The Third ward merry-makers' carnival closed last night, with an excellent program and a large and appreciative audience. The following well known artists appeared on the program last evening: Will Sibley, Ruth Pike, Lige Gill, Judith Anderson, Jennie Murdock, who danced the Highland Fling, Sybil Foote, and a quartette by Messrs. Mr. John Wells of the Bishop's office, has received a letter from a wealthy English manufacturer of Nottingham, who was an old employer in which a kind word is said for this paper. In it he says: "I thank you sincerely for the copies of the Deseret News. They are beautifully illustrated and got up in fine style. What a lot of News they give you. I like your American style of news. You get at it splendidly so one can see the principal items without losing time in looking through the whole paper. I consider the style you give your telegrams and other news is far superior to ours. The papers you sent me are really first-class. I had no idea that you could produce such results. You must have some very clever newspaper men and artists in Utah."

Money to loan on first class security. Interest low. No commissions charged Zion's Savings Bank and Trust company.

100 VOLUMES OF THE STANDARD DICTIONARY!

This rare work of nearly 2,400 pages, each volume weighing 17½ pounds, beautifully bound in embossed leather, issued by Funk and Wagnalls of London and New York, is now on sale at the Deseret News office. One hundred volumes have just been received. This is the work in the compilation of which Dr. James E. Talmage was engaged as one of the 200 editors. Its thoroughness is well illustrated by its treatment of the single word "Quorum," as follows:

"Quorum:" 1. Such a number of persons of any deliberative or corporate body as is necessary for the legal transaction of business; unless otherwise ordered, a majority. 2. (Eng.) Certain designated justices of the peace commissioned as JUSTICES OF THE QUORUM, without the presence of some one of whom the others could not act. 3. Mor. Ch. A council or organized body of the priesthood; as, an Elders' quorum; the quorum of the First Presidency. 4. Necessary constituents. (L., of whom, gen. pl. of "qui" (who,) from the Latin words "quorum unum—A. B. esse volumus" (of whom we desire A. B. to be one) forming part of ancient commissions, as of justices.

This rare dictionary is offered at $12 per copy. A limited number can be had for Church pay, and our schools and colleges are asked to correspond with us at once should they desire a copy.

THE DESERET NEWS.

POLICE SCANDAL DAMAGE SUITS.

Mothers of Young Girls Sue City Officials for $2,000 Each.

MADE GUARDIANS TODAY.

Chief Hilton, Policeman Davis, Detective Sheets and City Physician King are Made Defendants.

The mothers of Clara Carney and Hattie Dahl, two of the three girls who were compelled to submit to an examination of their persons, at the police station on May 1st, have decided to institute proceedings against Chief Thomas H. Hilton, Police Officer E. C. Davis, Detective George A. Sheets and Health Commissioner J. C. E. King, demanding $2,000 each for the alleged unlawful acts.

As a preliminary step to the filing of the suits, Clara Carney, and Hattie Dahl, by their attorneys, Williams & Smith, petitioned the Third district court this forenoon to appoint their mothers, Sena Carney and Jennie Dahl, guardians ad litem, for the purpose of prosecuting the actions in their behalf.

The petitions recite that the girls are under the age of twenty-one—the Dahl girl being fourteen years and nine months old and the Carney girl fifteen years and one month—that their fathers are deceased, and that their mothers reside in this city.

The documents then proceed to allege that on May 1, 1900, Chief Hilton, Policeman Davies, Detective Sheets and Dr. King took petitioners from a public restaurant, where they had committed no offense and were guilty of no wrong, and compelled them to walk through the public streets of Salt Lake City to the police station, where they were forcibly detained and restrained of their liberty for several hours.

COMPELLED TO SUBMIT.

It is further alleged that the defendants named then assaulted petitioners and compelled them to submit to an examination. By these acts, petitioners say, they were mortified and injured and outraged in their feelings; also their characters and reputations were greatly injured. Petitioners then pray that their mothers be appointed their guardians for the purpose of prosecuting actions for damages.

APPOINTMENTS ARE MADE.

Judge Cherry later in the day signed orders appointing the mothers guardians of the children, which authorises them to prosecute the actions named in the petitions.

It was learned this afternoon that the suits would be filed late this evening or the first thing Monday morning.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES MEET.

No More Street Work to be Done Till October Next.

The council committee on streets, at a meeting held last evening, decided to recommend to the council that no work be done on the streets, except such as is absolutely necessary until after October 1 next. The city is now borrowing money, and paying a big interest on it, to meet current expenses, and the probabilities are it will have to continue borrowing until the fall taxes are in. The petitions for opening up Grant and Zane streets and many others asking for improvements will, therefore, be laid over until October 1st.

Captain Samuel Paul has agreed to accept $1,500 on his $5,000 damage suit now pending against the city. Mr. Paul, some time ago, slipped on an icy sidewalk in front of the old city hall and broke his leg. The matter came up before the claims committee last evening, Judge Powers appearing for the claimant, and was referred to the city attorney for an opinion.

The claim of George Chaney for $225 will be allowed so far as the claims committee is concerned. Mr. Chaney was working with the city engineer on a bridge near the Jordan narrows, when a train came along and he was forced to jump into the water, thus sustaining a fracture of the left ankle. He was laid up for six weeks and the amount of his claim is what he paid out for medical attention.

The claim of Benjamin Y. Sellers and Mrs. Harriet Ellen Sellers for $3,000 for damages sustained through the overturning of their buggy on East South Temple street last April, was acted upon adversely, as also was the claim of Winnie Galbraith, who wanted $1,000 for injuries caused through falling on a slippery sidewalk.

The waterworks committee will recommend to the council the granting of the petition of residents on First West between Eighth and Ninth South streets, asking that the water mains be extended so that they could connect their residences.

The petition of the Mountain Ice Company asking that it be supplied with water by the city at the meter rates fixed was granted. The company expects to use about 12,000 gallons a day for making artificial ice for the next two months, by which time it will have completed a well from which it will obtain a large portion of the water it needs.
