Is Issued Mondays and Thursdays and contains all the cream of the Daily and Saturday News

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Swedish Lutherans will hold Ascension Day services at 7:45 this evening.

There will be vocal and instrumental music in the Assembly hall at Friday night's convention.

An exhibit of school work was held today in the Franklin school, and will continue on tomorrow.

It is estimated that 150 telephones will be used in Beatty, Rhyolite, Bullfrog and Gold Center by July 1.

The St. Mark's Hospital Training School for Nurses will hold graduating exercises this evening, at the cathedral.

The state land board has set aside for the present the bids in the matter of the Forty-ninth district schoolhouse, until the bond question is cleared up.

There was an officers' school last night, at the state armory, but only about half of the officers of the local part of the Guard were in attendance.

The police have their hands full watching owners of teams who persist in hitching to hydrants in violation of the ordinance. There is a little fine of $10 attached to this.

James H. Anderson, J. B. Swenson and Willard Snow have been appointed by the county commissioners as delegates from this county to the state good roads convention.

Mary Bennett has been committed to the state mental hospital by Judge Armstrong after examination as to her sanity by County Physician Whitney and Dr. Osterman.

This is examination week at the Salt Lake Collegiate Institute and Gordon academy. The Baccalaureate sermon of the Collegiate Institute will be preached next Sunday evening by Rev. Dr. Paden.

The notorious Sam Grice was arraigned this morning on the charge of burglary. He entered a plea of not guilty, and the case was set for preliminary hearing next Tuesday. In default of $500 bail, Sam was committed to the county jail.

Prof. Swendsen will put 20 men into the field next week getting the machinery for drilling into the Strawberry valley, and preparing the camp for occupancy. A corps of engineers is expected from Washington in a short time.

Local physicians remark that on Decoration day, there are no casualties; but on the Fourth of July, look out. several doctors say they make it a point to stick close to home on the Fourth, ready to respond immediately to any emergency.

Prof. Richard Lyman went to Provo today to deliver an address to the graduates of the schools. Dr. Ralph Chamberlain, also of the University of Utah, will go to Park City on Friday, where he will address the high school alumni.

A wily woman grafter is abroad in the land. She secures entree to houses by giving the impression that she is inspecting the premises for the state board of health, and then tries to work the people there for $18 for a medical book worth many dollars less.

Nathan Wilkes, a 16-year-old boy, is in jail on the charge of stealing chickens. The young man has previously been before the Juvenile court and it is understood that he failed to report to Judge Brown when ordered to do so, and this time it is likely to go hard with him.

Prof. Swendsen and his staff of engineers have returned from the Strawberry valley, whither they took the machinery that had been lying at Heber until the snow got out of the way. They expected active construction of the dam will begin this fall, and say the outlook for water there is exceptionally good.

The services at the Fort Douglas cemetery on Tuesday were conducted by Reynolds Circle No. 1 of the Ladies of the G. A. R., who also decorated the 254 graves. Past Department Commander Burns read Lincoln's Gettysburg address, and a gun detail from the post fired three shots, and a bugler blew taps.

Salt Lake county has some real estate for sale in this city and the commissioners have authorized County Clerk Eldredge to advertise the same. The property to be sold is 8x10 rods on the corner of Second South and Second West streets just west of the county jail. The sale of that much of the lot will leave enough for jail use.

The Real Estate association took up the matter of a North Bench drive at yesterday afternoon's meeting, the idea being to make of this drive a continuation of the fine macadamized road recently built on the military reservation. The association also decided to hold its annual outing on the 28th inst., but where, is yet to be agreed upon. The drive matter will be vigorously pushed.

Governor Cutler says that until General Park returns from Denver, nothing will be done in the matter of the failure of the National Guard to turn out on Decoration day. The adjutant general, the acting brigade commander, and the battery commander decline to talk for publication, leaving the matter in the hands of the governor. But when General Park returns there will be something doing.

A Texan who is after a government office in that state writes a friend in this city that he understands "Uncle Joe" Cannon, speaker of the house of representatives at Washington, is from Utah, and he would be pleased for the friend to use his influence with the speaker. As "Uncle Joe" represents the Eighteenth congressional district of Illinois, and probably has never been in Utah, this request can hardly be complied with.

Dr. Theodore S. Palmer of the department of agriculture at Washington is in the city today enroute to Portland. He is connected with the fish and game division of the department, and called to see State Fish and Game Commissioner John Sharp in regard to a convention of all the fish and game commissioners at Portland some time during the summer. Definite arrangements have not yet been made for the convention.

The Greek Community of Utah is the name of a corporation whose articles of incorporation have been filed inthe secretary of state's office. The incorporators have purchased a site and will soon commence the construction of a church. Nicholas P. Stathakos is president of the board of trustees; Steve G. Skliris, vice president; George Christoflilou, treasurer; Anastasius Papas, secretary. Elder Parthenois Limberopoulos will be the pastor.

Frieds of parties buried at Mt. Olivet have been complaining because of the alleged removal of grave headboards, but the management states that such headboards are only allowed in certain localities, and in any event are not to remain over two years. However, the two years limit is often disregarded, and when the boards decay and fall over, they are removed, and a numbered marble peg placed there, so that the indentity of the deceased is not lost.

Five special trains of Knights of Columbus are due late this afternoon, and lay over until tomorrow. Some will go via the Salt Lake route, others by the Southern Pacific. The special with officers of the grand council will arrive tomorrow morning and remain over until evening. The delegates to Los Angeles, as they pass through, are being entertained by the Salt Lake council, and tomorrow evening, the local council itself over 100 strong, will leave over the Salt Lake Route for southern California.

The street railway management has completed lowering the network of tracks at E and South Temple streets, and the new north track was used yesterday, to relieve the stress of traffic. However, this can not be continued as the cement road bed would not set properly under the disturbing movement caused by passage of the cars. So the track will not be used again until the cementing is completed. Track laying is in progress east of E street now well on to Seventh East where the improvement stops.

At the Salt Lake Theater tonight the efforts of the West Side High school juniors to imitate the senior commencement exercises will occur. The juniors have worked for months in an effort to produce a program which will take the edge off the novelties of the seniors, and it promises to be of intense interest. The seniors will attend tonight with vegetables and jeers, while tomorrow night the seniors will hold the boards before a similar audience of juniors. Anything in the nature of an explanation of their program the juniors refuse to give out.

Moses J. Howa, a Turk, made application to County Clerk Eldredge yesterday for his first citizenship papers and made a declaration of intention to become a citizen of the United States. He is probably the first Turk to make application for citizenship in this county. His brother, John Howa, will probably be admitted to citizenship today. He having taken out his first papers in the east five years ago. He made application for admission yesterday, but the judges of the district court were too busy to examine him so he will probably be admitted today.

Dr. E. C. Abbott of Boston lectured last evening, at M. H. Walker's east South Temple street mansion, on "Hamlet," part of the proceeds going to the Infants' Home and Day Nursery on I street. The lecturer characterized the play as a tragedy not of action, but of thought, appealing more strongly to persons of middle life than those in youth. Edwin Booth was the great Hamlet of modern times, and his interpretation of the play would live in the minds of those who had heard him, as long as life lasted. "The Merchant of Venice" will be given by Dr. Abbott tomorrow at 3 p. m., at the residence of President Frank Knox of the Bank of the Republic on east First South street.

Commencing at 10 o'clock this morning, a new owner took charge of the book store which has been conducted at 164 Main street for many years by A. R. Derge. Mr. Derge, who is one of Salt Lake's most venerable merchants, retires from business on account of ill health, and last night negotiations were concluded by which D. A. Callahan, proprietor of the Callahan "Old Book" store on west Second South street, took over the property. In taking charge Mr. Callahan announced that all the old employes should be retained in their places. Arrangements were also made at the time of the transfer to have Mr. Derge retain his connection with the house for a few months, in order to facilitate Mr. Callahan's securing a knowledge of the business. Callahan's "Old Book" store will continue under Edward H. Callahan, who has been associated with his brother, since the store opened.

A SUCCESSFUL LUMBER BUSINESS.

George Romney, president, and O. D. Romney, manager of the George Romney Lumber company, are to be congratulated on the striking success their new lumber business has attained. Having severed connections with the Taylor, Romney, Armstrong company, about two years ago, they, with William Service and Alma J. Brown opened their new yard at 65 north First West street, where the huge piles of lumber and the busy men and teams testify to a big, steadily increasing trade. Sound methods coupled with a thorough knowledge of the business has already placed this firm in the front ranks of the western lumber world.

Big prize dance in the new pavilion at Lagoon Friday night.

HIGH SCHOOL CADETS.

On Monday Next They Will Go Into Encampment at Lagoon.

The High School cadets have finished their year's work in Salt Lake, and are now busy preparing for the encampment at Lagoon, which will last for seven days beginning next Monday. About 120 cadets have signed up to attend the encampment, and a genuine good time is anticipated as well as one valuable in instructions to the youthful military men. The plan of the encampment includes long practise marches, sham battles, parades, and squad, platoon and company drills.

Monday an advance guard will go out to the resort and pitch tents, getting the camp into condition for the main body which will arrive Tuesday. A feature at the end of the encampment will be a prize for the command breaking camp and folding its tents in the shortest time.

Just What Everyone Should Do.

Mr. J. T. Barber of Irwinville, Ga., always keeps a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy at hand ready for instant use. Attacks of colic, cholera morbus and diarrhoea come on so suddenly that there is no time to hunt a doctor or go to the store for medicine. Mr. Barber says: "I have tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which is one of the best medicines I ever saw. I keep a bottle of it in my room as I have had several attacks of colic and it has proved to be the best medicine I ever used." Sold by all Druggists.

This Day In History.

JUNE 1st

1841—Sir David Wilkie, R. A., celebrated Scottish painter, died at sea off Gibraltar; born 1785.

1872—James Gordon Bennett, founder of the New York Herald, died in New York; born 1795. Bennett was a pioneer newspaper maker. When his paper was a weak, struggling affair he reported the great New York fire of 1835 with a fullness of detail and incident which set the fashion for the times. He introduced the daily money article and engaged correspondents in Europe and in the principal American cities. He employed newsboys to circulate the Herald and was, in fact, original, aggressive and audacious in an age when to be so required genius of the highest type.

1879—Prince Louis Napoleon, the only child and heir of Napoleon III, killed by the Zulus in South Africa, where he served on the staff of the British commander.

1898—Thomas W. Keene, noted American actor, died in New York city; born 1840.

1903—A cyclone at Gainesville, Ga., killed over 100 persons and injured 200; property loss, $500,000.
