ONE YEAR RULE FOR COLORADO TEAMS.

Intercollegiate Association Acts In Favor of Strictly Amateur Football.

YEAR'S SCHEDULE FORMED.

Boulder Ruled Out of League and School of Mines Declared Champions of the State.

The Utah season in football for next year is not yet arranged entirely, but a meeting at which the Colorado dates were to come up for approval has been held in Denver and Coach Maddock is now waiting news of action on his requests. If they are accepted Utah will go after Boulder, the one Colorado team of standing, which she has not defeated, near Thanksgiving day, when the season is at its prime, instead of at its very beginning as she did this year.

The meeting of the Colorado Intercollegiate Athletic association is an important one for western sports, coming as it does on the eve of a period of great intercollegiate rivalry, when the western states are going to try to outdo each other with all the spirit that Harvard goes up against Yale. The rules adopted at the meeting prohibit any man from playing on any college team until he has worked in the college a full year. It is a rule advocated by lovers of football who don't admire the professionalism in it, and the taint of hoodlumism that comes with the profesional player. It means that hereafter participants in the game must be athletic students and not student athletes, and that a team stocked with "ringers" will hereafter be a thing of the past.

During the last season there was a constant rumor in Salt Lake that Logan had brought extra men from the coast with her to throw into the championship game, and just now bad feeling is breaking out in Logan over the alleged attempt of Coach Maddock to steal the crack members of Logan's team. While Mr. Maddock satisfactorily explains his action in the matter, admitting the fact that he has been in communication with Logan players as charged, still a one year rule in Utah would, in the opinion of many local rooters, remove a lot of temptation on the part of everybody, and make for clean sport.

The schedule of Colorado games as arranged for the determining of the Colorado championship, is as follows:

Oct. 14.—Agricultural College vs School of Mines, at Fort Collins.

Nov. 4.—Agricultural College vs Colorado College at Colorado Springs.

Nov. 11.—Denver University vs Colorado College at Colorado Springs.

Nov. 18.—School of Mines vs Colorado College at Colorado Springs.

Nov. 18.—Agricultural College vs Denver University at Denver.

Nov. 30 (Thanksgiving day)—School of Mines vs Denver University at Denver.

One important team is left out of the schedule—that of Boulder, and the reason given is that Boulder has come under the ban for refusing to postpone her Stanford game last Thanksgiving. Boulder will have no Colorado games, but will try to fill out her season with Nebraska, Kansas and coast teams. A committee was appointed at the convention to petition the American Athletic union for admission, and a favorable reply is anticipated. The School of Mines was officially declared the Colorado champions for 1904. As Utah did not meet this team her comparative standing with it is still a matter of estimation on the basis of comparative scores.

LUCAS EXPLAINS.

Issues a Statement of His Troubles in Baseball Affairs.

Mr. Lucas, according to the Butte News, has issued a statement from Spokane, reviewing his position in the baseball situation.

He denies the allegation made by Mr. Williams that he had been offered $1,500 by Lucas to abandon the field at Spokane. He charges Williams with trying to cut the players off a month short in their contracts by asking that a meeting be called of the representatives of the P. N. L. last July. He takes credit for placing the league in a creditable place in the baseball world by seeing to it that the schedules were played out to the end. He says he has worked hard to make the league one that success would gain for it a standing and that it should not fall into derision in the eyes of the fandom. Williams, he says, made every effort to get into the Coast league, but that they wouldn't have him. Wilmot at the same time agitated the Utah-Montana proposition, leaving Lucas the only real live sport in the western baseball world.

The little row with Williams in regard to the payment of tht protection fee of the Boise team to Mr. McCloskey and his deduction of $50 for the draft fee of player Starkells is explained with credit and good judgment redounding to Lucas.

He takes the statement of Mr. Williams that Lucas and McCloskey are outlaws as a huge joke. He calls attention again to the fact that they were the ones who elevated the sport in the west, and made it pay where it had always fallein the depths of debt.

To the accusations of some mebers of the league that he, Lucas, had misappropriated funds belonging to the league, he states that his honesty is unquestionable and that he has vouchers to show where every cent was placed. He says when it is decided who is the proper person to receive the books that he will turn them over and that his balances will show him honest to each red penny.

His statement closes with a gaurantee that the Northwestern will give to baseball fans a season of clean, snappy ball for Spokane and the other cities of the league.

THE AGGIE PLAYERS.

Coach Maddock Explains His Letters to Fenn and Ingersoll.

A charge is openly made in Logan by football people that Maddock of Utah is flirting with their star players, and that he has written communications to their wonderful little quarterback, Fenn, and to Ingersoll, their next best man.

In relation to this matter, Coach Joseph Maddock said this morning: "Yes, I have written to both these men, but not with the least intention of influencing them in any way to leave the Agricultural college. In regard to Ingersoll I heard from a Utah man who lives in the same town with him, that he was now out of school, and had made up his mind to come next year to the university to take the course in engineering or mining. My informant advised that I write to him regarding the matter. I simply did then what every physical director does and would do—wrote him a formal note of welcome to the university and assured him of our kindly attitude in case he should come. The same thing is true in regard to Fenn. I heard that he had thrown down the Agie captaincy because he did not intend to return there next year, but to come here to take a university course. Acting on this information I merely wrote the same sort of a note, assuring him that he would receive a friendsly welcome from us should he come. There was nothing in the letters offering any special inducement, nor no intention to influence their leaving Logan. I have copies of the letters and am perfectly willing to make their contents public. I only acted as all the best coaches in America would act under the circumstances."

The contest between the Tuxedos and Senators at the Palace alleys last night was before a crushing gathering of the fans. Everybody thought that the Senators were due to start something. It is always the unexpected that happens and the wise ones failed to do their duty. The Tuxedos have lately practised a new stunt, taking all they can get. They did the same last night.

The game was exciting throughout. Four men rolled over 200.

Zehring's scores last night have won for him a total score of 6,000 for 30 games, and has thereby reached the 200 mark in his averages. This would take the long green at the place that was made famous by the amber fluid.

Here are the scores:

ROOSEVELT THE BOXER.

The Interview Which Got His Old Trainer Into Trouble.

Press dispatches from Washington yesterday stated that Mike Donovan, who had been invited to go to Washington and teach the boxing art to the president, had violated a White House rule in making public confidential corespondence, and that he had been cautioned not to talk any more if he wanted to keep his position. His troublesome interview, which he gave to an eastern paper is as follows:

"I was dressed as I am now, but Mr. Roosevelt wore a woolen shirt, a pair of khaki trousers and canvas shoes. He's a big man now, weighing, I should say, at least 200 pounds. Before we put up our hands he insisted that I should hit straight and not tap, as he was going to slam them at me, and wanted it to be even on the knocks.

"I was really surprised at the way he boxed. I'm here at the gym every day, you know, boxing, and I know a good man when I see one. Take it from me, he can box as good as the best of them. Yes, a good puncher, too. Hits straight from the shoulder, and is as quick as a cat. I'm a prety lively old fellow, I can tell you, and he kept me on the jump all the way.

"His hardest punch? Well, I guess the best one he caught me was a right on the ear the first day he boxed. It was a hummer, you bet, and stung for five minutes after it landed.

"Yes, I hit him and hit him hard, but he was as good natured about it as a boy. He just jumped right in and enjoyed it like a good swim. We joked and joshed while we were jumping around the study jolting one another."

ON THE HOT SANDS OF DEATH

How the Grim Riders Skim Over the Strand at Ormond.

Ormond Beach, Fla., Feb. 4.—A serious accident happened here today. W. Gass Opolis, while driving his ninety-horsepower Alcibiades (catalog on application, machines ready for delivery), ran over a stranded porpoise. The jar threw his foot off the cassandra and one of his hands slipped in between the spokes of the dingus. Incidentally his head struck the shoulder of his mechanician, who was thrown out of the machine.

Mr. Opolis sustained a contused eye. The machine was not even strained. This demonstrated the stability of the Alcibiades type of car. The mechanician had his skull fractured and is said to have died subsequently.

Percival Rollhard has put blinkers on his forty-horsepower stroller to keep it from running into the ocean.

Mrs. George Light Welter, who is perfectly devoted to her new Ecrivisse, is writing a magazine article upon how it feels to run sidewise at the rate of a mile in thirty-five seconds, and then stop suddenly.

Tomorrow Jack Chimley is going to try to smash the submarine record with his freak buckboard, just for the deuce of the thing.

A mechanician who belongs to the entourage of Baron Gaolinsky, broke the two-minute record yesterday. He did it in 1:35. The count felt highly elated when his condition permitted his being informed.

Chub Feelingswell has named his new Squinton the Gray Squirrel, because you can't keep it on the ground. Chub is always the life of the party, although he has been the death of two chauffeurs.

WESTERN BOY LEADS.

All but Three Amateur Billiardists Are Out of the Game at Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 7.—W. H. Sigourney of San Francisco, Charles F. Conklin of Chicago and Edward Gardner of New York are the players left in the amateur billiard tournament, who will fight out the final games for first honors. All the other entries in the tournament have finished their games, and the three players who head the winning column will, it is expected, finish up the schedule by Thursday night. Gardner and Conkin are now tied for first place, each having won four games, with none lost. Sigourney won three games and lost one. Gardner lost his first game in the tournament, but his opponent in that game was Edward C. Rein, one of the local players, who, on account of his failure to appear last night for his game scheduled with Stark, was declared out of the tournament today by the committee in charge of the games. Rein's elimination from the tournament affected the standing of Conklin, Sigourney and Schmitt, as well as Gardner. But in the case of the latter three it worked as a handicap instead of a benefit, as they had won their matches against Rein.

W. H. Sigourney, the Pacific champion, lost his first game so far in the tournament this evening. His opponent was Charles Threshie of Boston. The final score was 200 to 207 in favor of the Boston player. Threshie's play was the best he has shown so far in the tournament, and he steadily drew ahead of Sigourney from the start. Sigourney fell down on several easy shots and played a rather weak game all through the match. Threshie's high run was 43, and his average 7 34-38. The best run Sigourney secured was 32, and his average was 5 22-37. The other games today resulted:

Conklin defeated Charles S. Schmitt of Racine, 200 to 178.

Charles Norris of New York defeated Schmitt, 200 to 190.

Conklin and Sigourney wil meet in the first game tomorrow, and in the evening game Gardner wil meet the winner of this match.

Los Angeles, Feb. 7.—Four favorites came home in front at Ascot today, the other two races going to third choices at liberal odds. RIFLE MARCH AT BISLEY.

Sir Howard Vincent Proposes One to Col. Appleton.

New York, Feb. 8.—Draft of conditions have been received by Col. Daniel Appleton of the Seventh regiment, New York national guard, from Sir Howard Vincent, colonel commandant of the Queen's Westminster volunteers, for a trophy rifle match to be shot in July at Bisley, England, between teams from their respective commands. The conditions provide for teams of six men each, to shoot 15 shots a man at each of four ranges—500, 600, 800 and 1,000 yards, each team to use the guns of its regular service. These conditions are entirely satisfactory to the Seventh, and will undoubtedly be accepted.

It is expected that the team will sail for England early in June in order to obtain a week or more of practise at the Bisley range before the match. The contest promises to be one of much international interest. The Queen's Westminster volunteer regiments and companies which have arisen to defend England against invasion, is one of the most famous of England's militia organizations.

The Seventh regiment has for years made the highest regimental average for marksmanship among the United States national guard regiments, and has on its rolls a great many experts and sharpshooters. From the best of these, the team will be selected.

Freshmen and Athletic Contests.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The faculty of the Northwestern university law school has taken a long step in advance of the college conference rule which bars freshmen from competition on athletic teams for six months by issuing an order forbidding any student of freshman standing in that department from competing in athletics on any Northwestern team.

This rule will serious affect the athletic teams of the university. Arthur Reuber, this year's captain of the football team, and the most promising candidate for pitcher on the 'varsity baseball team, will be barred, as will James Van Ryper, the star halfback of last year's eleven, and Albert Jenkins, tackle. The track team will lose C. Granberg, a recent find, who did good work for the Central Y. M. C. A. last year.

It is thought the movement was prompted by wholesale desertions from the law school after the close of the football season last fall.

PROPOSALS FOR DEALING WITH LABOR PROBLEM

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.—The following proposals for dealing with the labor problem have been framed by Finance Minister Kokovsoff and approved by the emperor. They will be debated by the committee of ministers with a view to legislation on the subject.

The minister advocates the necessity of allowing workmen to participate in measures for the improvement of their lot. He thinks certain organizations ought to be permitted, and suggests that the hospital and sick funds be jointly administered and supported by masters and men. The minister also suggests a bureau of representatives of both masters and men to confer for the settlement of disputes as to wages and on other questions affecting the amelioration of workmen's conditions.

The minister thinks it is possible to reduce the working day to 10 hours, with nine hours for night work, and to fix an eventual date for the introduction of an eight-hour day. Manufacturers would be allowed to carry on work on holidays, but would be bound to give the men four free days each month. Special measures should be adopted to restrict abuses in the direction of overtime and to revise the laws concerning strikes and breaches of contract.

The minister points out that the existing law regards strikes not as economic movements, but as breaches of social order, and considers that the revision should adopt the western European point of view, that all strikes not accompanied by excesses should be treated solely as economic movements.

In conclusion, the minister emphasizes the urgent necessity for improving the medical assistance available for workmen. Its proposals will be considered together with the question of state insurance.

MONTANA SENATE.

Passes the Brenner Railroad Commission Bill.

Helena, Mont., Feb. 7.—The senate this afternoon passed the Brenner railroad commission bill, which is patterned after the Minnesota railroad commission law. The governor, secretary of state and W. C. King are named as commissioners.

The bill provides for an elective commission of three members, to be chosen at the next general election. In the meantime the first commission is to be appointive. The commission has power to fix traffic rates, but the railroads affected may go into the courts to protest against any acts of the commission that may be regarded as unjust.

The bill provides that no rebates shall be given by the railroad companies and that there shall be no preferences or discriminations in rates to the disadvantage of any person, firm or corporation. The bill also forbids the combination or pooling of interests of different roads.

Lumbermen Hold Convention.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 7.—The Western Retail Lumbermen's association is holding its annual convention here. About 100 members, representing 55 firms, are here from Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana. Utah has applied for admission. The convention will last three days—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. The meetings are behind closed doors. The Hoo Hoos, a secret order made up of lumbermen, will give a banquet and initiate 45 new members tomorrow night.

A Dawson Saloon Held Up.

Fairbanks, Alaska, via Dawson, Feb. 7.—The Pioneer saloon was held up by a lone robber on Dec. 19, who made the bartender hand over all the money in the place, amounting to $590. The citizens of Fairbanks have subscribed $2,000 as a reward for the capture of the robber.

Oscar Baubet, formerly a Klondiker, was killed by a falling tree, while cutting wood up the Tanana river.

Garfinkle's clothing store at Fairbanks has been burned. Loss, including building, stock and furniture, in Lew Craden and Charley Squire' law offices, $7,000. No insurance.

Held on Fugitive Warrant.

Drowned in a Pit.

Virginia City, Mont., Feb. 7.—A man named Munster, who was employed by the Conroy Mining company at Ruby, fell off a scow at the Cordon dredge today and was drowned in the pit where the dredge was excavating.

Gopon in Switzerland.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 7.—Father Gopon, the leader of the workmen of St. Petersburg in the affair of Jan. 22, is now known to be in Switzerland. The police have discovered at the residence of Municipal Councillor Kedrine, one of those who were arrested with Maxim Gorky after the attempt to interview Minister of the Interior Sviatopolk-Mirsky, the night before the collision between the soldiers and the workmen in this city, and who is still in St. Peter and St. Paul fortress, the draft of a proclamation inciting the army to revolt.

King Oscar Indisposed.

Stockholm, Feb. 8.—King Oscar is indisposed and unable to transact state business. At today's session of the council of state he handed over the reins of government to Crown Prince Gustaf until further notice. This is not the first time that King Oscar, who is 76 years old, has entrusted the Crown Prince of Sweden and Norway with the reins of government. He was compelled by ill-health to do so in January, 1899, and it was reported at the time that the people of Sweden and Norway wished him to abdicate. The king reassumed power in January, 1901.

Blake, governor of Ceylon, has announced at a meeting of the Asiatic society, according to a Times dispatch from Colombo, Ceylon, that the chief Singalese medical books of the sixth century described 67 varieties of mosquitos and 424 kinds of malarial fever caused by mosquitos.

A DOLLAR'S WORTH FREE TO ANY RHEUMATIC SUFFERER.

I ask no deposit—no reference—no security. There is nothing to risk—nothing to promise—nothing to pay, either now or later. Any Rheumatic sufferer who does not know my remedy may have a full dollar's worth free to try.

I willingly make this liberal offer because I know that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy may be relied upon ALWAYS to bring the utmost relief that medicine can. Years before I discovered this remedy, I studied the nature of Rheumatism. For Rheumatism is really Crystalized Poison!

Your blood is always full of poison—the poison you eat and drink and breathe into your system. It is the purpose of the blood to absorb and carry off this very poison. And the kidneys, which are the blood filters, are expected to cleanse the blood and send it back through the system clean, to gather more poison which, they, in turn, will eliminate.

But sometimes the kidneys fail. And sometimes, from some other cause, the blood gets so full of poison that they cannot absorb it all. This is the start of Rheumatism. The poison accumulates and crystalizes. The crystals look like little grains of sugar or on fine white sand. The blood carries them and they increase in size. Then, when it can carry them no longer, it deposits them in a joint—on a bone—anywhere.

The twinge in your leg—the dull ache in your arm on a rainy day—these are the outward signs of the unseen crystals. And the twisted limbs and unspeakable anguish of the sufferer who has allowed his symptoms to go unheeded and unattended for years—these are the evidences of what Rheumatism, neglected, can do.

Rheumatism includes lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, gout—for all these are the results of rheumatic poison in the blood.

Plainly, the first thing to do is to remove the poison. But this is not enough. The FORMATION of the poison must be stopped, so that nature may have a chance to dissolve and eliminate the crystals which have already formed. Unless this is done there can be no cure—no permanent relief.

I searched the whole earth for a specific for Rheumatism—something that I or any physician could feel safe in prescribing—something that we could count on not only occasionally, but ALWAYS. For the ravages of Rheumatism are everywhere and genuine relief is rare.

Mild cases are sometimes cured by a single package.—On sale at forty thousand drug stores.

I spent twenty years in experimenting before I felt satisfied that I had a certain remedy for this dread disease—a remedy which would not only clean out the poison, but one which would stop its formation.

Certain Relief.

The secret lay in a wonderful chemical I found in Germany. When I found this chemical, I knew that I could make a Rheumatic cure that would be practically certain. But even then, before I made an announcement—before I was willing to put my name on it—I made more than 2,000 tests! And my failures were but 2 per cent.

This German chemical is not the only ingredient I use in Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure—but it made the remedy possible—made possible an achievement which, I doubt not, could have been made in no other way.

This chemical was very expensive. The duty, too, was high. In all it cost me $4.90 per pound. But what is $4.90 per pound for a REAL remedy for the world's most painful disease—for a REAL relief from the greatest torture human beings know?

I don't mean that Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure can turn bony joints into flesh again—that is impossible. But it will drive from the blood the poison that causes pain and swelling, and then that is the end of the pain and swelling—the end of the suffering—the end of Rheumatism. That is why I can afford to make this liberal offer—that is why I can afford to spend the FIRST dollar that Rheumatic sufferers, the world over, may learn of my remedy.

Simply Write Me

The offer is open to everyone, everywhere, who has not tried my remedy. But you must write ME for the free dollar package order. I will send you an order on your druggist which he will accept as gladly as he would accept a dollar. He will hand you from his shelves a standard sized package and he will send the bill to me. There are no conditions—no requirements. All that I ask you to do is to write—write today. I will send you my book on Rheumatism beside. It is free. It will help you to understand your case. 53 Cottage St. Melrose, Mass.
Jan. 11th, 1904.

Dear Sir:

"Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.

I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers, I am,"

Very truly yours,
I. C. RICHARDSON.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but it promptly cures kidney, liver and bladder troubles, the symptoms of which are—obliged to pass your water frequently night and day, smarting or irritation in passing, brick-dust or sediment in the urine, headache, backache, lame back, dizziness, poor digestion, sleeplessness, nervousness, heart disturbance due to bad kidney trouble, skin eruptions from bad blood, neuralgia, rheumatism, diabetes, bloating, irritability, wornout feeling, lack of ambition, loss of flesh, sallow complexion, or Bright's disease.

If your water, when allowed to remain undisturbed in a glass or bottle for twenty-four hours, forms a sediment or settling or has a cloudy appearance, it is evidence that your kidneys and bladder need immediate attention.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is for sale at drug stores the world over in bottles of two sizes and two prices—fifty cents and one dollar. Remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

SPECIAL NOTE.—In order to prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands upon thousands of testimonial letters received from men and women cured. The value and success of Swamp-Root are so well known that our readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. In sending your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in the Salt Lake City Daily Deseret News. The genuineness of this offer is guaranteed.
