WEEK'S BUSINESS IS SATISFACTORY

Conditions in All Departments Such as to Make Merchants Generally Happy.

MILLERS ARE CUTTING PRICES.

Boot and Shoe Men Report Business Better Than Ever—Book Stores Are Busy.

Business for the week has been satisfactory along general lines, though in one or two there has been little or nothing doing. The latter reference applies to the flour and grain trade, although hay is becoming stiff in price and has a tendency upwards. The Produce Exchange having adjourned for the season, the members thereof are selling according to their own sweet wills at any price that suits individually. The dry goods trade reports business steady and satisfactory. Several large concerns have been having bargain sales, with the usual sudden increas of customers, and disappearance of lines of goods not desirable for further keeping. The steady warm weather has brought out many purchasers of summer goods.

The boot and shoe men report business better than ever, and with prospects of better times than ever, notwithstanding the leather market is steadily tending skyward. The hardware men report trade steady and firm in all departments of the business. The book sellers are busy with the summer girl and the vacation student, who are buying love stories and novels galore as a relief from the more prosaic reading of the colder months. The soda water stands are doing a land office business—or rather were doing it until this morning's rain came along and cut down the "enthusiastic attendance." The clothing men report fair trade for the week, and the banks have done an excellent business. The hotels have done a regular land office traffic with beds in the parlors and out in the corridors. One hotel proprietor, Fred Wey, said his house had done the biggest week in its history. The railroads have been crowded as never before, and at times it seemed as though everybody was traveling.

GAVE OFFICER THE SLIP.

Nathan Wilkes Refuses to Act on Order Of Judge Brown.

From the latest developments in the case of Nathan Wilkes, who was committed to the reform school by Judge Brown on Thursday and given his papers and told to go to the school alone and present them, it appears that the boy does not intend to go to the school at all, unless he is compelled to go in the custody of an officer.

Instead of going to Ogden when first committed, he did not even get on the train, as supposed by the officer who shadowed him, but sneaked away and loafed around the railroad yards until yesterday afternoon when he was arrested by two police officers and taken before Judge Brown again.

He told the judge that he lost his commitment papers, so the court gave him new papers and started him out again on his honor. He was shadowed by Deputy Sheriff Booth but when within a short distance from the Short Line depot he started off in another direction. The officer overtook him and told him that he had better go on to Ogden, where he started. The boy then turned back toward the depot, followed by the deputy.

He arrived at the depot all right, but when the officer's back was turned for a few seconds he started off on a dead run along the tracks towards North Temple street. Deputy Booth gave chase, but the boy was too fast for him, and after running for several blocks the deputy gave up the race. The last he saw of Nathan he was still running west on North Temple street. It is more than probable that when he is recaptured he will be taken to Ogden in the custody of an officer.

Today Judge Brown took about 15 of his juvenile court boys to Ogden to play ball with the inmates of the reform school.

LOW DEATH RATE.

Eleven Reported for the Week as Against 31 Births.

The report of the city board of health for the week ending June 17, shows 31 births, 10 males and 21 females. The death report for the same period numberer 11. Of these 7 were male and 4 female.

The contagious diseases reported for the week numbered 13; as follows: Two cases of diphtheria, one case of chickenpox, eight cases of smallpox and one case of varioloid.

JUST WAIT AWHILE.

Explanation Regarding Salt Lake Route Story Printed in the "News"

The morning papers have frequently published denials of statements made in the Deseret News concerning railroad affairs. These have invariably turned out to be exhibitions of wrath, because this paper happened to get ahead of them on information of interest to the public, which subsequently were proven correct. This morning a denial is made of accounts that appeared in the San Francisco Call and other coast papers concerning matters relating to the Salt Lake route and the Southern Pacific people, and incidentally the Deseret News is brought in as having circulated something that is untrue. We do not desire to enter into any controversy on this subject, but simply state that the information on which the Deseret News relies is always authentic, and when it is obtained from other papers due credit is given. If the public will just wait a while they will find out that the "News" has made no mistake on this occasion, and the fact that the following advertisement is running in this paper will bear out one of the bits of news that is denied in the morning papers:

"Wanted at Las Vegas, Nevada, 200 graders and teamsters to work on Tonopah and Tidewater railroad, good wages, long job."

We have other facts at command that need not now be cited in confirmation of that which was published on this matter in these columns, but will reserve them for future use if necessary. As to Senator Clark personally, the Deseret News has supported him in his great projects and the very best of feelings are entertained on his part for this paper, of which we are able to furnish the most positive proofs. Time tries all, and it will substantiate all that has appeared in these columns on this subject.

GOOD WORDS FOR UTAH.

Major Breeden Discusses Local Situation in Indianapolis.

The Indianapolis Star of June 9 has the following:

Having twice received the title of attorney general at the hands of the people of Utah, M. A. Breeden, formerly of Ogden, is naturally all the more proud of his state and, after a short stay in Indianapolis, will leave this morning for Salt Lake, there to further serve in his official capacity.

In one respect, especially, Mr. Breeden's election in 1900, also his re-election in 1904, is noteworthy. Of the entire staff of state officials with whom he has served, he is the only one not a "Mormon." This does not exclude the governor.

"Utah is coming into her own," said Mr. Breeden last night, "slowly, but surely. The religious questions and agitations will settle themselves in time and the entire people will be at peace. Polygamy is not practised—at least not openly."

"And Reed Smoot?"

"Senator Smoot never had but one wife. Of course he was one of the Apostles of the Church which upheld polygamy, but he never practised it."

"How do the people out there feel about his senatorship?"

"Opinion is divided. There is an anti-Mormon faction in Utah. There is no reason though why Senator Smoot should not be a good official. He should be permitted to keep his seat."

"Altogether, Utah is going to be a state the country can be pound of," said Mr. Breeden. "Salt Lake has just acquired a new railroad and two others are coming in. The state is rich in resources and only needs railroads to bring them out."

Mr. Breeden, while in Indianapolis, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Noel, 1625 Central avenue, to whom he is related.

TOOTH DOCTORS MEET.

Discuss Professional Secrets and Enjoy A Banquet.

The Utah Dental association is holding its fifteenth annual convention in Unity hall with a gratifying attendance. Papers yesterday afternoon included one on "The Cleft Palate" by Dr. E. A. Tripp; "Small Points from Little Potatoes," by Dr. A. C. Wherry; "Deciduous Teeth and their Treatment" by Dr. C. H. Bird; "The Antrum and Associated Troubles," by Dr. Hudson; "Prophylaxis" by H. K. Weber. A banquet was given last evening, and the convention will close this afternoon with a clinic and election of officers for the coming year.

FLOWERS FOR PRISONERS.

"Jennie Cassidy Day" Celebrated at the State Prison.

The W. C. T. U. of this city is celebrating "Jennie Cassidy day" at the state prison this afternoon, as a flower day, and by presenting the prisoners with 200 bunches of flowers, with a program of singing, talks and recitations. Mrs. E. E. Shepard has charge of the exercises. Miss Jennie Cassidy was a resident of Louisville, Ky., who for many years was an invalid confined to her room, and she made it a point to send flowers with sympathetic messages to the inmates of penal institutions. In that way she accomplished a great deal of good, although she was physically helpless.

SEVENTIES' REUNION.

In consequence of the big reception given in the Tabernacle last Tuesday, the intended reunion of the Third quorum of Seventy was not held on that evening. The event has been postponed until next Monday, the 19th, and will occur in the Seventeenth ward assembly hall, commencing at 8 p. m. A splendid program is prepared for the occasion, consisting of songs, recitations, piano selections, a male quartet, etc. There will be no tiresome speeches, but instead, timely toasts and sentiments will be presented, while the guests are partaking of refreshments. The proceedings will conclude with "old fashioned" dances. It is expected that prominent church officials will be present, and all who avail themselves of the invitations issued are assured an evening of genuine enjoyment.

CHURCH NOTICES.

THE KNACK OF "KNOWING THINGS"

"To Know," twin-verb to the more widely discussed "To Do," is coming to take its rightful place in the "Creeds of the Workers."

"To Know" what, when, how "To Do," in the usual and normal situations that arise in our daily lives, in education—is equipment for emergencies, is POWER.

People, nowadays, are growing more and more fond of those facts which have a bearing on their daily lives. They are not averse to knowing the latest theory about gold deposits in the moon—but they take a closer interest in a special sale of gold jewelry at a local store.

They are sorry to learn that a great pianist is threatened with physical collapse—but the fact that there is a chance to buy pianos at greatly reduced prices at a local piano store is of actual, personal interest.

They are casually interested in the fact that the Czarina "manages" several hundreds of servants—but their own chances of securing ONE servant for general housework excite more genuine interest, and they search the "want ads" with more anxiety than they give to the "Foreign news and gossip."

They are amused at Uncle Sam's threat to buy his Canal supplies in "the open market" of the world—but just what things for the home and office cost in the "open market" of their city interests them IN DETAIL—hence they keep "in touch" with the local stores by reading all of the ads.

They feel the horror and pity of the latest slaughter in Manchuria—but a good deal of grim satisfaction in an advertised "slaughter" of prices in two or three local stores.

And it is so with the whole range of the day's events—they are INTERESTED in the news; they are CONCERNED in the advertising. The news interests them in a non-personal way—the ads. are like a live wire with one end attached to their pocket-books.

So, while the newspaper instructs and amuses and educates, it furnishes, also, those other and better-liked facts which color and control the comings and goings and the buyings and sellings and gettings and givings of daily life. It cultivates in its readers "the knack of knowing things."
