflowing by spectators desirous of witnessing a genuine cake walk. The evening was one of great merriment both for the participants and those for those who witnessed the ball, and great credit is due the gentlemen who had the ball in charge, Messrs. Clarence Earnst and Dr. Tanner.

Yesterday the county tax collector turned over the balance of the taxes collected to Treasurer Chambers.

LICENSED TO WED.

A marriage license was issued to Frank Stringham, 22, of Brigham City, and Miss Laura Lawhorn, 19, of Provo.

One of the happiest men to be found in Ogden today was William Kerr, the occasion being the advent of his first baby girl.

OGDEN NEWS NOTES.

Prof. William A. Jones, of the W. S. A., went to Brigham City yesterday on special business.

T. S. Wadsworth, of Morgan City, and John Croft, of Peterson, were Ogden visitors yesterday.

The scandinavians of the city will have a grand ball tonight at the Third ward amusement hall. Refreshments will be served.

The employes of the Ogden sugar factory will have a grand ball Friday evening in Christensen's hall, to which the public is invited.

Happy Jack's Hall, met with a severe accident Christmas evening by being thrown from his sleigh on the corner of Twenty-eighth and Adams avenue. His shoulder was dislocated and he will be laid up for some time.

The miners of the Louise mine are quite elated over the development of their property. They are now sacking one for shipment.

J. H. Moyle has returned from his northern trip.

Never Was Fail

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel broken down with low spirits, poisons in the blood, headache, constipation, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there never was need to feel like that. J. W. Gardner, of Iberville, Ind., says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man who don't care whether he lives or dies. It gave me new strength and good appetite. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cts. at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. Every bottle guaranteed.

COUNTY BUSINESS.

The board of county commissioners were in session today and finished up the following business:

An ordinance was passed creating a county board of health; sanitary districts out of the limits of incorporated cities and towns and appointed health officers and a board of health for the county.

The board of health consists of County Commissioners J. T. McEwan, W. H. Hughes and Dr. C. H. Hoagland, Provo; Dr. J. P. Noyes, American Fork, and J. H. Slater of Spanish Fork.

The boundary lines of the districts were so arranged as to constitute three districts; one in the north end, one in the south end of the county and one in the south end of the county with the doctors named as health officers.

The Provo Hardware Company Co., of Salt Lake, was awarded the contract to furnish all the hardware for the county dispensary building. The price bid was $129.

The resignation of Myron C. Newell, as county game and fish warden, was received and accepted. For the position applications were received from the following: J. W. Clark, Jr., Jake Westfall, Warren S. Pyre, Wren Wilkins, Walter Cox, George J. Dude and Irvin Madsen. The applications were taken under advisement.

CITY COUNCIL WORK.

The city council held a session this evening, the number of the officers-elect were present gathering up points.

T. H. Cluff, city sexton, reported there had been ninety-two deaths the past year in Provo, from different causes, of these forty-nine were born in Provo.

Watermaster Farrer reported on the funds collected by his department as follows, $2,760.50 in labor and cash water taxes; $667.11 on ½-mill street tax; $1,000 on water rents.

Supt. Armstrong, of the waterworks, reported that the system was in good repair; that fifty-three new water services had been put in during the past year, making a total of 345 now in use, including 10 at the cemetery. He had collected $1,011.50 for 1899; $2,-222.86 for 1898. There is still owing $574.39 for 1898.

Recorder Nelson reported that all the officers-elect had filed their official bonds.

The council authorized their representatives to vote in favor of adopting the number of the water commissioner for the division of the waters of Provo river among the city and the different canal companies.

WEDDING BELLS.

The following licenses to wed have been issued by the county clerk: James C. Jensen, 27, of Pleasant Grove, and Annie C. Nelson, 24, of Provo; Joseph M. Clark, 34, and Estella F. Frisby, 26, both of Provo, and W. H. Thomas, 28, of Colton, and Mattie Blackett, 18, of Tintic.

LOGAN.

Death of Bishop Robert Davidson, Pioneer and Stake Builder.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., Dec. 26.—Robert Davidson, bishop of the Third ward, this city, died Saturday evening at 8.30 o'clock, from the effects of cancer of the stomach. The Bishop had been ailing for a year and a half, but not until about four months ago did he begin to suffer acutely from the cancerous growth. Several doctors pronounced his affliction incurable, but everything that loving hands could suggest was done to prolong his life. Finally, however, the inevitable came. The death of Bishop Davidson, the sterling pioneer and Latter-day Saint, passed to the great beyond.

Robert Davidson was born Jan. 21st, 1818, at Dundee, Scotland. Emigrated to Utah when fourteen years of age. During baptized while on the ocean into the faith of the Latter-day Saints. Located first in Salt Lake City, and also came to Logan, settling on the homestead he occupied until the day of his death, in the Third ward. Being one of the first settlers, he underwent all the privations and hardships incident to the life of the pioneers. He was one of the force of Lot Smith in Echo canyon, and took part in all the operations against the Indians. He was twice called on to preside over the Third ward, some in these parts to those days. Was ordained a bishop of the Third ward in 1872, and held that position until the day of his death. He leaves a wife, four sons, sixteen and fifty-six grandchildren, besides a host of friends who will sincerely mourn his loss. Funeral services will be held over his remains in Logan tabernacle tomorrow at 12 o'clock noon.

FUNERAL OF GUNDER JOHNSON.

Funeral services over the remains of Gunder Johnson, who died in Montana, recently by a train running over him, were held in the Seventh ward meeting house today. The speakers were Bishop A. L. Skanchy and C. J. Larsen and Elder N. J. Hartvigsen, who testified to the excellent character of the deceased. Brother Johnson came to Logan in 1881, and was a faithful Latter-day Saint.

CHRISTMAS CHURCH.

Christmas was quietly spent in this city. The weather was perfect and sleighing good, and many people participated in the sport. The representatives of the "News" was invited to partake of the magnificent Christmas dinner prepared by Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Kimel at the Kimel house. Nothing to say the superb dinner did justice to the well earned reputation of this hospitable hostelry.

Elder Andrew King has returned from a two years' mission to the Northwestern States. His field of labor was in Montana.

Funeral of Mrs. Varney—May Get His Rights—Busy Police Court.

Special Correspondence.

American Fork, Utah County, Dec. 27.—The funeral services over the remains of Caroline Varney, wife of Jacob Varney, were held in the meeting house yesterday at 11 a. m. The speakers were Elders S. D. Chipman, John H. Green, Thomas Barrett and George Cunningham, who spoke in terms of praise of the deceased. Sister Varney was an active Relief Society worker in this place, and leaves a husband and three grown sons, besides a numerous host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

MAY GET HIS RIGHTS.

About ten days ago a meeting was held in the City hall to protest against the unconstitutional and unjust treatment accorded by the House of Representatives to Brigham H. Roberts. Speeches were made and resolutions of protest adopted, which were duly forwarded to Congressman Cannon and B. H. Roberts. Chairman Clark received subsequent telegrams of the result of the protest, which it is hoped Mr. Roberts intended his claims for the action taken and expressing confidence that he would eventually be accorded his rights.

The eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Snyder is very sick with croupy.

BUSY POLICE COURT.

The Christmas holidays have had the effect of reviving business in the police court in the City hall to present a specimen of the usual festivity. He was locked up by Marshal Adams on Christmas night. Nothing of a serious character was before Justice Jackson, he was given ten minutes in which to get out of town. The Jackson scented desirous of spending a little more time in a place of the city. He accordingly paid a fine of $5 and costs, the total being $5.25. Yesterday Abner Chipman and Willard Rushton were each fined $5 by Justice Jackson for drunkenness. The cases of Henry Bowler, Jr., George Mitchell and a young man named Nelson from Pleasant Grove for fighting, Oscar Dodge and James Greenwood for resisting an officer—by endeavoring to rescue Abner Chipman from the officer—came to court today.
