Last night at the leap-year ball given at the University of Utah by the lady students, some sneak thief did a good business, a number of cloaks and wraps being purloined. One young lady who went with a nice white knit opera shawl was a victim, and as a consequence was obliged to return home through the wintry air with head and neck unprotected.

A man giving the name of William Lee, was arrested this morning by Officer Leaker on the charge of petit larceny. It is alleged that yesterday afternoon, Lee enterede a mission house on east Second South and purloined therefrom an overcoat. He was caught trying to dispose of the garment. He will be given a chance to explain matters to Judge Diehl on Monday afternoon.

Cards have been received in this city announcing the marriage of Miss Ruth Bill, daughter of Mason Bill Carpenter of Denver, to William Parry Jones Dinsmoor, on Wednesday last. Mr. Dinsmoor is a young business man well known in this city and Denver, and prominent among the young graduates of Harvard. He is a member of the University club of this city.

According to orders from the office of the third assistant postmaster general, all cards issued by private persons having on the address side "United States of America," are a "likeness or similitude" of the regulation postal card, and therefore unmailable. However, to give owners of such cards a reasonable time in which to dispose of what they have on hand, such cards may be accepted for mailing up to July 1 next. After that they will not be received at all.

The old board of public works met yesterday afternoon and approved a number of bills and referred other matters to the new board. A question was raised by City Engineer Kelsey as to whether or not the old board could meet inasmuch as all the members had tendered their resignations and a new board had been appointed and confirmed. It was held by Assistant City Attorney Bramel that the new board had not qualified yet so the old board is qualified to transact business.

Sunday night she will conduct a meeting at the First Presbyterian church. She will remain in this city and will assist Col. Higgins in her lecture on the "Life and Works of the Late Consul, Emma Booth Tucker," in the Salt Lake Theater Wednesday night.

Saloon keepers continue to be worked on the bogus check game, notwithstanding the frequency of arrests for this class of crime. The latest development along this line was the arrest yesterday afternoon of George Miller on the charge of thus defrauding Proprietor L. A. Doles of the Green River saloon. Miller had borrowed $5 on the strength of the assertion that he was of the same fraternal order as Doles. Then the scamp presented a check on McCornick's bank for $20.35. This the too confiding Doles cashed, but a suspicion caused him to send the check to the bank for confirmation. It was promptly returned as "no good," and Doles had Miller taken into custody.

That the student body of the University of Utah is out of debt, is the gratifying report made to the executive committee last night by President Elbert Thomas. The report covered the period intervening between his election to the presidency of the general student body and up to th first of this month, when that organization was dissolved, and showed that at the time Mr. Thomas was elected all the school organizations, save the Dramatic club, were in debt and that the debts of all these various organizations, but that of the Chronicle, have since been raised. The Chronicle debt is one of long standing, and it is more than likely that the school will assume the debt and start the new organization off with a clean sheet.

MUCH EXPECTED OF CONVENTION.

Splendid Outlook for Big Gathering of Sunday School Workers Tonight and Tomorrow.

FIRST SESSION IN THE THEATER

Punctuality To Be Observed At All The Meetings—Program for Stake Schools.

Indications point to a very successful Sunday school convention in this city tonight and tomorrow. As stated in last evening's "News," the first meeting occurs at 7:30 tonight in the Salt Lake Theater. Delegates, to be admitted, must present their tickets at the door and they will be given seats in the building according to their arrival, the first coming being first served. The doors will open at 7 o'clock, at which time the reception committee will be on hand to welcome the delegates. It is desired that those attending be promptly on time, as one feature of Sunday school work—punctuality—will be strictly observed at all the meetings. The program will be an interesting one and of a character calculated to please and instruct all present. The attendance of delegates is quite large and those from outside points were escorted to places of entertainment in Salt Lake and Granite Stakes this afternoon. The schools in the different wards belonging to the stakes represented at the convention, will be conducted tomorrow either by members of the Bishopric or the theological departments, as it is expected that most of the officers and teachers will be present at the conference. For this occasion the regular class work will be dispensed with and a general program substituted in its stead. The program for the schools of the Salt Lake stake is as follows:

Roll call.

Opening hymn, "Zion is Growing." Song book, page 50.

Prayer.

Hymn, "The Cause of Truth." Song book, page 167.

Minutes of previous session of school.

Hymn, "Little Children Love the Savior." Song book, page 43, Primary and Kindergarten departments.

Address or Essay, "The advantages of attending Sunday school." (Five minutes), member of second intermediate department.

Song, "In Our Lovely Deseret."

Address, "Some things we have learned concerning Old Testament history during 1903" (10 minutes or less), member of theological department, first year course.

Hymn, "Marching Home." Song book, page 128.

Benediction.

Note: Provision should be made for the calling of a silent roll in the respective departments.
