OGDEN NEWS.

OGDEN, UTAH, - - JAN. 27, 1902.

LIVELY RUNAWAY MISHAP.

Party of Merrymakers Tipped Over Into the Snow—No Casualties.

First Sleighing of the Season Made The Most of—Everything With Runners on Put in Commission.

A lively runaway occurred yesterday afternoon on north Washington avenue. A gentleman had hired a spirited bay team from a livery stable, and had invited three lady friends to take a ride out to the Hot Springs, they were driving along at a rapid rate when the horse became frightened at some object in the road, just north of Ogden river bridge. The animals dashed down the street and became unmanageable, a rough place was struck on the side of the road, the double cutter tipped on its side and the occupants were rolled in the snow for several feet, but all escaped any further injury than a few bruises. The horses continued their race down north Washington avenue, but when they stopped and and in what kind of a demolished condition the cutter was found could not be learned, neither could the names of the cutter's occupants be secured.

MERRY SLEIGHBELLS.

The merry jingle of sleighbells filed the air all day Saturday and Sunday more especially yesterday. It was the first sleighing of the season and the opportunity was utilized to the fullest extent. Every available sleigh, cutter, and bob sled was put into use. All day and until after midnight the happy laughter and song of the sleighriders rang out on the cold frosty air. The livery stables could not readily supply the great demand for sleighs. The sleighing is fairly good today and a great many crowds have arranged for a good bob sled ride tonight fearing that this may be their only opportunity to enjoy that pleasure this season. The ice ponds were also crowded all day and evening with those who delight in skating.

SUNNYSIDE.

MINER CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Deaths from Scarlet Fever — First Snow Storm.

Special Correspondence.

Sunnyside, Carbon Co., Jan. 24.—A sad accident happened here today, by which Richard R. Gibbs, son of Reece W. Gibbs, lost his life. He was driving a horse in the No. 2 mine, when he met his death. There was only a small boy with him when it happened. The unfortunate young man was standing on the car bumpers when he lost his balance and fell in front of the empty car. He called for the horse to stop, which it did, but he was under the car dead. His neck was broken. He was a good boy to his parents, and a faithful Latter-day Saint. His grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of all who know them. An inquest was held today. The verdict was accidental death. Coroner, A. E. Gibson; jurors, Wm. Hill, Thomas Phelps and Chas. Carari. The body will be shipped to Almy, Wyo., his former home.

A Profitable Investment.

"I spent about $1,000 and never could get anything to help me until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken a few bottles and am entirely well." You don't live by what you eat, but by what you digest and assimilate. If your stomach doesn't digest your food you are really starving. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does the stomach's work by digesting the food. You don't have to diet. Eat all you want. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures all stomach troubles. RICHFIELD.

DISTRICT COURT SESSION.

Madsen Discharged—Shot Nay in Self Defense—Meeting of Assessors.

Special Correspondence.

Richfield, Sevier County, Jan. 25.—The following busines was transacted before Judge McCarty:

The case of Christian Tuft et al vs Lorenzo Lisonbee et al was heard before a jury. Plaintiff had let Pope and Anderson of Monroe have some sheep for a certain number of years to be returned with a stipulated increase at the end of the period mentioned. The time for returning the sheep occurred in October, but Pope & Anderson did not have sheep enough to meet their contract with Tuft and others for whom they had been herding, so Tuft went to the herd and took 746 head of sheep which would be all that would be coming to him, but the jury found that he was entitled only to 550 head, the original number put in the herd.

In the case of W. L. Parks vs Marquardson, Jensen & Co., an action for damages for breach of contract to furnish logs for a saw mill at the rate of 5,000 feet a day, the case was heard and submitted and taken under advisement by the court.

In the case of Annie Laurie Mining company vs Ross Mining company, tried last week, the decision of the court was rendered today in favor of plaintiffs by giving them damages of $54 with costs and a perpetual restraining order.

AMERICAN FORK.

OLD FOLKS DAY.

Banquet and Festivities in Honor of the Veterans—"News" Agency.

Special Correspondence.

American Fork, Utah Co., Jan. 24.—Our old folks, ranging in age from 65 to 85 years, were royally entertained here yesterday, Jan. 23.

Dinner was served at 1 o'clock, and over 200 in all, including widows and missionaries' wives, partook of the bounties which the generosity of our town had so willingly and amply provided.

In the afternoon an impromptu program was rendered, consisting of songs by the old folks' choir, solos, recitations, speeches and reminiscent talks.

"Who's on the Lord's side," and other songs were given by C. R. Savage of the old folks' central committee, who has the distinguished honor of being the originator and prime mover of old folks' parties in Utah. William Foster of the original old folks choir rendered in fine style the solo, "Bring Back the Old Folks." Elder Henry W. Naisbitt of Salt Lake City delivered an interesting address on "Early Life in Utah." An original poem, composed by James Crystal, "Old Folks Day," was recited by Ida A. Forbes.

The secretary of the Old Folks' association, Wm. Grant, here reported the deaths that had occurred since our last annual gathering, showing that three had passed away, one male and two females.

Thomas Barratt, John Tracey and Wm. Grant are, in the order named, chairman, treasurer and secretary of the Old Folks' association of this place, and Emily K. Adamson is chairman of the ladies' departments of the organization.

Good Prices for Produce — School Well Attended.

Special Correspondence.

Alpine, Utah Co., Jan. 24.—Roads are dry and dusty, clouds promising rain.

More water in the creek than usual at this time of year, but there is very little snow in the hills and mountains.

The district school is well attended and under good supervision in the hands of the principal, Jesse W. Johnson, Esq.

The liberal prices received for the potato crop of Alpine aided the resources of the people very materially. Lucern hay is $7 per ton; oats, $1.35 per cwt.; wheat, 75c per bushel. The Relief Society on marketing their old wheat and buying in new wheat made a very successful business point.

Two Alpine Elders recently returned home from missions. Alpine has two missionaries yet in the field.

DESERET NEWS AGENCY.

Bishop Albert Marsh, who has acted as agent for the Deseret News for so long a time, has resigned, and Joseph H. Beck will now attend to the future business of the "News," while the old accounts due at date will be collected by the former agent, Albert Marsh.

Don't Live Together.

Constipation and health never go together. De Witt's Little Early Risers promote easy action of the bowels without distress. "I have been troubled with costiveness nine years," says J. O. HUNTINGTON.

WELCOME FALL OF SNOW.

Missionary Farewell—Peace Disturbers Pay Their Fines.

Special Correspondence.

Huntington, Emery Co., Jan. 25.—Matt Warner and John Murning, the two men who pleaded guilty and were fined $20 each a few weeks ago for fast riding and disturbance in the streets of Huntington, and who took an appeal to the district court, have now paid their fines rather than face Judge Johnson, who they feared would give them a heavier dose. Warner, it will be remembered, is the man that caused such a heavy expense to Uintah county and the state a few years ago in a murder case in which he was defendant.

The snow is about two inches deep in town today but it looks to be snowing heavily in the mountains.

Last evening there was a well attended farewell party given in honor of William Johnson and Edward Gray, two young men who expect to leave here in a few days on a mission to the Southwestern States.

LOGAN.

SUGAR FACTORY SEASON'S RUN

Divorce and Other Court Business—Good Fall of Snow.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache Co., Jan. 26.—The case of Elizabeth Ann Garr vs A. E. Cranney, administrator of the estate of John T. Garr, deceased, was on trial before Judge Hart Saturday. The plaintiff asks for the sum of $1,200 alleged to be due her for household services rendered the deceased during eight years previous to his death in October, 1900. She is the widow of John Garr, the adopted Indian son of the deceased. A large number of witnesses were examined during the day by each side, among them Bishop George O. Pitkin, who usually kept the court and spectators in laughter by his humorous answers to the attorneys. Attorney Geo. Q. Rich appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney F. K. Nebeker for the defense. The defendant admitted that the service was rendered to the decedent, but claimed that deceased supplied plaintiff with the necessities of life in payment therefor. The case was tried before a jury, to whom it was submitted Saturday evening, and they will consider upon their verdict Monday.

The motion of the attorney for Mrs. Talitha D. Karren, divorced wife of Fred D. Karren, that she be paid a reasonable alimony, was argued before Judge Hart Saturday evening and taken under advisement.

The cases of Sarah Fuller vs Swen Matson and A. R. Clark vs W. S. Hendricks have been dismissed by mutual consent.

CLOSE OF SUGAR FACTORY.

The Logan sugar factory completed its season's run Saturday morning and closed down. Twenty-one thousand tons of beets were ground, yielding 4,260,000 pounds of sugar. On account of various leakages, such as shrinkage, beets falling from the cars, more dirt than the tare provided for, etc., the factory was 1,360 tons short of the amount purchased. The 150 hands employed by the factory will now seek other fields of labor, only half a dozen men being left in charge of the buildings. The machinery will be overhauled during the spring, and preparation made for an early start next fall. Grinding will begin as soon as any beets can be secured, probably in September.

There was a fall of four inches of snow in this valley during the past two days, and farmers are elated over the promise of plenty of water. The snow is very deep in the hills.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

POCATELLO, IDAHO.

EX-BISHOP CANNON HONORED.

Banquet and Entertainment Show Esteem of the People.

To the Editor:

Pocatello, Idaho, Jan. 26.—Friday evening, Jan. 24, the Saints of this place met under a call of the new bishopric for the purpose of meeting together in social intercourse, to become better acquainted with each other. To the initiated it was for a surprise upon former Bishop, now Patriarch Carl J. Cannon. The house was packed, and the event was a marked one, in the history of Pocatello. An interesting program was rendered. The feature of the occasion being the presentation to the honored guest of a beautiful diamond shirt stud, as a token of the esteem in which he is held in the hearts of the people. The presentation speech was made by President W. A. Hyde, and was feelingly responded to by Bishop Cannon, who closed by paying a beautiful tribute to the present incumbent, Bishop H. Smith Woolley, whom he desired the Saints to support with fidelity. Felicitous remarks were made by President H. S. Pond and others, interspersed with musical selections and recitations. A banquet and dance followed the program, all present participating.

Secretary John Willis Baer of the United Society of Christian Endeavor, will be in Pocatello on the afternoon of March 18, and will address the young people of this city and vicinity.

CASPER, WYOMING.

NOTED OUTLAW BROKE JAIL.

Indictment Against two Boys for Murder of 13-year Old Boy.

Special Correspondence.

Casper, Wyo., Jan. 25.—The grand jury has returned indictments against Roy and Charles Walker, two boys who are charged with the murder of Dee Blair, a 13-year-old boy who was murdered on the banks of the Platte river, near here, last July. The boy was fishing and had some trouble with some companions about his lines. The Walker boys were arrested at the time, but the county attorney did not think there was sufficient evidence against them and they were released.

Judge Bramel was petitioned by citizens to have the matter thoroughly investigated, and he appointed Attorney E. D. Norton to assist the prosecuting attorney. The latter took exceptions to this proceeding and threatened to have the matter brought before the state supreme court.

The outcome of the case is being watched with interest, owing to the prominence of the parents of the murdered boy and the accused. It is alleged that there will be some startling disclosures when the case comes on for trial.

NOTED OUTLAW BROKE JAIL.

Word received here a few days ago stated that Otto Chenoworth, the notorious horse thief who was confined in a South Dakota jail awaiting trial for stealing 500 head of horses from one outfit, broke jail at Mendora last Wednesday night and has not yet been captured. The outlaw was headed for Montana when last seen.

BEAVER CANYON, IDAHO.

TERRIBLE BLIZZARD.

Tramp Badly Frozen—Loss of 1,500 Sheep—Car Roofs Blown Off.

Special Correspondence.

Beaver Canyon, Fremont Co., Idaho, Jan. 25.—Last night was terribly cold, 25 below zero. The blizzard blew all night. A hobo was taken from a box car with fingers, feet, and nose frozen. Fifteen hundred sheep were suffocated and frozen in close pen at Spencer, mouth of Beaver.

The roofs of two O. S. L. cars were taken off by the high wind in the same locality by last night's storm. The weather is pleasant today. At Dillon, Mont., there is no snow.

TAYLOR, ARIZONA.

LOST IN BLIZZARD.

Painful Accident — People Discouraged with Continued Drouth.

Special Correspondence.

Taylor, Navajo Co., Arizona, Jan. 21.—A painful accident happened near here on Thursday, January 16, J. S. Fackerel was riding through the cedars with his little 8-year-old son Lyman behind him when he rode too near a tree he ducked his head to miss it but the boy threw up his arm and was struck by the limb badly bruising and breaking the arm and throwing the boy to the ground. He was brought to Taylor and at first it was thought that a sliver from the tree had entered the arm. There was no doctor near but R. G. Lambert who was in Snowflake in the interest of the Deseret News, was brought over and he set the arm.

This place is not growing. The continued drouth of years is having its effect and some of the people are talking of hunting homes in more congenial places. Yet here are undeveloped resources; the water supply could be greatly increased by reserving the water. Something might be done in this matter and give the youth profitable employment.

LOST IN A BLIZZARD.

As Arizona is more noted for sand and dust storms than blizzards, it appears rather strange to hear of one being lost and nearly frozen in an Arizona blizzard, yet such was the recent experience of Mr. R. G. Lambert, the "News" traveling representative. Having an appointment at Taylor on Sunday evening he started on horseback at the close of the afternoon meeting at Pinedale. Just as he started the storm broke and he missed his way and for three hours he was out in the mountain blizzard. Providentially, after a ride of fourteen miles he found the only inhabited ranch in the mountains and discovered that he was twenty-two miles from his desired destination.

DELL, MONTANA.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

Frozen Water Tank May Delay Traffic — 30 Below Zero.

Special Correspondence.

Dell, Beaver Head Co., Mont., Jan. 15.—Last night a fire started in the large store of Rudy & McKnight, destroying the entire stock amounting to about $7,000. A breeze from the northwest prevented the fire from spreading.

At Melrose, Montana, the water tank is frozen and will, it is feared, delay railroad transportation on the Oregon Short Line.

Weather here is clear and cold; 30 below zero.

NO REFLECTION.

Dr. G. A. Gordon, pastor of the Old South Church, tells this story on himself, an experience he had when coming over from England recently. He had been unable to get a stateroom for himself, but on assurances by the purser that he would have for a room-mate some companionable gentleman, Doctor Gordon accepted what he could get.

"Now, after a short while," says Doctor Gordon, "I began to find myself thinking of some valuables that I had about me, and went with them finally to the purser to intrust them with him for safe-keeping.

"'I would explain to you,' I said to the purser, 'that I am very much pleased with my room-mate. That is, I find him a gentleman in every respect, and I wouldn't have you think that—that is—I wouldn't have you think my coming to you with these valuables is—er—any reflection upon him, you know. His appearance is in every way—'

"And here," Doctor Gordon says, "the purser interrupted me with a broad smile.

"'Yes, Doctor Gordon, it's all right—he has come to me with some valuables, also, and he says the very same things about you.'"—Boston Herald.

AT THE WRONG PLACE.

A prominent congressman from the state of Illinois, after a long sojourn in Washington, D. C., returned to his home and started out to look a little after his political fences. At a small village hotel where he stopped for dinner, a scanty plate of fine roasting-ears was placed before him as a side-dish. Immediately upon discovering this plate of roasting-ears he abandoned the main bill of fare and applied himself exclusively to the corn. When the plate was emptied he called for more, and again for more, and continued his feast until he had made his entire meal from this luscious Illinois product. The hotel-keeper noticed the array of cobs stacked upon the plate of the congressman, whose identity was unknown to him, and said, "Say, stranger, what in the thunder do you want to board at a hotel for? The place for you to put up is at a livery-stable!"

CATARRAH OF THE STOMACH

A Pleasant, Simple, but Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour of watery risings, a formation of gasses, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played-out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment to use after each meal a tablet composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using the one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, billiousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.
