MINING, BUSINESS AND STOCKS.

MINING MARKET IS STRONGER.

Stocks Took Upward Turn and Made Good Advances.

DALY-WEST TRADES LARGE

At Better Figures—May Day and Others Held Stronger—Business; 41,530 Shares for $31,797.

Mining stocks ruled at better figures this morning than on yesterday and the market showed some improvement. Trading resulted in the recording of transactions involving 41,530 shares and $31,797, and was quite brisk in Daly West, Con. Mercur, May Day and California.

In the two last mentioned stocks considerable covering was done by shorts and the prices consequently advanced several cents a share each.

Inside buying of Daly West resulted in the advance of that stock from $19.00 to $21.00, and there are rumors astir to the effect that an absolute settlement of the Quincy-Daly West trouble is about to be effected. "It will either be that or a suit," a prominent stockholder said today.

Con. Mercur around $1.95 was dealt in to the extent of 1,100 shares and sales of 6,200 shares of May Day recorded at figures between 55½ and 56.

Trading was better in Ben Butler, Martha Washington and some others, and at the close the following quotations were recorded:

DALY-WEST VS QUINCY COMPANY

The Title of Suit Filed in Federal Court This Morning.

SETTLEMENT IS HOPED FOR

Out of Court—Daly-West Alleges Trespass and Suit is for Purpose of Quieting Title.

The Daly-West Mininng company, recently organized under the laws of Colorado, has filed in the Federal court, this city, a bill of complaint against the Quincy Mining company, organized under the laws of Utah.

As stated in the bill of complaint the suit thus commenced is brought for the purpose of restraining the defendant company from extracting ores from ground within the vertical boundaries of the Daly-West company's property at Park City, and further to confirm in its ownership and title the claim of the plaintiff company to all the ore bodies and ground in dispute.

In commenting on the action commenced this morning Judge Dickson said: "The relations between the Daly-West and Quincy have always been of a most friendly nature, and it is probable that an amicable settlement will be made of this trouble. However, the Daly West has suffered much from the rumors that have been circulated of impending litigation and we have felt that something should be done to clear the title of the company to the ore bodies within the sidelines of the property. Both companies have sought to avoid litigation and it is hoped that we shall reach some agreement satisfactory to all concerned.

In the complaint the Daly West Mining company alleges that the defendant company claims and asserts some title in and to the ore bodies and minerals found vertically beneath the exterior boundaries of the mining claims owned by the plaintiff company. Also that the defendant company has already by certain underground workings entered in the premises of the plaintiff company and mined and extracted, and is still mining and extracting ores from the said premises.

The plaintiff alleges that the assertion by the Quincy of its alleged ownership of the ore bodies and minerals found in and beneath the surface boundaries of the Daly-West claims, is greatly clouding and impairing the title of the plaintiffs to the premises which in the complaint it is alleged are worth over $1,000,000.

The plaintiff prays the court to grant a writ of subpoena directing the defendant company to appear and answer the several allegations contained in the bill of complaint.

The complaint further prays the court that the defendant company be required to set forth all adverse claims so that the same may be properly adjudicated and all cloud to the title to the claims in dispute may be forever removed.

PLANS FOR THE CACTUS.

Samuel Newhouse Outlines Work That Will be Done.

"The shaft at the Cactus is now down about 600 feet and the contract will soon be let for an additional 600," said Samuel Newhouse, owner of the property at the Knutsford last evening. Continuing, he said: "It is my intention to have the shaft sunk 2,000 feet before shipping a pound of ore. The property is looking fine and is the best I have ever had.

"The Boston Consolidated is looking good and I think will make a fine property."

Regarding the erection of a smelter in this valley, Mr. Newhouse said that all energies will be bent to developing the properties for some time and that a smelter will come later.

Speaking of the copper situation, Mr. Newhouse said that it is probable that the production now is not equal to the demand and that a scarcity is only prevented by the surplus of copper stored up some months ago.

Ben Butler Litigation.

In the case of H. A. Kee, et al, vs. the Ben Butler Mining and Milling company, lessee, to extract ores from the portions of the Liberal claim in controversy, but forbidding it or the plaintiffs from disposing of such ores without a further order from the court, It is also ordered that the defendant company be allowed to make a survey of the surface and underground workings of the property, and the same authority is given the plaintiffs herein. The property covered by the order of survey and examination is the B. F. Butler No. 1 amended lode, the Eight-seven amended lode and the Liberal lode claims.

New York, Feb. 25.—The opening stock market was narrow and rather dull. But few changes of importances occurred in the active quarter until near the close of the hour. United States Steel preferred went to 95. Fort Worth & Denver City gained 4. National Salt sold 7 points below its last sale, Northwestern preferred lost 2¼. BENJ. CAMPBELL IS PROMOTED

Appointed Assistant Traffic Director Of the Harriman Lines.

HEADQUARTERS IN CHICAGO

Will, on and After March 1, Assist John C. Stubbs in His Arduous Labors.

Word has been received in Salt Lake definitely setting at rest all the rumors that have been circulated recently regarding the appointment of an assistant traffic director of the Harriman lines to take some of the burden off the shoulders of John C. Stubbs.

On March 1 Benjamin Campbell, traffic manager of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company, will enter upon his new duties at Chicago at a decidedly advanced salary as assistant traffic director for the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, Oregon Short Line and the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company with the numerous steamship lines which are part and parcel of the Harriman system.

This will be good news to the many good friends Mr. Campbell has in Salt Lake and elsewhere and congratulations will be in order. Mr. Campbell has been in Chicago for some weeks past attending to the business of Mr. Stubbs during the recent illness of that gentleman and only returned to Portland last week for a brief spell in order to attend the big meeting there. It was the original intention that Mr. Campbell would stay in Chicago until March 1, but it appears he will stay there for keeps.

Benjamin Campbell was born June 10, 1858, at Liberty, Ind. He entered the railroad service 1875 as telegraph operator for the Cairo & Vincennes railway, since which he has been consecutively, 1876 to 1884, operator, station agent, traveling freight agent and general agent Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sioux City railway (Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railway); 1884 to 1886, general agent Union Pacific at Portland, Ore.; 1886 to 1894, general freight agent O. R. & N.; 1894 to date, traffic manager of the same road.

MAY BE DANIEL.

Speculation as to Who Will Succeed F. C. Gentsch.

The promotion of Mr. F. C. Gentsch to have control of both divisions of the Pacific Express company, as announced first in Salt Lake in the "News" yesterday, meets with general satisfaction in this city, where he is so well and favorably known. Mr. Gentsch came to Salt Lake City in 1877 as agent of the company, and remained here doing excellent service until a few years ago, when he was promoted to be assistant superintendent, the superintendent, and then general superintendent with headquarters at Omaha, with jurisdiction west of the Mississippi river. His promotion extends his jurisdiction as far east as Buffalo, N. Y., and Wheeling, W. Va. Mr. Gentsch will remove to St. Louis, where he is to have his headquarters. It is believed that this move will necessitate the appointment of some new man to look after the far western interests. Perhaps it will be Mr. Daniel, the present assistant general superintendent at St. Louis, who was formerly with the company in this city.

RUSH HAS STARTED.

P. I. & N. Already Conveying Miners En Route to Thunder Mountain.

Lewis Hall, treasurer of the Pacific & Idaho Northern, this morning stated at the Knutsford that the rush to Thunder Mountain had already set in and that the vanguard was going in over his road every day in bunches from six to eight men. Contrary to assertions he says that the snow is not bad and the 131 miles from Council to Thunder Mountain are made under practically comfortable circumstances. "There was one stretch for about four miles along the trail where the snow was about five feet deep, but we sent a gang of men out and the place is now passable," he said.

"The railroad is running right along and handling freight and passengers every day despite the assertions in a morning paper that we have had a washout wherein 40 yards of roadbed are alleged to have been washed away. The story is a canard and is made out of whole cloth."

Continuing, Mr. Hall stated that the story of the washing out of the bridge as reported from Idaho was also decidedly overdrawn, the fact of the matter being that a log jam struck some of the piling and knocked some piles out of place, and it was not deemed safe to run trains across, so passengers were conveyed over the river by means of a light gasoline motor, and were transferred to the waiting train at the other side of the water. The break has been repaired and trains have been running over the bridge for the past ten days.

Mr. Hall says that the P. I. & N. will this summer extend its line from Council to Meadows, a distance of thirty miles.

HEAVY TRAVEL.

Pacific Coast Tourists Commencing To Return East on Way Home.

Assistant General Passenger Agent George W. Heintz of the Rio Grande Western reports that the usual spring stampede from the Pacific slope east has commenced and that the Rio Grande Western is carrying its usual heavy percentage of the travel.

The advance guard makes its bow tomorrow evening when a special train of four sleepers, a diner and a composite car, bearing 75 Raymond-Whitcomb tourists, will come to town. The visitors will remain in this city for 24 hours before continuing on their way east. Before they leave they will be driven over the city, listen to a special organ recital in the Tabernacle at 11 a. m. Thursday, and also visit Saltair beach.

On Friday Col. A. M. Shook and a party of 18 other prominent and influential citizens of Nashville, Tenn., will arrive in a private car, and also take in the sights of the city. Tomorrow W. A. Russell and party will come in from the west on No. 4 in private car Ionanthe on their way home from a visit to California.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

General Superintendent E. E. Calvin of the Oregon Short Line has gone to Boise.

The Oregon Short Line excursion to Ogden last evening carried 150 Salt Lakers.

The new side track just west of the tunnel at Wahsatch has now been completed.

T. M. Schumacher will be the next prominent official to be promoted, so say the gossips.

Among the newly elected directors of the Eureka & Palisade of Nevada are Charles Read and C. L. Rood of Salt Lake.

Vice President J. E. Hulshizer of the Nevada Midland is also president of the New Jersey Title Guarantee & Trust company.

From present indications cars are expected to be carrying ore from Tonopah to Battle Mountain over the Nevada Midland by the middle of June.

W. B. Scott, division superintendent of the southern and western divisions of the Santa Fe, has been promoted to the general superintendency of the Pecos valley division of the Santa Fe system.

It was announced yesterday that the owners of the Continental mine in northern Idaho, near the British boundary, are planning for a branch railway from the Great Northern's Kuskonook line to their mine on the lake shore. The branch would be about 22 miles long, and is expected to be built next summer.

The sale of the Kansas City, Watkins & Gulf railway is postponed by agreement until March 24. The bondholders and stockholders have reached an agreement and will re-organize with J. P. Watkins as president. The railroad went into the hands of a receiver four years ago and has been developed into a good property. The road is 100 miles long and has terminals at Alexandria and Lake Charles, La.

The Evening Capital News of Boise says: "There is really serious talk of building a railroad into Boise Basin from this city, and the scheme is a practical and sensible one. Its terminus would be the closest railroad point to Thunder Mountain, and a good wagon road would make the new district easily accessible. It is safe to say that no railroad will be built into the camp for some time to come, and the Boise Basin road would be the natural outlet. Besides, the proposed road would tap a big mining district already well developed, and open up a great timber belt."
